

Doe Season Decision to be Reached This Week

Sports Briefs
By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Confidence note: Gene Sarazen, the gentleman ex-farmer, already has begun to figure out how much income tax he'll have to pay if he wins that $13,500 worth of war bonds in Chicago's Tam O'Shanter open golf tourney. . . . Maj. Spec Moore, Army end coach, expects to be on active duty before the next football season and Sgt. Vic Hanson, ex-Syracuse coach, likely will assist Earl Blaik. . . . The Giants' Bill Voiselle and the Dodgers' Calvin McLish, two of the season's rookie pitching standouts, were on the same team at Oklahoma city a couple of years ago. Voiselle was the Indians' leading pitcher and McLish was the bat-boy. . . . Katie Jenkins, who came nearer to managing Lew than anyone else could, has just signed Lightweight Carmine Fatta to a contract.

QUOTE, UNQUOTE
Corp. Billy Conn and S/Sgt. Eddie Mader (in a recent discussion of the Joe Baksi-Le Savoldi fight): Conn—"The amateurs have taken over." Mader—"Yeah, you could beat the both of 'em in the same ring." Conn—"So could you, Edward."

FIRST RETURNS
Earliest reports on the statistical situation in high school and college baseball: James Monroe high school of Fredericksburg, Va., made two triple plays and 10 double plays in 12 games and turned out a .375 hitter in Third-Burned-out Graham Morris. . . . Dick Kinney, one of Army's pair of four-game-winning pitchers, had an earned run average of 1.23 for 44 innings. Bob Chabot, Flebe third sacker, hit .385, stole nine bases and figures in five of the Cadets' double killings. . . . Any other prospects?

Millard Johnson New Coach at Grants Pass
SPRINGFIELD, June 6 (AP)—Millard Johnson, who coached Springfield high school to district titles in basketball and track this past year, has accepted a position as director of athletics and coach at Grants Pass high school. School Superintendent E. H. Silke announced here.

Johnson's 1943 football team, his second Miller eleven after coming here from Newport high, was undefeated. Only a scoreless tie with Corvallis in the opening game marred a perfect season. Johnson graduated from the University of Oregon in 1936.

President Cup Qualifying Set
Golfers must qualify next Saturday and Sunday for the annual President's cup tournament. John West, tournament chairman, said a tournament is being planned for women golfers. Arrangements for this will be announced in a short time.

Protests to Be Before Game Board

Resolutions, Representatives to Go From Here For State Group Meeting

Question of open seasons on doe deer and cow elk will be decided at a meeting of the state game commission in Portland the coming weekend—and eyes of Klamath-Lake sportsmen, as well as those in other parts of the state, will be trained on the state group at that time.

Representatives of the Klamath-Modoc chapter of the Izaak Walton league and the Klamath Sportsmen's association will probably attend the session Saturday, when it is expected the doe matter will be given special attention.

The game commission will have before it resolutions from the state chapter of the Izaak Walton league, the Klamath-Modoc chapter, the Sportsmen's association, the Lake county Walton chapter, and others, with reference to the doe season.

The local groups are definitely on record against another season on does in the Klamath-Lake area.

"Utmost caution" in the matter of taking female deer is urged in a resolution adopted by the state organization of the Izaak Walton league. Open season on female deer, it was said, should be based on the most careful investigation, and a conservative policy of game management was urged.

Local sportsmen said they understand the decision to be made this week will be tentative. If it favors another season on doe, a more strenuous representation will probably be made.

Walker and Tucker Lead Major Pitchers
NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Dixie Walker, of the Brooklyn Dodgers, and Thurman Tucker, of the Chicago White Sox, lead the Major leagues in batting by comfortable margins today although each dropped off 12 points during the past week.

Including games of June 5, Walker was sounding a .426 tune off the National league fences with 72 hits in 169 at bats. The Dodgers ace lengthened his lead in runner-up Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals to 78 points as the 1943 champ had 20 points clipped off his mark in six games, dropping to .348.

Cincinnati's Eric Tipton zoomed into third place at .339 while Frenchy Bordagaray and Augie Galan of the Dodgers tied for fourth at .333.

Tucker's margin over second place Oris Hockett of Cleveland was 30 points. But Hockett was challenging for the lead, boosting his average 20 markers to .353 passing out Boston's Bob Johnson and Detroit's Chuck Hostetler. George Myatt of Washington grabbed third with his .329 mark, Johnson was fourth with .322 and Hostetler fifth at .320.

Portland and Angels Play
By The Associated Press
The Portland Beavers, tied for first place with the San Francisco Seals, entertain last year's Coast league pennant winning Los Angeles Angels at Portland tonight as the teams square away for a new series.

The Angels now occupy sixth place, six full games behind the leaders.

The last place Sacramento Solons move into the Seals stadium and Seattle, only a half game out of first will entertain the slipping Oakland Acons.

Hollywood, tied with Seattle for second place, will play host to the San Diego Padres.

PORTLAND, June 6 (AP)—Members of Portland's AFL Grocery Clerks union will receive pay increases retroactive to January 1. New clerks will get $24 a week instead of $18; head clerks $38.20 for a 48-hour week compared with $28.50 for a 44-hour week.

This was announced by Emil Scholmeier, union secretary. He said union members voted to accept an employer compromise offer on a war labor board retroactive pay directive. The WLB had ordered retroactive pay to May 1, 1943, he said, but many more employees will benefit under the compromise.

90 Homers Belted in Seven Days

Fence Move At Braves Field in Boston Offers New Menace to Pitchers

By JACK HAND (Associated Press Sports Writer)
Major league pitchers took to the storm cellars today after counting up 90 home runs during the last seven days and noting the new menace to their trade in renovated Braves field in Boston.

The Polo Grounds is still "home run heaven" for the fly ball hitter but the Boston Nationals park no longer is a "pitcher's paradise."

Since President Bob Quinn moved the right field fence back 20 feet two weeks ago to help the left-handed hitters, 22 round-trippers have sprouted where only four grew before. Only Phil Masi, Jim Tobin and Connie Ryan of the Braves and Buster Adams of the Phils had hit for all four bases before the change but since then Dutch Nieman has belted five, Tommy Holmes, Chet Ross and Ryan two, and Max Macon and Ross one each to say nothing of nine by opposing batsmen.

Fifty-one homers have been lifted into the Polo Grounds stands in the first seven weeks, almost half as many as were belted all last season when 115 were recorded. Of the 51, exactly 38 were clouted in the two-week home stand against the western clubs.

The figures ruin an old idea that the Giants alone profited by the short foul lines at home. Although Mel Ott hit 8, Danny Gardella 5, Nap Reyes 3, Phil Weintraub 2 and Johnny Rucker one during the last 14 days, the opposition has squared the court with 19 on its own side of the ledger.

Although the Yankees no longer have their murderer's row of yore, 28 homers have been belted at the Stadium, 14 each by the Yankees and the visitors. The fourth highest park in home run production is Briggs Stadium in Detroit where 21 have been authored.

Tickets Moving For Fight Card Friday Night
Tickets are going fast for the championship battle next Friday night at the armory between Paavo Kantonen, the present Pacific coast lightweight title holder, and George Wagner, the gorgeous one.

For two weeks now Paavo has fallen flat to George and due to those upsets the Finn is ready to put up his honor or what have you.

The middle event will be the one to talk about with Bulldog Jackson tussling with Tarzan Potvin, a Canadian mauler.

Where ever Jackson has wrestled he has been followed by crowds and the reason could be that he's a showman plus, usually before the match.

It was told once that he stalled his car in a busy intersection in Los Angeles and blocked cars for some distance. Jackson strolled out of the car with a derby hat on and carrying a wrench about three or four feet long. He opened the hood of the car and started working on the motor with this enormous wrench. Bystanders were amazed and thought the guy was only half there. Police finally arrived and drove his car from the spot. Next night when the wrestling match was set, the house was full mainly because they just had to see this guy.

In the opener Silent Rattan, mute wrestler, will meet Buck Davidson. Both wrestlers are known in the local arena with Rattan the more reserved type.

All in all it looks like another slam bang card. Wally Moss will probably be the arbitrator again.

War Stiff-Arms Coast Sports But Bright Spots Noted at Year's End

Plain Ber.

By PAUL O. BEAM (Pinchhitting for Russ Newland)
WAR STIFF-ARMED northwest sportsmen note in the sad song being sung in athletic factories in parts.

Keith DeCourcy at the University of Washington tossed the javelin 200 feet and better.

University of Oregon's coach, Bill Hayward, has a negro runner in the 100 and 200.

And big Bob Anderson, Scappoose Ore., heaved the discus 153 feet 31 inches in the percent state high school record about 13 feet over the former state high school record.

Over at Vancouver, Wash. Rich Paeth, another high schooler, galloped the half mile in 1:57.4, fastest prep time recorded in the event in the northwest since Rufus Kiser of Wenatchee did 1:56.8 in 1928.

But Hec Edmundson, who has been coaching track and field and basketball—at the University of Washington for a quarter of a century, claims the war as the Coast conference suspension set the sport back 25 years—where Hec came in.

Big time golf, in a decade since the national amateur Portland in 1937, seems headed for a strong comeback in the fair country.

Spokane's rip snorting, sometimes playful, athletic reputation stole the 1944 National PGA championships for late August. There appears to be a strong move afoot to keep the big games around for later tournaments.

Portland golfers have built a $10,000 kitty for the Oregon open, designed to attract the crowd off the PGA field at Spokane and at Vancouver. B. C. plans for a similar event are being worked out.

George Morgan, owner of the Portland Beavers of the Coast League, is reported interested in sponsoring the Canadian event.

Seattle is a favored golfing city, with an abundance of green courses, and Portland is close behind. Pros in this area report pay is 50 per cent better than they figured it would be, and travel being what it is.
