

SAFEGWAY

The total of all 1943 and 1944 prices in the list below is as follows:
JUNE 1, 1943, TOTAL ..... $51.35
TODAY'S PRICES, TOTAL ..... 50.20
DIFFERENCE $1.35 (less)

The items in this list, therefore, actually reflect a decrease in prices over last year providing all items were purchased in the same quantities on June 1, 1943, and again on June 1, 1944.

LOOK! Here's How Safeway's Prices of TODAY Compare With A Year Ago!

Many housewives have doubtless wondered how our prices today compare with those of 1943—a year ago. The answer to that question is indicated in this group of over 200 representative items in which we list both our 1944 and 1943 prices as of June 1.

Safeway, realizing the disastrous results of inflation during war time, has done everything possible to hold food prices down. We believe this "comparison" is good evidence of the success of our efforts as well as proof of our cooperation with others striving for the same result.
