Washington Halts Bosox Win Streak

Spence Raises R.B.I. Total As Case Steals Two Bases; Browns Smother Detroit

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer Boston's nine-game winning streak which had lifted the Red Sox from sixth place to within a half game of the American league lead, was halted abruptly by Milo Candini, Washington's in and out righthander, last night.

Candini blanked the Sox 4-0 with five hits in pitching his first complete game of the season. Stan Spence drove in the first two Senator runs in the opening inning with a single to raise his league leadership to 36. George Case stole two bases to tie Don Gutteridge for the lead in that department with 13 each. Washington's victory vaulted them into the first division, one percentage point ahead of the New York Yankees.

The league leading St. Louis Browns scored a decisive 14-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers. Milt Byrnes and Mark Christman each drove in three runs. Bob Munciet won his sixth victory scattering nine Bengal hits.

The Yankees started a long home stand with a victory over the tail-end Philadelphia Athletics 6-1. A five-run sixth inning enabled Hank Borowy to hang up his eighth win of the year.

Fireman Gordon Maltzberger rescued Orval Grove in the ninth when he fanned Manager Lou Boudreau with the bases full and two out, to give the Chicago White Sox a 3-1 win over the Cleveland Indians. Hal Trosky celebrated his return to the White Sox lineup with a double and scored one of the Pale Hose's runs.

Brooklyn took a close game from the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-4, with the aid of a four-run outburst in the sixth inning. Dixie Walker paced the Dodger attack with two doubles and drove in two runs. Rube Melton won his fourth game, though he needed help from Les Webber in the ninth.

The Cincinnati Reds clubbed four Chicago pitchers for 13 hits, including homers by Frank McCormick and Eric Tipton, to defeat the Cubs, 10-5. Besides the homer, McCormick hit a single and double to make it easy for Clyde Shoun to notch his sixth victory against two defeats.

The Giants-Braves, Cards-Pirates were not scheduled.

Johnson Blanks Leading Seals

By The Associated Press Young Chester Johnson celebrated the birth of his second son and avenged a humiliation of three years standing last night when he shut out the San Francisco Seals 6 to 0 on two hits.

The San Diego Padre pitcher received word from Seattle of the birth of his second boy just before taking the mound against the team that cast him adrift three years ago.

The defeat dropped the Pacific Coast baseball league leaders to only a half a game ahead of idle Portland.

Hollywood lengthened its hold on third place in league standings with a ninth inning rally in which three runs were scored to beat Sacramento 4 to 3.

Los Angeles at Seattle and Oakland at Portland were rained out.

Wagner Fells Protesting Belcastro

Pete Kicks Moss, George Out of Ring After Match; Parks, Achiu Drop Foes

In a ding-dong battle with a lot of dirty punching mixed in when Wally Moss wasn't looking, Gorgeous George Wagner managed to take two out of three falls from the rugged Weed Assassin, Pete Belcastro.

The body-beautiful boy won the first fall on a painful bounding hammerlock. Pete bounded back and battered Wagner in and out of the ropes unmercifully. The Weed Assassin then knocked him into a semi-conscious state with a series of good punches to the jaw and won the fall while George was in this condition.

Wagner returned fighting mad at the decision. He grabbed a water bottle from his second and started chasing both Belcastro and Referee Wally Moss around the ring. After giving up the idea of smashing their skulls Wagner felled Pete with a series of body blows off the ropes to win the match.

But Belcastro didn't approve of the whole thing in general so he bodily kicked Gorgeous out of the ring. When Wally Moss tried to bring Wagner back into the ring to declare him the winner, Pete droppicked Moss out too. Neither could get back into the circle. Wagner picked up a nearby chair to try to batter his way through Belcastro, but about that time the police came down and broke up the boy's fun.

In the first match of the evening Herb Parks put a swinging full Nelson on Silent Rattan to win the only fall of the three round go.

The second match was a wild and woolly affair between the Chinaman, Walter "Sneeze" Achiu and the Canadian meanie, Buck Davidson. Davidson took the first fall with several body butts. Then Achiu tried a pressure hold on the neck. Immediately Buck claimed it was an illegal chokehold.

"Sneeze" applied the same hold again to win his first fall. Davidson protested loudly again but this time he took his wrath out on Wally Moss. Wally threw him flat on his back. Achiu promptly jumped on Buck and won the last fall with the same hold.

From the Corral Fence

Doings of Klamath Horseback Enthusiasts, Recounted by "Top Wrangler"

By "Top-wrangler"

I got wind that the Klamath Saddle club wuz throwin' a wandin' fer jist girls, so I set on the old corral like a sick chicken 'til I heered where and when it wuz to be. Well sir, Monday nite they went outta Sari's and put on feed bags in that party room. I keep a sippin' coffee so they wouldn't notice me and I counted twenty-five head of the nicest little fillies. They wuz dressed in their Sunday go-to-meetin' duds and havin' a awful nice time.

I got their names, but no phone numbers. . . . Beth Chase, Ernestyne Read, Alice Dale Peterson, Evelyn Drew, Clarice Moon, Blanche Harmon, Mable Liskay, Jo Matt, Lavina Matson, Dorothy Dehlinger, Monie Reeder, Lois Mills, Pearl Drew, Barbara McKoen, Billy Adams, Helen Moss, Helen Perry, Mrs. Earl McNeely, Marge Burleigh, Gladys Hogue, Margaret Wirth, Hazel Baker, Mary Scott and Mrs. L. Townsland.

Sunday they'll all be outta the Fair Grounds to the queen try-out, if they didn't founder and git laid up with the colic. Doc Hunt signed a good many riders to put on some classes out there Sunday and the public is invited. I'll bet there'll be some spills and thrill fer I never seen so many leaky saddles as lately. Tother day we had two more riders join the caterpillar club by fallen off. Wally Moss took his second fall. Seems like he lives up to what he preaches down at the Armory on Friday nites. Margaret Wirth sorta joined the birds when she and her hoss parted ways.

The Posse polshin' off their drill team on the race track every Sunday and the saddle girls practisin' carryin' flags on their steeds. The grandstand held a purty good crowd of on lookers. Jack Ray ardiven that hoss of his'n to a cart, while Lou Berry a galled his two hosses under those pancake saddles. Sheriff Low wuz a cow-boyn' on a black, don't know how come he wuzn't ridden Pepper. Lee Ackerman don't get out to ride much, but has loaned his hoss to a Barney who is home visitin' his pap-py and mammy. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Howard. Ben Marsh workin' his black to enter in the gaited class next Sunday. Elmer Bal-seiger bring his two saddlers in 'til after the 4th.

The horse set is a buzzin' and makin' the West still live. Don't fergit Saturday is big hat day, let's make hey hey for the horses. Bye now.
