

STUDENTS PRAY FOR INVASION SUCCESS

TULELAKE—High school students of Tulelake, of all religions, turned out 80 strong at 10:30 on Invasion Day to pray for the safety of our forces and for our ultimate victory. The prayer service was held at the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, sponsored by the Rainbow Girls, with arrangements by Harriett Coulson, worship leader, and Fannie Adams, worship advisor. The preacher was Carolyn Ryck. Rev. Hugh Bronson and in the audience offered Scripture readings and completed the service. Tulelake now has between 180 and 200 names eligible for the unity service flag, which will be dedicated Sunday at the 11 o'clock service when parents, relatives and those serving in any branch of the service are asked to attend. Names of those who are yet listed. The memorial service will include appropriate selections. A large percentage of those serving are men of high school age.

Seniors Attend Baccalaureate at Tulelake

TULELAKE — Graduating seniors of the Tulelake high school in caps and gowns attended baccalaureate services in the high school gymnasium Sunday night, June 4, in a body, sitting on the rostrum. Rev. Hugh L. Bronson, pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, delivered the sermon, "The Stream of Life." The senior chorus sang "Say a Prayer" with Eleanor Kandara of the graduating class at the piano. Congregational song hymns were "The Church is One Foundation," and "Faith of Our Fathers." Hugh Wilson sang "In the Secret of His Presence," and Walter Meshke, with his mother, Mrs. Leonard Meshke, at the piano played a trumpet solo, "Jerusalem." Thirty-seven graduates received diplomas in the gymnasium Thursday night, June 8.

WAR LOAN DRIVE PLANNED AT TULE

TULELAKE—Organization for the Fifth War Loan drive that will open here June 12, is well underway, following a meeting Monday night of the Tulelake war finance committee. The group is headed by A. A. Rodenberger, chairman, and R. M. Prior, co-chairman, and is making plans with the Tulelake grange, to put Tulelake's quota in the bag soon after the opening of the push.

Herman T. Street, master of the Tulelake group, will head a master committee of the grange, working with O. A. Schulz, W. H. Anderson and Rev. Hugh Bronson, Rodenberger and Prior. Eleven zone chairmen have been appointed, 10 for the rural communities and one for Tulelake. These chairmen are to be assisted by three women workers. It has as yet not been decided as to whether a house-to-house canvass will be made but a bond premiere at the Marcha theatre, under supervision of Mrs. Byrd Heitz, manager, is scheduled for early in the drive. Tulelake's quota will be learned at a county meeting at Yreka Thursday night by A. A. Rodenberger.

William Selgler is chairman of the city zone, and community chairmen include William Kandara, Lee Dixon, M. R. Laird, Walter Golden, R. M. Flynn, E. R. Scott, Noble C. Wilkinson, Howard Dayton, Sam Anderson, and William P. Hooper. All workers will meet Friday night for further instructions at the Tulelake branch, Bank of America.

TURKEY RELEASE SET
PORTLAND, June 9 (AP)—Hens, turkeys, frozen since April 21, may be released on the general market, the war food administration told Oregon producers Thursday.

TULELAKE ROTARY HEARS COLONEL

TULELAKE—Colonel Dubel, commanding officer at the Marine Barracks, Klamath Falls, introduced by E. A. Davis, publisher of the Tulelake Reporter, was the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Rotary club Wednesday. Colonel Dubel, who has been in the armed services for 27 years, was accompanied to Tulelake by Lieutenant Falcsey, who has been in the service for 26 years. The speaker sketched reasons for establishing the barracks in Klamath Falls, and outlined the program for hospitalizing men who are suffering from malaria. Two hundred and eighty-four marines arriving a week ago augmented the original 125. Rotary Anns will be entertained at an evening meeting and dinner, June 28.

Verne Hemstreet, secretary of the club, who will leave June 27 to report for army service, is turning his duties this week over to Rev. Hugh Bronson. Hemstreet has been a member of the faculty of the Tulelake high school for several years. Visiting Rotarians were A. H. Bussman, Ivan Ferris and Paul Landry, Klamath Falls. The guests were Dr. David Ferguson, Tulelake, and Claud Cooner, field representative for General Mills, guest of Bussman.

Motor Travel Banned by Vichy

LONDON, June 9 (AP)—The Vichy radio announced a ban on motor traffic beginning at 3 p. m. today in the departments of Haute-Loire, Cantal, Allier and Puy-De-Dome and said anyone caught in a motor vehicle in that area of southern France would be shot on sight. These departments, all west of the Rhone river, stretch generally northward from Marseille toward the Normandy battle area.

Finn Opposition Newspaper Banned

STOCKHOLM, June 9 (AP)—The Finnish government has indefinitely banned the opposition afternoon newspaper Svenska Pressen, on the ground that it is too pro-ally, a Helsinki dispatch said today. The action was taken under a 1939 law for suppression of newspapers liable to harm the interests of the state.

AP War Writer Wounded In Invasion Landing Try

(Editor's Note: The London bureau of The Associated Press learned today from Henry B. Jameson, AP war correspondent with the allied forces, that he had been slightly wounded during the landing operations. (To the following dispatch, Jameson appended this note: "These two takes are all I had time to write before I transferred to another ship bringing me to port. My injuries are not serious, but have incapacitated me for further carrying out my assignment at the present time. Will contact office quickest with more copy.") No further word has been received from him, London said. (Jameson is a 32-year-old native of Birdsville, Ky. His wife is living in Burlington, Iowa, with their young son, born two months after Jameson left the U. S. to become a war correspondent. (Jameson was the first war correspondent reported injured in the French invasion.)

ABOARD ADMIRAL HALL'S FLAG SHIP June 8 (Delayed) (AP)—I watched the first 14 hours of the allied invasion of France from close range aboard a flat-bottomed Rhine ferry that had to make four runs for it before being able to land on the most bitterly contested beach.

Because of shoulder and slight leg injuries I was forced to leave the craft after the third attempt, which brought us under blistering fire from the enemy's camouflaged coastal batteries before they were knocked out by the terrific naval bombardment. Throughout the initial storming of the beaches we floated and maneuvered in a water "No Man's Land" between the allied battleships firing steadily over our heads and the coast. Three times during the first eight hours of the invasion we pulled toward the beach but each time were forced to pull back. On the third try we actually hit the beach under German fire and lost some equipment necessary for unloading the barge so we again pulled out to safer territory.

There were four casualties—one fatal—on the third trip. This time we were close enough to get a clear picture of the battered beach and the German cement defense installations buried in the hillsides.

The barge finally was beached with most of its equipment the next day.

TEAGARDEN BILLED HERE JULY 5TH

According to an announcement made today by "Baldy" Evans, he has just signed as his second name band for this season Jack Teagarden and his orchestra. No band leader is billed so prominently on so many record labels as Jack Teagarden, who brings his orchestra to the Army Wednesday night, July 5. As star trombonist with Ben Pollack and Paul Whiteman, he was on all of their records. He has also made innumerable platters for other record companies with house and studio orchestras.

When Teagarden organized his own orchestra, Columbia signed him up, but he was such a good recording name that Varsity lured him away. Varsity was a short-lived recording venture, but that didn't affect Jack Teagarden as Decca signed his band the moment it was available.

In the meantime, he was a feature of Metronome magazine's "All-Star" poll-winner records in '38, '40 and '41-42, which put him on the Victor label. He was then signed for the Bing Crosby picture at Paramount, "The Birth of the Blues," and made discs for Decca with Bing and Mary Martin as well as on his own. Standard Transcriptions in Hollywood bought his band for a series of programs for over

Eighth Air Force Has Busy Time On Invasion Day

LONDON, June 9 (AP)—The eighth air force reports that on the first day of the allied invasion of northern France it did the following:

Destroyed 429 railway cars, shot up 372 military vehicles, wrecked 25 locomotives, bombed 14 bridges, attacked 35 railroad yards and damaged one tunnel, two warehouses, three factories, two oil tanks, seven military encampments, one overpass and 10 flak cars.

HIGH COST

PORTLAND, June 9 (AP)—A $25 fine for drunkenness in an automobile, an attorney complained in court here, was higher than the $10 going rate for the same offense in his client's home town, Seattle.

"Well, tell them they had better arrange to do their drinking in Seattle," retorted Judge John B. Seabrook. "There is a $25 minimum here."

A Sots Ceilings Apricots, Plums

WASHINGTON, June 9 (AP)—The office of price administration today established price ceilings for apricots, plums, sweet cherries and peaches. The schedule said, will mean retail prices of 15 to 35 per cent under year's average for the entire country. Highest retail prices to be about 10 per cent above the price of a pound for apricots and plums. The price of sweet cherries will be about 10 per cent above the price in Washington and Oregon. The public will pay approximately 36 cents.
