Friendship Court Number 11, Order of the Amaranth, met at the Masonic Temple on Saturday, June 10, with Royal Matron Jack Schulze and Royal Patron Ed Jones presiding.

Grand Royal Matron Mrs. Essie Snyder and Grand Royal Patron William D. Horton were escorted, introduced, and given grand honors.

Mrs. Frances Hurlbert, past supreme royal matron of the United States and at the present time the grand secretary, Summe Charity, Mrs. Charlotte Clark, and Dep. Supreme Royal Patron Yukon William C. Crenshaw were escorted, introduced, and give the supreme oaths.

Other grand officers present were Grand Associate Matron Mrs. A. Ada R. Martin, Grand Associate Matron Mrs. Emma Henderson, Grand Associate Conductress Mrs. Violet Helback; Grand Steward John Lithland, Grand Treasurer Mrs. Martha Embodie, and Lecturer Norma Coykendall.

Grand Representative to Massachusetts Mrs. Gladys Fitness, Grand Musician Lois Cassel, Grand Representative to Maryland Mrs. Grace Robnett, and Sword Bearer Roy Freese, and Grand Truth Mrs. Eva Long. These officers were given the grand honors.

Royal matrons and patrons present were Phuetta Higgins and Herbert Hayek of Christina Number eight; Mrs. Helen Hubbard of Sunnyside Court Number four; Past Royal Matron Mrs. Maude Horton of Washington Court Number nine; Mrs. Helen Widener, past royal matron of Willamette Court Number two. They were given a hearty welcome.

Mrs. Eva Lea Long, grand truth, was installed at the beginning of court. The installing officers were the following: William D. Horton, royal patron; Mrs. Emma Henderson, marshal; Mrs. Marjorie Embodie, aid; and Norma Coykendall, prelate.

Nine candidates were initiated. They were Mrs. Mary Adams, Esther Inman, Ora Gienker, Thelma Henry and Merle Adams, J. Paul Mathews, Ernest Gienker, William G. Gush, and Frank H. Marks. Special music for this occasion was rendered by Melvin Solberg, Sanford Selby, Walter West, and Dr. Cassell, accompanied by Miss Lois Cassel at the piano.

The grand royal matron and patron highly praised the officers of Friendship court for their splendid work and expressed their appreciation for the gracious hospitality shown them while here.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Essie Snyder, grand royal matron, William D. Horton, grand royal patron, and Mrs. Eva Lea Long, grand truth.

At 8:30 o'clock a potluck dinner started off one of the most enjoyable evenings of Friendship court. The tables were beautifully decorated with red roses, snapdragons, snow balls and blue and white iris.

Church Circles

Members of the Senior and Junior circles of the Community Congregational church and of the Mills unit of the Red Cross met in the social hall Friday, June 9, for a potluck luncheon, and the guest of honor was Mrs. L. R. Harvey who is leaving soon to make her home at Brookings. Mrs. Harvey was president of the senior circle for two years, and has been chairman of the Red Cross for some time. She will be missed in both organizations.

Before the luncheon there was group singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic" led by Mrs. H. S. Stone, and Mary Stone led in the salute to the flag. At the close of the luncheon, Miss Mary Eckstein, president of the senior circle, paid tribute to Mrs. Harvey and expressed the general regret that her husband's health necessitated their departure from Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Harvey was then presented with a gift from all her friends. Mrs. Van Duzer of the junior circle gave a short report on the two day conference which she and Miss Eckstein attended recently at Astoria.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the farewell luncheon consisted of Mrs. A. A. Myers and Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, and others who attended were Mrs. R. W. Barrett, Mrs. Glenn Silvers, Mrs. William Larson, Mrs. S. H. Godard, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. John Marin, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mary and John Stone, Rev. ## Card Party at Legion Hall

The Legion hall was the scene of one of the prettiest parties of the year given Friday evening, June 9, when the American Legion auxiliary gave its annual benefit card party.

Mrs. A. P. Heup had charge of arrangements for the party and Mrs. Lloyd Low and Mrs. Coleman O'Loughlin were in charge of decorations.

The patriotic theme was carried out throughout the rooms. The tea table was beautiful with a lace cloth and red, white, and blue candles in a V formation. The centerpiece of red, white, and blue flowers was cleverly arranged about a Madonna figurine.

Mrs. Edna Russell had charge of bridge and Mrs. Lina Motschenbacher had charge of pinochle arrangements. There were twenty five tables of cards in play.

A special award was won by Frank Hooten. Pinochle awards were won by Fred Hellbroner, Mrs. Lohry, and Mrs. Dufor. Bridge awards went to Dr. M. E. Cooper, Mrs. Dorothy Templer, L. L. Low, and Mrs. Martha McCollum.

An interesting highlight of the evening was the "Cake Raffle." Chances on the cakes were sold during the evening and the winners were Mrs. Betty Hunter and Mrs. Sylvia McClelland.

Mrs. Arlene Schubert, president of the American Legion auxiliary, and Mrs. Lillian Otterbein, past president, presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Lee McMullen was in charge of refreshments.

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Mrs. Alfreda Steinmetz on Tuesday, June 13. Members present were Mrs. C. C. Hedrick, Mrs. Jenny Hurn, Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mrs. Maude Hosley, Mrs. Herbert Savage, Mrs. Nellie Langer, Mrs. Keller, Lina Motschenbacher, Mrs. George Blehn, Mrs. Carl Sandell, Mrs. Anna Funk, Mrs. Syd Evans, Mrs. E.
