Wagner, Katonen Rematched

Gorgeous George Wants Chance at Title; Paavo Claims He Lost by Freak

Paavo Katonen and Gorgeous George will be rematched Friday night at the armory. Promoter Mack Lillard arranged this match today after hearing conflicting, ferocious statements from both sides. Katonen claims he lost last Friday's match on a freak and was willing to put up a tidy sum of money for a rematch with Wagner to prove that he—Paavo—was the better man.

Wagner, on the other hand, claims that he won the match fair and square and wanted the next mat battle with the Pacific coast champ to be for the title belt.

Of course, Katonen demurred to these demands, but after the words had flowed thick and fast, allowed that he would be willing to meet Wagner in one more non-title go, and then—if Wagner won—would be willing to put up his belt in the third struggle.

Wagner wasn't too pleased with this arrangement because he figured he had won the right for a chance at the light-heavy title, but bowed to the pressure of the promoter and Katonen and consented. So, it's all set. Wagner and Katonen battle in a non-title mat go this Friday.

Local Golfers Top Medford In Close Go

Darrel Miller, who acted as master of ceremonies at the inter-city golf event Sunday between Medford and Klamath at the Reames Golf and Country club, came in with the final three points to give the local golfers a 1 1/2 point margin over the 25 Medfordites.

After sending out 12 four-somes Sunday, Miller went out on his own match with Schenck of Medford. He won three points which gave Klamath the win though they had been trailing 1 1/2 points up to that time.

Pro Gridder Confers With Seattle Chiefs

SEATTLE, May 29 (AP)—William D. Cox, former owner of the Philadelphia Phillies baseball team and currently promoting organization of an air-borne professional football circuit, checked in and out of Seattle yesterday to confer with sports leaders.

The millionaire sportsman looked over Sick's stadium, met with local football leaders and conferred with William Freese, one of the organizers of a rival American pro football league.

Cox left by plane for Portland last night, stating he would return Tuesday for further huddles. He did not state whether the proposed league would operate this fall or would be a post-war venture.

NO-HIT, NO-RUN
SAN FRANCISCO, May 29 (AP) George Ehrlich, a relief pitcher for the Philadelphia Phillies before going into the navy about a year ago, hurled a no-hit, no-run ball game yesterday as the naval armed guard of Treasure Island shut out a U. S. marine club, 6-0.

Coaches Talk Collegiate Grid Rule Changes Today

By HAROLD CLAASEN
NEW YORK, May 29 (AP)—The national collegiate football code, unchanged since the 1941 season because of the war, will be the basis of a day-long discussion today, but no matter what is decided at the session of the coaches' streamlined convention, all action will have to be unofficial.

Although the coaches are the ones most concerned with the rules and have done virtually all the agitation for the changes, their organization can only suggest revisions to the national collegiate rules committee of which Lt. Col. William Bingham of Harvard, is chairman.

Fremont, Roosevelt Win Trophies

Fremont school won permanent possession of the Black and White trophy for the highest school in grade school sports this year, and Roosevelt grabbed permanent control of the Joe Peak sportsmanship trophy in presentations made Friday.

Fremont had 117 1/2 points against its closest rival, Mills, with 1107 1/5 points to win the honor for the third consecutive year. The Peak trophy, started in 1937, was won for the third year by Roosevelt which also gave it permanent possession.

The athletic prowess that gave Fremont the Black and White trophy is attested to by the following record made during the past year:

First in touch tackle football. Third in speedball. First in A league volleyball. Fourth in B league volleyball. First in A league basketball. Third in B league basketball. Third in A league softball. First in B league softball. Third in track.

The Black and White trophy was presented at a special assembly held at Fremont Friday. The winner of the sportsmanship trophy is selected by the boys of all the schools who vote the team they think displayed the best sportsmanship among their opponents during the year. This trophy was presented at an assembly at Roosevelt school Friday.

Beavers Still Lead League Despite 5 Losses in South; Rainiers Top Seals Again

By The Associated Press
The Portland Beavers shut out the Hollywood Stars, 8 to 0, in the final game of Sunday's Coast league doubleheader to end a series which saw the Stars move from sixth to fourth place in the league standings as they walloped the Beavers in five of the seven contests at Hollywood.

While the Portland club continued to lead the league the standings of all of the other nines except the tall end Sacramento Solons improved considerably by the Hollywood victories. The seventh place Oakland club, by taking five out of seven games from Sacramento, is only six and a half games behind the leader.

Clarence Federmyer hurled three hit baseball for the Beavers in winning the second game Sunday after Hollywood had copped the first by a 2 to 1 score. Hollywood won the Saturday game, 7 to 5.

The Seattle Rainiers again demonstrated their mastery over the San Francisco Seals by taking the second game of the doubleheader Sunday, 2 to 0, and the series at 4 games to 3. The Seals have lost but two series since the season opened, and both times to Seattle. San Francisco won the opening game Sunday, 4 to 3, to square the series count after Seattle won Saturday's contest by a 11 to 3 score. The Seals held onto second place by two percentage points.

The San Diego Padres with Los Angeles Sunday, by scores of 3 to 2 and 0 to 2, for a 4 to 3 edge on the series but dropped into the second division, one percentage point behind Hollywood, 4 to 1.

Oakland made a clean sweep of the weekend games with Sacramento, winning Saturday, 9 to 1, and taking the Sunday contests by scores of 6 to 0 and 15 to 2. The Oakland club had one of the big innings of the season in the second stanza of the nightcap when they tallied 11 times.

The teams will travel today and will begin new series Tuesday with Memorial Day doubleheaders finding Portland at Seattle, Sacramento at San Diego, San Francisco at Los Angeles and Hollywood at Oakland.

Red Rolfe Backs College World Series Baseball

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 29 (AP)—Red Rolfe, the ex-New York Yankee third sacker, has his way, there's going to be a college baseball world series. "And why not?" argues the popular red-head, now coaching at Yale.

"The major leagues would cooperate and, since the games would be played in June after colleges close, there shouldn't be any reason for academic conflict."

Rolfe doesn't expect his idea will see fruition until after the war, of course, but the former big-leaguer who gave Yale one of its snappiest nines in modern athletic history last summer in his first crack at college coaching, says the groundwork should be laid now.

DIPLOMATIC DEWEY

Doings of Klamath Horseback Enthusiasts, Recounted by "Top Wrangler"

The rodeo board had a meeting last week and after takin' tally of things they're gettin' all set for a good show here the 4th of July. The date is set for the queen contest, June 18, out to the fairgrounds. The little cowgals will have to ride for 85 per cent and then win the rest—35 per cent at the Queen's dance, which is a week later.

There's plenty of doin's in store for those who compete. Good luck girls and let's see lot's of entries. Mall's comin' in from all parts already from some top hands who are anxious to collect some of the purses put up for the events. Did you ever notice them ropin' cowboys, how they ride? ... I'll bet they've spent 20 years learnin' to set a saddle.

You know I couldn't ride like that if I wuz in a box car with my shirt tail tailed to the floor. Mrs. C. Doolittle of Medford phoned she wuz a comin' over the 4th. She's kinda straw boss for a drill team, the lady folks have. They'll be in our parade and put a drill on in front of the grandstand.

Have yeh seen the thoroughbreds out to the fairgrounds? They would make some purty good races, which is always a crowd thriller. Maybe if we all took our horns loud enuf we might get some racin' added to the rodeo.

Alyce Dale Peterson is shore uppity today. She's a new-born colt, American saddle-bred and should be a hunderd, judgin' from it's mummy and pappy. S'pose cigars will be handed out?

Bob Robbins bought himself the nicest black mare. She's three years old and not a flaw on her. Mighty purty, Bob. Clarice Moon wuz out a short cinchlin' her yellin' hose, one of 'em. She and Keith have 'bout 10 or 12 head of palominos out in their ranch. Two little colts kicked up their heels, and a growin' like bad, weeds.

Glady's Hogue is still limpin' 'round from some bowed tendons she got on the breakfast ride. Get the ridin' fever folks, a good hoss can give you that 'certtain sumpin' man can't duplicate. Bye now.

Uses Head To Bring Victory

SALT LAKE CITY, May 29 (AP)—Pitcher Mel Marlowe singled in the last of the eighth to score the tying run for Salt Lake City in the Utah Industrial league. And then he used his head to clinch the victory.

The next batter hit to second, forcing Marlowe. But in the throw to first for the out that would retire the side, the second baseman's toss hit Marlowe on the noggin, the ball caromed into left field while the winning run came home from third.

Marlowe wasn't seriously hurt, but he didn't know how literally he had had his head in the game until hospital attendants told him about it.

Alcohol, Silica Plant Sites Okayed
EUGENE, May 29 (AP)—War defense plant corporation engineers have approved sites for the proposed alcohol-from-wood-waste plant in Springfield and the silica sand treating plant here.

The $2,500,000 Springfield plant will be leased to the Willamette Valley Wood Chemical company; the $75,000 Eugene project to the Silica Products of Oregon, Ltd., Portland.

State Policeman Wounds Peeper
MEDFORD, May 29 (AP)—PFC Emmett F. Mitchell, 20, was reported in critical condition by Camp White hospital attendants today from a bullet wound inflicted by State Police Sgt. Willard M. Ruch, who said he caught the soldier peeping through his bedroom window.

It's Double Or Nothing For Yanks

McCarthy's Bombers Sweep Fourth Twin Bill; Cards Gain Split With Giants

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
It seems to be double or nothing for the world champion New York Yankees whenever they play a doubleheader.

Manager Joe McCarthy's Bronx Bombers have played four twin bills so far this season and have swept all of them. Their latest double success came yesterday at St. Louis where they whipped the Browns twice, 6 to 3 in 11 innings and 6 to 2, to take a three-game lead in the American circuit.

Denny Galehouse, making his first start of the season as a weekend Brown pitcher, stayed on even terms with Hank Borowy for 10 innings in the opener, but Johnny Lindell's homer started a four-run Yank uprising in the 11th. Rookie Joe Page outpitched Jack Kramer in the nightcap.

The St. Louis Cards, National league leaders, gained only a split with the Giants when newly-married Bill Vossiehl hurled a three-hitter for the New Yorkers to take the nightcap, 3 to 1, before 33,104 paid at the Polo Grounds. In the opener big Mort Cooper also twirled a three-hitter and fanned ten in blanking the Ottmen, 8-0.

Jim Tobin and Al Javery, of the Boston Braves, put an abrupt end to the seven-game winning streak of the Chicago Cubs. Their pitching, coupled with Eutch Nieman's two homers and a triple, gave the Braves both ends of a twin bill, 7 to 3 and 7 to 4.

The Boston Red Sox made it six straight over the Chicago White Sox by pasting the Dykemen twice, 6 to 4 and 4 to 2, hitting opportunely behind bases on balls and Chicago misplays. Joe Bowman and Rookie Clem Hausman went the route for the Red Sox.

Brooklyn delighted a turnout of 28,061 at Ebbets field by beating Cincinnati twice, 8 to 7 and 3 to 2. Augie Galan's eighth inning single won the opener. A one-baser by Rookie Eddie Basinski with the bases full shattered a 1-1 deadlock in the nightcap.

Detroit managed to win its third of 16 home starts by pounding out a 15 to 2 triumph over Washington in the second game of a bargain bill. The Senators won the opener, 4 to 2, behind Jeggeling's effective pitching. A first inning homer by Jimmy Outlaw with the bases loaded started the Tigers to an easy conquest in the afterpiece.

Rip Sewell pitched the batted Pittsburgh to a 4-0 victory over the Phillies, but Freddy Fitzsimmons' men turned on Nick Strincevich to grab the nightcap, 8 to 2, for a split. Sewell tripled one run home to back up his six-hit twirling.

Cleveland and the Philadelphia Athletics also divided a doubleheader. Jesse Flores was effective in the pinches to take the opener for the A's, 4 to 3. The tribe took the second, 5 to 3, behind Rookie Pitcher Paul Calvert.

Johnston Optimistic On Eastern Trade
CAIRO, May 29 (AP)—Eric Johnston, president of the United States chamber of commerce, expressed optimism today about the future of U. S. trade with the Middle East in everything "from candy bars to jeeps."

En route to Russia, Johnston has recovered from a slight cold. He told a press conference his trip was "on invitation of the soviet government as a private citizen representing American business."

TAKES COLD CASH
CLEVELAND—A Morris Warchowski reported the theft of $300 in cold cash from the ice-box of his delicatessen store. When Warchowski opened his establishment today he discovered an intruder had taken $300 in cash and $250 in checks, which he had stuck between a Swiss cheese and five bottles of ale. Not a slice of cheese or bottle was missing.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY
PUEBLO, Colo.—Carolyn Sue Oliver, 9, slammed the door and locked in a man she found rummaging in a shed at her home. The man protested, pleaded, threatened to call the cops. "How can you call the cops when you're already locked in?" asked Carolyn Sue reasonably. When her parents returned from their walk, they hastily released the junk dealer they had called earlier to pick up some salvage.

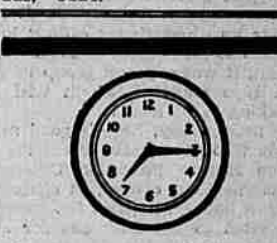

NEW REPLY
MILWAUKEE, Ia.—Keeping one hand significantly in his coat pocket a young man ordered Anita Kresnik, a waitress, to "get behind the counter and get that money for me, kid, sister." Miss Kresnik looked him in the eye and said: "No man gets service from me when he talks like that."

TREE SITTER
CHEROKEE, Ia.—Louis Collins knows that amateur lumberjacks can end up out on a limb. He climbed up a tree to trim it, became so interested he cut off the limb against which his ladder was leaning and had to stay in the tree an hour before his wife got help to get him down.

Roseburg Man Gets Silver Star From World War One
ROSEBURG, May 29 (AP)—J. E. Fields, Roseburg violin maker officially listed as killed in World War I, has just received the Silver Star—awarded him for meritorious service in the battle of Soissons, France, July 18-24, 1918.

Found unconscious on the battlefield, he was listed as dead and a death certificate sent his family. After seven months in a hospital he returned to appreciate the war department of its error. Two years ago he received the Purple Heart for wounds suffered in the battle.
