ARMY-NAVY 'E' TO BE GIVEN IN LAKEVIEW

LAKEVIEW—The first army-navy "E" award to be presented to any company in the nation's pine industry will be made in Lakeview on Tuesday, June 20, to the Goose Lake Box company for "outstanding performance and cooperation with the war and navy departments." Announcement of the award was received by S. S. Jacksick, president of the company, from Robert P. Patterson, assistant secretary of war.

The award will be made in Lakeview by Col. Fred J. Sherrill of Washington D. C., at a ceremony to be held at the Goose Lake Box company's plant, starting at 12 or 12:30 on the 20th. Colonel Sherrill, who is with the corps of engineers, chief material and equipment branch of the construction division of the war department, will also be the principal speaker. Other officers and speakers, as well as newspaper men and representatives of lumber industries, will be here for the occasion.

The Goose Lake Box company at Lakeview and the White Pine Lumber company of Reno, of which Jacksick is also president, has furnished lumber for construction of cantonments and buildings and has built within its plants, ammunition crates, powder boxes, ration boxes and crates for tanks and other war equipment. The plant logs the trees, mills and planes them, and produces numerous lumber supplies. Production figures for the two plants in connection with government contracts are as follows: 1941—14,850,000 board feet; 1942—73,000,000 board feet; 1943—63,900,000 board feet.

Bonanza

C. B. Morrison of Klamath Falls, local representative of the state industrial accident commission, spent three days last week at the irrigation district office making insurance collections from the farmers of the community.

Delbert Bechholdt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bechholdt, is visiting relatives in Red Bluff, Calif.

Margery Bramwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bramwell, is spending several weeks with her sister in Susanville, Calif.

M. L. Johnson of Klamath Falls, spent some time in Bonanza Thursday, contacting friends and clients.

Most of the farmers of this locality have finished planting potatoes, and some of the earlier plantings are coming up.

Petitions have been circulated in the community in an effort to assist in getting priorities for the critical materials necessary for a school building to replace the building destroyed by fire this spring. Almost 400 patrons of the district signed the appeals.

Bonanza is stranded with 350 students and only one building, inadequate for size and condemned for safety.

Mrs. Frank Pepple is visiting with her son, Owen Pepple and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmor and son Bob, and Buddy Rueck were in Klamath Falls Wednesday.

Mrs. Sarah Heuston, who moved to Terrabonne last winter, is spending some time here visiting with her son, Travis Heuston, and family and other relatives and numerous friends.

Mrs. W. H. Satterfield, who has been very ill from food poisoning, is almost recovered.

Tulelake

Patricia Thomas, junior at the University of Nevada, home for the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, has accepted a position in the mail and file department at the offices of the WRA. Her sister, Dorothy, 1944 graduate of the Tulelake high school, will also be employed in the WRA offices during the summer.

W. H. Wade, principal at Carr elementary school two years ago, will succeed William McCollum as principal next term. Mrs. Wade will also fill a place on the faculty and other members of the staff have as yet not been announced. Children from the WRA center, who attended Carr school last term will have other arrangements made for their schooling.

Mrs. Belle Stark, cafeteria cook for students of Tulelake schools, this year is spending the summer vacation at Pendleton. Her plans for next year are indefinite.

Word of the death of Mrs. L. R. Jensen, former Tulelake resident, in a Springfield, Ore., hospital, June 4, was received here by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen, who went north for the funeral. Mrs. Jensen has been in ill health for several months.

The family came to Tulelake with the first group of homesteaders in 1931 and still own property in this community.

PORTER CLEMENS NOW WAR PRISONER

MERRILL—Staff Sergeant Porter Clemens, prisoner of war in Germany, following loss of a bomber on which he was a gunner several months ago, has communicated with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clemens, Klamath Falls, according to word reaching his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Clemens, Merrill. Two postal cards with brief messages, written January 14 and January 19, were received by his parents on May 4.

The messages, in addition to saying that he was well, asked that cigars be sent him. Relatives are wondering if he plans to use them for barter with his German captors, since he does not smoke cigars.

Young Clemens, well-known in the Merrill district, where he worked prior to entering the service more than two years ago, was first reported missing, following a raid on Germany and later was listed as a prisoner. Prior to his capture he had been awarded several medals for meritorious action.

Relatives or friends who communicate with him enclose letters, properly addressed, but with no stamps that bear "Buy Bonds" or V in an unstamped envelope addressed to the postmaster of the port from where letters to Germany are posted. Letters bearing stamps that have any bearing on the war are returned, according to his relatives.

Sergeant Porter has a brother, Buford, also serving in the army air corps as a ground crewman in England, and he, in his letters, asks for cookies and candy bars.

Bly

Gene Detrick of LaGrande is visiting here with his sister, Helen Smith and family. Gene formerly operated the Bly drug store and has many friends here.

Vera McMullan of Tacoma, Wash., and Ister Maryville, of Bremerton, arrived at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross McAn of Ivory Point on June 7, for a 10-day vacation. The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Chisser, also of Tacoma, who will visit friends here. Vera is a nurse at the St. Joseph hospital and Maryville is working in the shipyards. Both girls attended school in Bly.

Mrs. H. Thomas and three children left Friday to visit at Dayville, Ore. Thomas is now employed there and his family will join him as soon as a house is available.

Betty and Roney Thomas left Wednesday for Concord, Calif., to visit their grandparents.

Janet Protsman has purchased the beauty parlor equipment from Jean Cline, and has opened the beauty shop in the Cline building. The shop will be known as Jan's Beauty shop.

Mrs. Jack Hanan invited a few friends for a birthday dinner, Thursday, June 8, honoring her husband. Enjoying dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hadley, Darlene and Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Abbott and Betty, Charles Hanan, Dale Stevens and the honor guest, Jack Hanan.

Mrs. Robert Cable returned Friday night from Portland where she has been for the past week receiving medical care. During her absence, her daughter, Mrs. Robert Rindt of Eugene, Ore., has been working at Mrs. Cable's Junction lunch and service station.

Harry Engle and son Clifford, returned Saturday morning from Ashland, where they spent a few days.

ALLOTMENT CONTINUES
PORTLAND, June 14 (AP)—The 20-pound canning sugar allotment will continue to be issued during the next period opening Friday, OPA officials said today.

Ration boards have been swamped by housewives who believe Thursday is the deadline for obtaining the full allotment, the OPA said.

MAJIN SETS BOND RALLY SATURDAY P. M.

The old carnival cry, "A prize on every play," will be heard again at Malin Saturday night when a huge war bond rally is held in that thriving south Klamath town under sponsorship of the Loyal Order of Moose.

Malin chamber of commerce and A. Kalina, mayor, have agreed to put up $50 each to provide prizes for every person who buys a $25 or $50 bond at the big rally to be held at Broadway hall.

On top of that, Vaclav Kalina has offered to each bond buyer, a free ticket to a premiere showing of a picture at Broadway hall.

Ray Van Meter, state president of the Moose, has arranged the big bond event, which promises to sell more than $100,000 in war bonds to boost Klamath's Fifth War Loan total. Many special features are planned, including entertainment and talks by military officials and others.

Mayor John Houston of Klamath Falls will be master of ceremonies and County Judge U. E. Reeder will speak.

Refreshments will be served by Women of the Moose.
