Skipper of Bergh, Wrecked On Isle, Faces Charges

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2 (AP)—The coast guard announced today that formal charges of incompetence and negligence would be filed against Capt. Joseph C. Chambers, skipper of the transport Henry Bergh, which piled up on the rocks of the Farallon islands early Wednesday.

A trial was set for tomorrow before Lt. Robert E. Burns. In announcing the action, Lt. Comdr. John J. McMahon, in charge of the coast guard marine hearing unit, gave no indication whether charges were to be based on anything more than an official desire to ascertain the facts.

The captain yesterday told interviewers the crew and the more than 1000 in-bound naval passengers had but a scant 20 seconds warning of the impending crash 30 miles off the Golden Gate. Nobody was killed or seriously injured.

POSSE PLANS PARTICIPATION IN 4TH RODEO

Lloyd Low's Sheriff's Posse held an enthusiastic annual dinner-meeting at the Pelican cafe Thursday night. The main business was preparation for participation in the Buckaroo Rodeo programs, and the election of officers.

Lloyd Low, as sheriff of Klamath county, is the "chief" or "sheriff" of the posse. E. P. Ivory was elected president and captain; Elmer Balsiger became vice president, and Greer Glascoe was elected secretary-treasurer. For directors, Dr. James Hilton, Lewis Stewart, Jerry Sisemore, Marshall Cornett, Brady Narey, Dale Mattson and Guy Barton were selected.

The posse enthusiastically accepted the invitation of the Klamath Buckaroo days committee of the American Legion to participate in the parade and give an exhibition drill at the fairgrounds. Drilling for the event will be undertaken immediately on all Sunday afternoons and on the last two Wednesday evenings in the month of June.

It was also decided to act as hosts to the Siskiyou county sheriff's posse of Yreka, which also has been invited to take part in the rodeo celebration by the Rodeo committee. The Yreka posse is reputed to have an excellent team. A competitive drill is in the offing, and the Klamath posse knows that it must get out and work hard if it is to hold its own with that excellent aggregation of western horsemen.

It was also indicated that the Sheriff's Posse from Medford, together with an organized group of women riders from that neigh-

Camp May Be Used As Refugee Center

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP) President Roosevelt indicated today that an unused army camp in this country may be converted into a temporary haven for war refugees from abroad.

The president said nothing definite has been done on the problem but that the humanitarian thing to do is to give assistance to helpless people anywhere in the world.
