Wynn Wins Ninth From Mack's Men

Potter, Allen, Wynn Still On "Perfect Record" Book; Bonham, Ace Adams Fade

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ernie Bonham's power over the Athletics has faded and Ace Adams no longer can hypnotize the Braves and Phils, but "Win 'em Wynn" still is Washington's victory in Philadelphia.

Navy-bound Earl Wynn today celebrated his ninth straight victory over Connie Mack's crew with a 1.000 life-time average on the skeleton in Mr. Mack's closet.

When the season started, 12 perfect-record streaks existed on the big league record books but one by one the "mexers" have lost their power until only Wynn, Nels Potter and Johnny Allen survive.

Bonham never had lost to the A's until April 25 of '44. Johnny Gorsica finally lost to Chicago, Al Hollingsworth bowed to Cleveland after all these years, Tom Harris was knocked off by the Indians, Dick Barrett fell before Brooklyn and Al Gerheauser blew his perfect record against the Chicago Cubs, ditto Adams against Boston and Philadelphia. Potter was batted out twice by the Mackmen but hasn't been charged with that first defeat by them, and Allen hasn't lifted his charm on either Boston or the Phils, the two teams that never have beaten him.

Wynn's ninth over the A's came last night by a 2-1 margin after he had to score the winning run to make it stick. After coasting in the fifth and advancing on an error, the Washington lefthander legged it home on George Myatt's hit.

Cleveland tightened the American race by a 4-2 decision over the leading St. Louis Browns. It's now only four and a half games from first to last in the junior circuit. The Tribe came from behind with three in the seventh, two on Skipper Lou Boudreau's bases-loaded single over Don Gutteridge's head.

In the National, the only two games scheduled were likewise played at night, boosting the major's four-tilt attendance total to 92,492.

Mickey Owen delighted the 20,182 Brooklyn patrons with a ninth inning single scoring Dixie Walker, who had doubled, with the big run of a 3-2 nod over Boston. Cal McLish, 18-year-old school boy, grabbed his second victory.

Pittsburgh and Chicago played to a 3-3 tie called by rain in the 11th with Fritz Ostermueller and Claude Passeau battling all the way. Bill Nicholson's seventh inner put the Cubs ahead in the eighth but Frank Colman's pinch-triple tied it again. Although the teams were unscheduled today, they will play off the tie game.

New York, Boston, Chicago, and Detroit in the American, and New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Cincinnati in the National had an open date.

"Da Babe" May Be Back In Baseball

By TED MEIER

NEW YORK, June 10 (AP)—Babe Ruth, the old Sultan of Swat, may be back in baseball as a pinchhitter before the season is over.

The Bambino, whose 60 homers for the Yankees in 1927 still stands as a major league record, is entering a hospital today to have a cartilage removed from his right knee.

"It's an old baseball injury," explained the Babe, who observed his 50th birthday in February. "I let it go for years. Now I'm suffering. I hope it will fix up my legs. Maybe I can get a few years back so I can get out and play golf."

"Baseball?" queried the man who is a legend to thousands of youngsters. "I haven't give a thought to playing again."

"Don't you believe it," asserted Jack Schaefer, a New York hotel man who has acted in an advisory capacity to Ruth for years. "If this operation fixes up his legs he'll want to get into the game as a pinchhitter."

Ducks Delay Golf Tourney

CHICAGO, June 10 (AP)—A mama duck and her ducklings waddled across the 18th green at the Oak Park Country club yesterday, temporarily delaying play as the last of 73 hardy golfers finished play in the Illinois Seniors' Golf association's annual tournament.

An all-day rain had failed to halt the golfers, all of whom were 50 years or older. Of the 73 who finished, 16 were 70 or over and 15 were between 65 and 70.

Doings of Klamath Horseback Enthusiasts, Recounted by "Top Wrangler"

I reckons how I'd better tell yuh 'bout the hill-billy snoopin' I've been doin' 'round the ol' town. . . . Whew! Did I git a good view of Mt. Shasta between Cliff Macy and his saddle, when that hoss of his'n broke into. Cliff wuz busy as a cow in fly time, pullin' leather, but he bucked off as clean as I ever seed. . . . got some of the air let out of him—wuz up a ridin' agin in a few minutes after Bill 'Windy' Murcheson tuk the kinks out of the hoss. Tenderfeet 'n vaqueros were all out las' Sunday astride their mustangs.

The posse wuz a practicing their drill, Saddle Club girls trimmin' up some of their prize hoss flesh, Dale Mattoon had a workin' crew fixin corrals fer the hosses of the Medford and Yreka posse that's a plannin' to bring competition for Sheriff Low and his boys durin' the 4th.

O. D. Matthews wuz lookin' things over 'round the fairgrounds and chinin' with this one and that one. He seems pleased with so much activity and enthusiasm the ridin' set are showin'. Barbara Adams (I can't recollect her man's name) puttin' a bay hoss thru' his stops and turns and doin' a good job. Barbara is mighty easy on the eyes.

Bill Serruys wuz perched on his truck watchin' sum girl work her hoss out gittin' ready fer the reined class. She could ride, too, but I never seed a girl so skinny. I'll bet she didn't weigh 100 pounds wringin' wet and a shotgun would make her a pair of ridin' breeches. The rodeo board had another meetin' and from what I gathered, had things under control fer the queen ride-off, June 18th at the fairgrounds.

I dern near swollered my chewin' tobacco when I heered Bill Hooper and the Saddle club are workin' together linin' up the grand entry. I'd like to be in Bill's boots or his helper. Ernestine Read sed the Klamath Saddle club colors are 'blue and red' and I shore am goin' to be a watchin' for that group as they go by in the parade the 4th.

Those girls are busy gettin' things set for the Medford ladies that's puttin' on a drill here. Kinda host I reckon they are called.

Well, I got to bed down fer the nite, jist want to remind yuh. . . . Buy an extra bond. . . . We can always live on less when we have more to live for. Bye now.

Ducks Play 13 Innings; No Decision

Portland, Angels Tie 7-7; Seals Gain Half Game by Beating Sacramento 3-2

By The Associated Press

Some 5000 Portland baseball fans saw a lot of baseball last night and early this morning—13 innings, 100 batters at the plate, 14 runs, 31 baseblits off six pitchers and only one error—but all for nothing.

The game ended in a tie—Portland 7 and Los Angeles 7—called because of a loop time limit and will not count in Pacific Coast league standings until played out at a later date.

San Francisco gained a half game on league leading Portland and jumped into second place beating Sacramento 3 to 2.

Seattle slumped to third place, losing to Oakland, 2 to 1, and Hollywood won its first game in four starts from San Diego, 6 to 5.

A 10th inning riot saw Portland Manager Marv Owen run out of the game for the first time in 15 years of baseball. Eddie Fernandez also was sent to the bench.

The argument started when Umpire Gordon Ford first called Shortstop Johnny O'Neil out at the plate, according to the Portland players' claim, for interference with a throw from Eddie Fernandez, Los Angeles catcher, to catch Frank Shone stealing third, and then changed it into a swung third strike. Fernandez and O'Neil came to blows.

The Angels got a four-run lead, only to have the beavers tie it in a five-run outburst in the fifth. Portland added two more runs, one on Larry Barton's homer in the seventh, but in the eighth with the bases full and no one out, Ted Norbert cleaned them with a double for the Angels and a 7-7 tie, where it stayed to the finish.

Illini Track Team Favored In NCAA

MILWAUKEE, June 10 (AP)—Led by versatile Claude (Buddy) Young and Capt. Bob Kelley, Illinois track team today ruled favorite to win, for the third time, the National Collegiate Athletic association's 23rd annual meet, with the 18-year-old negro freshman making a bid to set the pace in four events.

The Illini, with a 12-man squad, was one of 25 colleges competing in the day-and-night program at Merquette stadium, with all preliminaries and two finals scheduled for the afternoon and 12 finals on tonight's card.

Missing from the national competition was Southern California, winner of the last nine years.

The far west, however, was represented by Frenso, (Calif.), State college and Utah university, the latter by Fred Shefield, defending high jump champion.

Joey Dolan Wins Farewell Battle For Civilians

PORTLAND, June 10 (AP) — Joey Dolan bid farewell to civilian boxing for the duration last night with a four round technical knockout win over Jimmy Liddell, 130, Los Angeles. Dolan, soon to enter the army, weighed 127½.

The Portlander put Liddell down for a five-count as the fourth round opened, pinned him in a corner and had him reeling when the fight was halted two seconds before the end of the round.

In preliminary bouts Billy McCann, 149, Portland, decisioned Norman Finch, 148, Vancouver, Wash., eight rounds; Pete Peterson, 140, Portland, TKO'ed Joel Boone, 142½, Seattle, third round; Irish Roy Dunn, 160, Vancouver, Wash., kayoed Ted Newsome, 164, Gary, Ind., first round.

Fingerling Fish Cavort in New Freedom in Lily, Cave

NEW PINE CREEK — Four thousand of the prettiest little fingerling rainbow trout you ever saw—and not a one groggy or sick — slithered into the cool waters of Lily and Cave lakes last Thursday, June 1 under the supervision of State Biologist J. H. Wales, assisted by George Perkins, Lee Bernard, Earl Butler and George Converse.

When the fish discovered they were no longer in the confines of the two state tanks that brought them but instead free as the birds of the air, they snapped their finny-flippers in sudden ecstasy and darted madly hither and yon like whirly-gusts of chaff in the air from the spout of an old thresher.

The biologist immediately made this observation after watching some of the 2000 that were put in each lake, cavort and flop. "There is sure a lot of feed here—these trout will certainly grow fast." And so the fascinating, liberty loving creatures continued for some time to feed on the abundant food of the lakes then quieted down to the more routine business of living in their new home. Mr. Perkins said the fish would run about 16 to the pound in size. Next year there should be real fishing in the lakes if all the fish do well.

SPORTS Streamliner

By DAN MARSTON
(Pinchhitting for Russ Newland)

SEATTLE, June 10 (AP) — Coach Ralph (Pest) Welch of the University of Washington would like the Coast conference coaches and graduate managers to rewrite the rules to allow August football practice at their Hood River, Ore., confab next week. Barring that, moving up the September opening practice date a week would help . . .

The Huskies expect to play football as usual this fall, possibly with a good schedule. They were the only northern division school in action last autumn, with four games . . . A July 3-28 practice had been planned, but an August stretch would get the squad in shape closer to the season's start. An early September opening would allow three games that month, the 16th, 23d and 30th, Welch says . . .

Home-and-home games with Whitman and Willamette are prospects, for a starter. Southern California and Los Angeles also seem interested in an October 28 date in the south, only weekend Washington could travel with a full squad because of campus restrictions on navy trainees, Welch hears . . . It would be a rematch of the January 1 Rose bowl clash . . .

The Huskies got in April spring practice.

Paavo Runs Wagner to Showers

Katonen Wins Bloody Row With Body Beautiful Boy; Pete Takes Tarzan Potvin

Bloody but triumphant, Paavo Katonen chased George Wagner to the armory showers last night.

After 15 minutes of fistic buffeting at the hands of Wagner, Paavo started to bleed profusely from numerous cuts above his right eye. Referee Wally Moss warned Gorgeous George (Beautiful Body) Wagner continually about the use of his fist, but still George pounded Paavo until Moss in desperation gave the fall to Katonen.

Gorgeous George called this downright unfair and protested to the referee in no uncertain terms. Like an angry bull, Paavo countered by showing his willingness to fight. He rushed at George and Referee Moss stepped between them to enforce his orders.

In the ensuing melee, Wally Moss came out third best and finally sagged into a corner for a moment while the two wrestlers went at each other, tooth and nail. Blood spattered the ring as Wagner pounded Katonen, and Moss came alive again to raise both of Katonen's hands, signifying that he had won the match.

Again Wagner protested, but Katonen had had enough of this and rushing at Gorgeous George, chased him from the ring to the cheers of the record armory crowd.

Referee Wally Moss, looking like a gory invasion warrior, sagged in a rope corner, evidently much the worse for wear after the bout.

Pete Belcastro, in his first appearance here since his ill-fated battle with Wagner three weeks ago, blasted his way to a surfboard victory over Tarzan Potvin, Canadian meanie.

Tarzan, with a scissor hold on Pete's head early in the battle, roughed Belcastro's easy-bleeding nose into a lot of blood letting.

Both boys were covered with gore by the time the Weed Assassin and Potvin, tired of playing just mean, really battered each other with flying dropkicks and shoulder butts. Finally Belcastro pounded Tarzan into semi-consciousness and put his famed surfboard hold on the limp form.

Tarzan never came back for the next fall, but Pete set for the kill, out-maneuvered the referee and got in a few last minute whacks at Potvin's back.

In one of the best opening matches ever staged in the armory arena, Silent Rattan and Buck Lipscomb wrestled to a draw. Both boys tried every trick of the trade, including use of the ropes and their fists to gain a fall, but neither was successful. After three rounds, Ref Moss raised both of their hands in token of a draw.

Announcer Jack Franey told the crowd that Walter "Sneeze" Achui, who battled Paavo Katonen in the disputed title bout at Salem last Tuesday, will appear on the army mat next Friday night. Unlike Bulldog Jackson, for whom Pete Belcastro subbed this week, Sneeze can be depended upon to be here, Franey said.

Market Quotations

NEW YORK, June 10 (AP)—Thoughts of peace continued to spur stocks of companies with good postwar outlook in today's market, notably motors and accessories, but many pivotals had trouble in attracting bids.

Tops for the year were plentiful with advance of fractions to a point or more. It was one of the liveliest Saturdays in several months. Transfers for the two hours running to around 600,000 shares.

Belief that automobile manufacturers would be permitted to resume partial civilian production as the invasion sweep through Europe brings victory nearer again brought heavy demand for stocks likely to benefit.

All peaks for 1944 or longer were Chrysler, Continental Motors, Willys-Overland, Graham-Paige, Briggs Mfg., Nash-Kelvinator, International Telephone. Union Pacific jumped 2 or more points on restricted volume. In front were General Motors, Westinghouse, Standard Oil (NJ), Dow Chemical and American Smelting.

Occasional decliners were Montgomery Ward, Southern Railway and Consolidated Edison.

Bonds held to a steady course.

1000 CATTLE CARS SHIPPED TO BASIN

One thousand cars of cattle were shipped by rail in the last month from California into the Klamath basin for feeding over the summer months. This extremely heavy movement in feeder livestock was a 100% increase over last year, according to Southern Pacific District Freight and Passenger Agent Lloyd Stitt.

Reason for the large number of cattle sent up here from the south is the drought condition in California this year. Most of the livestock is coming north from Redding, Red Bluff and the Sacramento valley. By fall those of the cattle which have been fattened enough will be shipped to market. The others will be returned to California for winter feeding.

Stitt said that in addition to livestock, other freight business for the Southern Pacific is greatly increasing constantly. As yet, however, the SP is able to hold its own in handling freight and is able to take care of all of it all right without too much delay.
