

Seals Hold Three Game Lead; Beavers Now Third

Portland Loses Sixth in Row to Acorns; Rainiers Purchase Player

By The Associated Press
The San Francisco Seals held a firm three-game lead in the high-pressure Pacific Coast league baseball race today, thanks to a doubleheader sweep over the San Diego Padres, 2 to 1 and 3 to 2.

The twin win gave the Seals six out of seven games in a series which lifted them from third place to the top as the other first division three teams lost their series. The Seals won Saturday, 2 to 0.

The revitalized Oakland Acorns, who won six straight from Portland, tightened the pennant chase. The Acorns are now only six and a half games from the top and tied with Los Angeles Angels for sixth spot.

Oakland shut out Portland Saturday, 7 to 0, and defeated the Beavers twice Sunday, 3 to 1 and 7 to 4. Portland dropped into a tie with Hollywood for third after starting the week as league leader.

Los Angeles won the Seattle series, 4 games to 2, taking the nightcap Sunday, 1 to 0, after dropping the opener, 3 to 2. Seattle won Saturday, 5 to 3. Seattle clung to second place, half a game ahead of Hollywood and Portland.

The tallend Sacramento Solons grabbed three games over the weekend from the Hollywood Stars and took the series 4 games to 3. Sacramento won Saturday, 5 to 4, and 7 to 5 and 5 to 2.

The Rainiers announced the outright purchase of Hal Spindel from the American Association. Spindel, now working in a Seattle shipyard, broke into organized baseball with Seattle a decade ago and was drafted by the St. Louis Browns in 1938.

From the front office, Business Manager Bill Mulligan said he would recommend to League President Clarence Rowland that the league season be extended two weeks, the added games to be played in California. Also, he said, he would urge that the president's cup playoffs be made two out of three game series instead of three of four.

This week's schedule, opening Tuesday, again pits the top-half teams against the lower section nines.

Oakland will return to Seattle and Los Angeles to Portland in the first split week of the season. The clubs will play three games in the north and then switch to the south with games scheduled at Oakland and Los Angeles Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Sacramento goes to San Francisco for three days, then the teams switch to Sacramento for four more contests. San Diego will start the week at Hollywood and will entertain the Stars for four days at San Diego.

Wins Tenth

Hal Newhouse is fulfilling his five year promise of being the best southpaw in the major leagues. Yesterday he became the second hurler to win ten games in the big leagues as the Detroit Tigers helped him defeat the league-leading St. Louis Browns.

Newhouse Wins Tenth For Detroit

Giants Climb to Third as 40,222 Fans See Cubs Lose

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Hal Newhouse, of the Detroit Tigers, finally is fulfilling the promise he gave five years ago of becoming the finest lefthander in the American league.

The 23-year-old southpaw yesterday became the first pitcher in the league to win 10 games, helping the Tigers take both games of a double header from the league leading St. Louis Browns, 7-3 and 7-5.

He joins Bucky Walters of the Cincinnati Reds as the only 10 game winner in the majors.

A home run by Rudy York with one on in the ninth gave the Tigers a clean sweep.

The New York Giants took both ends of a twin bill from the Boston Braves, 9-2 and 7-1, to climb into third place in the National league standings, a half game ahead of the Reds. Phil Wintraub homered in the first game, but had to leave in the third inning because of a strained muscle. Cliff Melton, making his first start since May 19, was the winner in the nightcap, but retired in the seventh inning complaining of a sore arm.

The Philadelphia Athletics downed the New York Yankees twice 4-0 and 8-6, to drop the world champions into sixth place. Luke Hamlin blanked the Yankees with four hits in the opener, with Frank Hayes hitting his eighth homer to tie Roy Cullenbine for the league lead. A six-run first inning enabled the A's to win the second, 8-6.

The Chicago White Sox took two close games from the Cleveland Indians, 3-2 in ten innings and 6-5. A home run by Wally Maltzberger in the 10th won the opener for Relief Pitcher Gordon Maltzberger, his sixth win of the year against one loss. Moses' triple and Leroy Schalk's single in the ninth gave the White Sox the second game.

The Brooklyn Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies divided their two games, the Dodgers winning the first 7-3 and the Phillies taking the second 6-2.

The St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates split a double header. Mort Cooper won his sixth game in the opener, 12-2, and Fritz Ostermueller tamed the Cards, 3-1, with three hits in the nightcap. Stan Musial connected for two triples and a double in the opener.

After losing the opener to the Boston Red Sox, 9-6, Washington took the nightcap, 1-0, behind the four hit pitching of Early Wynn.

Cincinnati defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 in the first game of a double header before 40,222 fans, the largest crowd of the season at Wrigley field. Harry Gumbert, making his first start for the Reds, was the winner. The second game ended in a 6-6 tie called after 13 innings on account of darkness. Bill Nicholson hit two homers for the Cubs.

Dixie's Doin' It

The Dodgers' floundering around the second division is no fault of Dixie Walker, who is leading hitters with a .407 average.

NEVER TOO LATE

At Rochester, N. Y., recently the Red Wings had runners on first and third with one out against Syracuse. . . . When the next batsman filed out, the guy on third galloped home easily, and the throw to the plate was cut off because there was no chance to catch him. But the man on first wandered too far and was caught, apparently ending the inning. . . . Rochester already had started infield warmups when Dutch Mele raced in from right field and started a mysterious series of confabs. . . . Infielder Chico Rodriguez was called from the bench, and he tried to get the ball from a couple of Rochester players, who wouldn't give it up. Finally Mele secured another ball from the plate umpire and tossed it to Rodriguez, who stepped on third base. . . . Only then did Ump Roy Van Grafian break his dignified silence to bellow: "Yer out."

FAIR CATCH

In Richmond, Va., a Roanoke player casually caught a pitch as it came up to the plate—and casually handed the ball to the catcher. . . . The umpire called it a ball, and Manager Ben Chapman, possibly incensed at such treatment of his finger's "swift" one, protested that the batter should have been called out for interference. . . .

FAIR AND WARMUP

Charles (Red) Lucas, former Cincinnati and Pittsburgh flinger, is now, pinch-hitting, relief pitcher and general handy man for the Nashville Vols of the Southern association. . . . Not long ago Red was called upon to pinch hit for the Vols' pitcher against New Orleans and singled. That touched off a seven-run rally, so Lucas came up again. This time he walked, and was moved to second by another hit. . . . Just then Manager Fresco Thompson decided it was time to summon his mound ace, Jesse Danna. . . . Since Lucas was scheduled to take over Nashville's mound duties, Manager Larry Gilbert dispatched a courier to second with a glove and ball, and sent Catcher Al Leitz down to third. . . . And while Danna warmed up in the box, Lucas stood on second and fired his own warmup pitches to Leitz.

Portland Enters Pro Grid Ranks

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19 (AP) The traditional rivalry between Portland and Seattle moves into the professional football field this fall.

The rose city entered the pay-for-play gridiron ranks Saturday when Henry J. Sandberg, northwest hockey sportsman, announced purchase of a franchise in the new American professional football league which also includes Seattle, San Francisco, Oakland, San Diego, Hollywood and two Los Angeles entries.

The Portland entry will be operated by local businessmen with Sandberg as president and Bobby Rowe, former owner of the Portland Pacific Coast Hockey League club, as business manager.

Sandberg said he anticipated "little difficulty" in obtaining the 24 men allowed under contract to each club, although signing of players will not be undertaken until after the league meeting in Los Angeles Thursday.

Neither was there a scarcity of possible coaches, with speculation taking in Glenn (Pop) Warner, Jimmy Phelan, former University of Washington mentor now with St. Mary's; Buck Shaw of Santa Clara, and Francis Schmidt, ex-Ohio State and University of Idaho coach.

English Derby Won By Lowly Outsider

NEWMARKET, England, June 19 (AP)—Ocean Swell, a lowly regarded outsider owned by Lord Rosebery, won England's famed derby at odds of 28 to 1 in an exciting finish with Tehran and Happy Landing who finished second and third.

With Jockey Will Nevett up, Ocean Swell took the lead less than a half mile from the finish of Britain's top-classic for three year olds and stood off a furious finish to beat Tehran by a neck. Happy Landing, closing with a rush, was third by a head.

Segura to Tour Camps

DETROIT, June 19 (AP)—Colorful little Francisco (Pancho) Segura, the new national clay tennis champion, will make a tour of army camps next month, meeting Billy Talbert of Indianapolis, whom he defeated for the title yesterday in a four-set match, 6-3, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Segura, Ecuadorian star from Coral Gables, Fla., disclosed plans for the service tour after he had added the clay court crown to the national intercollegiate championship he soon will defend at Evanston, Ill.

Segura combined with Talbert to win the doubles title, defeating Hubert Marire and Hobart Wrobel of Detroit, 6-1, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1. Pauline Betz of Los Angeles, who was dethroned in women's singles by Dorothy M. Bundy of Santa Monica, Calif., paired with Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., to win the doubles title from Mary Arnold of Los Angeles and Catherine Wolf of Elkhart, Ind., 8-6, 8-3.

Dempsey on Oregon Bond Selling Tour

PORTLAND, June 19 (AP)—Lt. Com. Jack Dempsey of the coast guard, ex-world's heavy-weight boxing champion, will arrive here Sunday night on a war bond selling tour.

He will make public appearances here and at Astoria the following day, and will visit the Corvallis marine air base, Albany and Salem on Wednesday of next week.

DOUBLE NO-HITTER

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., June 19 (AP)—An army sergeant and a private hooked up in a tight pitching duel here in a battalion baseball league game, both turning in no-hit games. But Sgt. William Miller's team won, 1 to 0, as Pvt. John Morris issued four walks and his mates committed three errors.

DOG SEASON OPENS

PORTLAND, June 19 (AP)—Portland's grayhound racing season will open at Multnomah stadium tonight. The traditional inaugural handicap will pit eight of the top pre-meet performers among 550 animals kennelled for Multnomah Kennel club's 1944 season.

PLACE, TIME SET

PORTLAND, June 19 (AP)—Oregon's 1944 semi-pro baseball tournament will be played here July 21 to August 1, State Director Ray Brooks announced. Sixteen teams are expected to enter.

HESITATIONS—AND LOSES
NEW YORK—A merchant seaman, who acquired a Russian wolfhound in his travels, learned on arrival here that there was a duty charge to bring it ashore.

Seeking to foil customs officials, he decided to wait until dawn when he hoped they would be asleep. But when morning came he discovered the wolfhound had given birth to five pups and later that his delay had not saved him $5—but cost him $30.

Olene

The Joe Sullivan west State Grange at Grants Pass with Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hill. The Olene community center will be the site of a local dance on Saturday evening. The old Rex Bord house on George Stevenson place.

Mrs. Curtis Gebhardt and Mrs. O. L. Brown left Wednesday morning by bus for the remainder of the State Grange session at Grants Pass.

The A. L. Marshall received a cable announcing the death of his son P. C. Marshall, destination not known. Mrs. John Marshall, his mother, Mrs. Estelle Marshall, his wife, and Mrs. M. Hill, his sister, are in the city.

Mrs. Phil Hunt and small niece Molly of Portland are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Behndt.

Dick Pepple left Friday morning for duty with the navy. Doris Leavitt spent several days at Bonanza with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Dearborn.

Mrs. Edith Turnage of Bonanza spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Anna Bradburn.

Cascade

Rain has fallen here nearly every day this week. The season has been unusually cold, cloudy and dreary. Several fishermen went to Gold Lake last weekend and nearly all of them reported record catches.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Benson of Cascade will move to Cascade Summit where Benson will be section foreman for the Southern Pacific company, taking the place of his brother-in-law, Gene Lavoy, who is now foreman of an extra gang. Gene Lavoy's gang is now stationed at Frazier, but their outfit car is still spured out here and Mrs. Lavoy is moving their household equipment into it.

Cascade Summit residents regret the leaving of another family, the Hobart Williams family, who will make their home in Oakridge. Williams has accepted the position of town marshal in Oakridge. Mrs. Williams and the girls are still here.

They will move as soon as Williams finds a house in Oakridge, which will be difficult as there is a shortage of houses.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Porter had as their guests, Mrs. Anna Smith and grandson, Larry Hennigh. Mrs. Smith is Porter's sister. She lives in Long Beach, Washington, and was en route to San Bernardino to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Merle Hennigh. Mrs. Hennigh's husband is a lieutenant with the air corps in Italy.

Mrs. Porter's niece and her husband also stopped off to visit the Porters while en route to Los Angeles.

Rain fell so hard at Cascade Summit last Saturday afternoon that it almost reached cloud-burst proportions. It was accompanied by an electric storm which is said to have struck some trees near here.

Among residents of this vicinity who have taken vacations recently are Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Benson of Cruzatte and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Murray, also of Cruzatte.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hall are expecting Mrs. Hall's sister to visit them next week.

The fishing in Rosary lake has been better than it has been for several years, probably due to the few fishermen here for the past two or three years.

Chiloquin

Three tons of paper and one ton of tin collected by the Boy Scout troop here in recent months was picked up Wednesday by Sessler Brothers of Klamath Falls.

The Scouts will receive about $7.50 per ton for the waste paper they turned in; the Scouts gave the tin to the government, free of charge. They haven't any definite date for the next pickup of paper because most of the boys are working this summer.

From now on the Boy Scouts will collect no more paper that isn't bundled or separated, so please have your paper separated and bundled for the Scouts to pick up.
