

SCOUTS OPEN KLAMATH BOND SALE CANVASS

One hundred and twenty-five Klamath Falls Boy Scouts opened their part in the Fifth War Loan with a rally last night in the auditorium of the Fremont school. They began their house-to-house canvass of all homes in Klamath Falls today. In addition to those who attended the meeting, there will be a hundred more working in the canvass.

Featured on the program were four members of the United States marine corps, who accompanied Drive Chairman Joe Hicks to the rally. Each man spoke briefly of his experiences in the South Pacific and all stressed the importance of selling and buying war bonds. The men were Sgt. Warren Hilbert, Corporal McClusky, PFC Don Watson and Pvt. Ramagieu. Sgt. Hilbert emphasized that it was for the coming generation that the boys are fighting even more than for their own liberty. He urged the scouts to develop themselves physically and live clean lives.

L. Orth Sisemore was in charge of the program, which began with community singing under the leadership of the Scout Executive Bob Lamott. Sisemore explained the nature of the canvass and announced two prizes. The troop which turns in the best record on the coverage of its area will receive a $10 purchase order for scout supplies. The individual Scout who turns in the best report of his area will receive an archery set. After the assignment of troop areas, a moving picture was shown of the landing on the Anzio beachhead. Klamath people were urged to back the Scouts and to help them sell an extra bond at every Klamath Falls home.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 20 (AP)—The father of an 11-year-old boy and 17-year-old girl, who were found dead of cyanide gas poisoning in their former home, was under arrest today on a non-support charge.

Police said the children had been homeless for weeks and, apparently hiding from welfare authorities, had been sleeping in a garage. During a rainstorm Sunday, the boy and girl had found a cellar window to enter the house, which had been posted with fumigation notices.

BILL WRITES OUT DISTRICT OBLIGATIONS

Under the new arrangement, the district will not be required to make these payments to the government, and in exchange will relinquish its right to fees for lease of certain government-owned lands within the district.
