German Prisoners Believe Nazis Will Still Win War

FORT LEWIS, June 1 (AP)—Morale of German prisoners of war is high, press representatives observed on a recent army-conducted tour of the camp here which houses young and cocky veterans of Rommel's Afrika corps.

"They believe Germany will win, and that American money will be worthless when peace comes," said Lt. Col. R. S. Dicey, commanding officer of the prisoners of war camp.

At the same time, they discount the "German superman" theory and some even joke about it, said 2nd Lt. R. W. Harrison, intelligence officer, who learned German while a Mormon missionary to Germany.

"These prisoners try to outfox us at every turn," said Colonel Dicey. "Their average age is 23, and they are the cream of Hitler's armies. They are smart, and they have a lot of time to think. They usually are good natured about it."

"So far, there have been no major upheavals here, and we don't intend to have any," the colonel added.

FIRE DISTRICT VOTE SLATED FOR JUNE 12

MERRILL—Organization of a rural fire district for protection of farm property in the Merrill community, allowed by the Klamath county court will be given a further boost at a special election June 12 when taxpayers within the boundaries of the new district will be asked to elect five directors who will carry on future plans for purchase of equipment and its operation and maintenance.

Plans for organizing a rural unit originated with the Merrill grange which for the past year and a half has been working on the plans under John Giacomini, chairman of the committee assisted by Elmer Lemler and J. Leland Pope.

Boundaries of the district are from the D. E. Alexander ranch east of Merrill to the Lemler ranch, west, the state line on the south and the old hill road on the north.

Under state rural fire protection laws the maximum tax rate cannot exceed 4 mills.

BAKER, June 1 (AP)—Volunteer aviators and state police are searching for a civilian monoplane, four days overdue at the Baker airport. It was piloted by R. H. Thatcher, Oakland, Calif., who filed a flight plan at The Dalles communication center Saturday and took off for here.

ITALIAN PRISONERS ENTERTAIN ROTARY

TULELAKE—Six Italian prisoners, held at the former Tulelake CCC camp, presented by Captain Miller, commanding officer, gave a number of instrumental musical numbers at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday. C. J. Main was program chairman and R. M. Prior, president-elect, presided in the absence of Fred E. McMurphy.

Captain Miller spoke briefly on the plans of the camp where several hundred prisoners of war will be located.

Guests at the luncheon were 2nd Lieutenant Eldon Larsen, 2nd Lieutenant James Lesh, both just recently commissioned and home on furlough, Corporal Hagelstein, Dorris, Captain Miller, Sergeant Thomas P. Mautz, Albert Larsen and Milton Morse, Tulelake. Dr. James Hilton, Klamath Falls, was the only visiting Rotarian.
