TIMBER BEASTS WIN

Club Golfers Defeated in Sunday Play

Panning's Weyerhaeusers Crack Reames Men, In Annual Tournament

NEW YORK, June 5 (AP)—If a red-haired, pink-faced fellow who played in six world series for the Yankees and a couple of all-star games for the American league wasn't so modest, college baseball coaches soon might be getting a letter something like this: "If you fellows are really interested in keeping college baseball alive, you'd better get together and do something about it." But Yale's Red Rolfe considers himself just a beginner in the coaching ranks and thinks the veterans would ask: "who is he to be criticizing us?"

The little Brown Jug has disappeared into the tall timbers of Klamath county, and the Reames golfers will have to wait another year. Most of the matches were very close, some being decided on the last green, as were the matches between Howard Perrin and Ralph Macartney, John West and Frank Tarr.

CRITIC'S CORNER Almost any technical discussion of baseball will bring out a few of the game's finer points that have been overlooked or forgotten even by Major league managers. . . Did you ever hear of "Rickey's rundown play" for example? . . . Shag Shaughnessy once told us about that maneuver to nab a player off third base with only one throw and added that even its inventor, Branch Rickey, had forgotten it until it was mentioned in a talkfest last spring. . . Shag also recalls winning a pennant by teaching his pitchers how to field (his club led the league in double plays) and the details that enabled him to steal 56 bases one season in the Virginia league. . . Wonder how many college or scholastic coaches know you can throw a better fast ball by holding it very loosely?

Huskies Make It Two Over Whitman

SEATTLE, June 5 (AP)—The University of Washington Huskies brought a walloping conclusion to their current baseball campaign Saturday with a twin win over Whitman college. Scores were 17-1 and 10-1. The Huskies pushed over 14 runs in the fourth inning of the first game, paced by Al Atkins' four-base knock, while Wally Kramer held the Missionaries to two hits during the contest. Nig Kafer gave whitman but one hit in the seven-inning second game.

Our Home Town

The One-Way Street We Live On

By EARL WHITLOCK Old Omar Khayyam, who condensed such pearls of wisdom into his lovely little quatrains, put it one way. He said: The moving finger writes—and having writ Moves on. Nor all your piety nor wit Can lure it back to cancel half a line Nor all your tears wash out a word of it. And that is just another manner of saying that Life is a one-way street. It has detours running from it—lots of them. But not one of those detours leads back. All of them keep right on going. Well, if you know and accept that fact—that you cannot go back—that what's done is done—life becomes much simpler and pleasanter. You can cross off the list a lot of the things, long gone, that you have been allowing to keep you all stirred up. And you can settle down to a realization that you make, for whatever time you job, that this planet the place where you hang your hat, is to do the best you can with what you have. MEMORY GARDEN IS NOW OPEN.

Kantonen Puts Up Belt for Friday Match

By JOHN FOSTER It's all set for next week. The light heavyweight champion, Paavo Kantonen, will put up his belt and title against George Wagner. For two weeks straight Georgious George has dumped the champion and after last Friday's brawl he got his chance at the title. Both nights all the tactics in the little red book were used and Georgy won them both by tying Paavo in the ropes and mauling him while he swung helplessly.

Seattle and Portland Go 15 Innings

Protracted Nightcap Makes It a Sunday Split For NW Baseball Teams

Seattle and Portland baseball performers took a well-deserved rest today after splitting a double bill in the Seattle stadium yesterday. Portland winning the opener 3-2 and Seattle outlasting the Beavers for a 15-inning 5-4 victory in what was scheduled to be a seven-inning nightcap. The split bill gave Seattle the series, four games to three. San Francisco, which split with Los Angeles, retained its tie with Portland in the league lead but Hollywood, which captured seven of eight games with Oakland during the week, moved into a third place deadlock with Seattle, a half game behind the leaders.

Hollywood made a clean sweep of two doubleheaders Saturday and Sunday at Oakland, winning Saturday 4-3 and 8-2, and Sunday by 7-5 and 3-0 counts. In Sunday's contest, Portland took a one-run lead over Frank Tincup, Seattle Indian hurler, in the opening frames and were never headed although the Rainiers rallied for a pair of tallies in the seventh inning. The lengthy nightcap seemed to be well under control for Seattle until Portland tied the count at 3-all with a three-run rally in the seventh after Carl Fischer, Seattle southpaw, had hurled two-hit ball. Portland broke the ice again in the 14th inning when, with two out, Johnny O'Neill doubled down the third base line and scored as Billy Lyman, Seattle shortstop, booted Pieretti's easy grounder. Seattle tied the count all up again in its half when Christopher walked. Hal Sueme, forced him, and Turpin went on to run for Sueme. Roy Johnson, pinch hitting for Joe Demoran, tripled to score Turpin but was left stranded as Lyman grounded out. Manager Marv Owen ended a Portland threat in the 15th when he popped out with two men aboard the bases. Seattle won the game when Pieretti walked Connie Creeden, bailed him to second, and Dobbins singled through the closed infield.

Navy Search Plane Cracks Three Jap Ships at Truk

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Staging a single-handed attack on once-feared Truk island in the South Pacific, a navy search plane sank or damaged three Japanese vessels, strafed a number of others, poured bombs and bullets onto airplane runways, ignited supply dumps and returned to its base. The navy told today of the raid carried out Thursday night in which the plane hit almost at will around the one-time powerful Japanese base. It straddled a medium cargo vessel with 1000-pound bombs and laid two others of the same size directly on her decks. She "was believed sunk," the navy said. Then the plane strafed "a number of small cargo vessels," roared over the seaplane base on Dublon and the air strips on Eten islands in the Truk lagoon. Two small vessels struck by the pounding plane were set on fire. Other fires were started on Dublon and Eten island. An ammunition dump was blown up. Finished with her attack, the search plane turned back toward its base. A single enemy plane was in the air but made no attempt to attack the raiding American ship. The navy also told of three more attacks by bombing planes upon enemy bases in the North Pacific Kurile islands. The planes hit Shimushiri before dawn Thursday without opposition. At the northern end of the chain, other planes meantime bombed Paramushiro and Shumushu, starting fires despite light and inaccurate aircraft operation. The raids were disclosed in press release No. 431, issued by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet.

Hannegan Sure FDR Will Win

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5 (AP) Robert E. Hannegan, chairman of the democratic national committee, told a party rally Sunday he was "confident" President Roosevelt will again lead the way to victory in the November elections but the support of women voters and federal employees is needed. "When the president weighs the security and welfare of the nation against his personal desires he will consent again to be our nominee," Hannegan said at a luncheon and reception sponsored by the Willamette Democratic society. He warned that the republicans are "elaborately organized and financed," and called for strong democratic organization and leadership down to the smallest precinct.
