

SOCIETY

By Nadine Palmerton

Shirley Hartwell Married Saturday

A beautiful wedding taking place last Saturday was that of Shirley Lorraine Hartwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hartwell of the Marion apartments, to Ensign Richard Caglin Costa, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Costa of San Anselmo.

The ceremony was read at 10 o'clock in the morning at the Sacred Heart church with Father Timothy Casey officiating.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Marguerite Hartwell, and Ensign Don Sherlock was the best man.

The bride was lovely in an all white costume with white crepe dress and a lace straw hat. On her shoulder she wore a single purple orchid. Her accessories were also of white.

Matron of honor wore a black and white jersey dress with white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas and roses.

The church was beautifully decorated with white flowers and white candles. Mrs. George McIntyre played Schubert's "Serenade" and "Ave Maria" for the wedding music.

After the ceremony, a breakfast and reception was held at the Pelican party room with the bride and groom cutting a large white wedding cake.

The bride and groom left for North Bend where he is stationed with the navy as a fighter pilot. For going away, Mrs. Costa wore a three-piece teal blue suit with white accessories.

She attended the University of Washington in Seattle for two years and was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She also was chosen as typical coed and was queen of a ball given by

Portland Wedding

In last Sunday Oregonian's society section was written a wedding of interest to Klamath Falls people who remember Fred Whittlesey Jr., who lived in Klamath Falls for several years prior to the war.

Following is part of the article:

"The wedding of Miss Leal Daly, daughter of Mrs. Walter M. Daly and the late Mr. Daly, and Lt. Frederick J. Whittlesey Jr., United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Whittlesey, was solemnized June 10 at a late afternoon ceremony at St. Patrick's church, Rev. Louis A. Sander officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William A. Healy. She wore a period dress of white satin with full train and long tulle veil falling from a headdress of rosepoint lace which had belonged to her grandmother. Her bouquet was a cascade of white larkspur and orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittlesey Jr., left afterwards for the east where they will be at home in Miami, Fla."

Wedding

Jimmie Dee Rink, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rink of this city was married to Ase Clemens in a ceremony at the home of Rev. C. C. Brown on Eldorado street.

The wedding took place on Saturday, June 17 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Attending the bride were Jo Thrash, Mrs. Anna Barnett of Dallas, Texas, and the bride's mother, Mrs. Rink. Best man was Kelly Ferris.

For the wedding, Mrs. Clemens wore a light blue suit with a corsage of gardenias and black and white accessories.

She is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1942 and he graduated from Dorris high school in 1941. The young people are now making their home in Dunsmuir.

WARTIME WEDDINGS have stolen the spotlight again this June with a record number of ceremonies. Many of them have been of a military nature with the grooms in uniforms of the United States armed forces.

Above, at left, Ensign and Mrs. Richard C. Costa, who were married at the Sacred Heart church last Saturday are shown cutting their wedding cake at a reception held in the Pelican party room. She is the former Shirley Hartwell.

Center, Mr. and Mrs. Ase Clemens. She is the former Jimmie Dee Rink, and they were married this last week.

At right are Lieutenant and Mrs. Lewis Richardson cutting their wedding cake after a ceremony in Laredo, Texas. He is a former resident of Klamath Falls.

Costa picture by Comart, Clemens by Kennell-Ellis.

Luncheon

Mrs. Margaret Lamb of Portland was honored by a few friends at an informal luncheon given for her at the Pelican last Saturday.

Guests were Mrs. Guy Hancock, Mrs. Hugh Campbell, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. Peter Albertson, Mrs. Neal Stewart, Mrs. C. H. Daggett, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, and Mrs. Ruth Bathiany.

Lieutenant Allan A. Bynon, Jr., of Portland, visited here briefly Thursday with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart. He was en route to visit his parents following completion of his training in the United States paratroops in South Carolina.

Honored

Mrs. J. C. Johnston, who is leaving next week to make her home in Portland with Mr. Johnston, was honored this week at an informal "brunch" in the Pelican. The affair was given by Mrs. Richard Smith of Tulelake.

Guests were Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. J. R. Shaw, Mrs. Webb Staunton, Mrs. K. A. Moore, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. H. A. Teale, Mrs. R. E. Hooker, Mrs. Verne Owens, and Mary McComb.

Mrs. Charles Mack of this city has been visiting with her family in Ashland.

Wed in Texas

The marriage of Dorothy Evelyn Hinson of San Antonio, Texas, to Lieutenant Lewis Harlin Richardson, formerly of Klamath Falls, and now stationed at Laredo gunnery school, was solemnized at the post chapel at the field in Texas recently.

Chaplain Carl T. Schmidt officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was costumed in a leaf green two-piece suit of gabardine with a jabot of lace and organdie. In her hair was a halo of white carnations and she carried a white prayer book from which showered white carnations and white ribbons.

The groom formerly lived in Klamath Falls and was manager of the hardware department of Sears and Roebuck. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Franey of this city and was sponsored in the air corps by Mr. and Mrs. Angus Newton of Klamath Falls.

Capping Services

Members of the first Nurses Aid group here will receive their caps and pins in capping ceremonies to be held in the Little Theater of the high school Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Those who have completed the course are Mrs. Earl Weimer, Mrs. J. Miller Babcock, Mrs. Russell McCollum, Mrs. Joe Pland, Mrs. Stephen Walker, Mrs. L. Jenkins, Mrs. Harry Jackman, Mrs. Rae Horton and Mrs. W. C. Milkey.

Friends of the women are invited to attend the ceremonies.

Chapel Ceremony Read in Texas

A surprise wedding of June 13 was that of Hathaway Kellogg-Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Kellogg-Smith of Chester town, Maryland, to Aviation Cadet Richard Blohm, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blohm of this city. The ceremony was read at mid-day in the cadet chapel at the San Antonio Air Cadet Center where Cadet Blohm is stationed.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Leon Howell of Washington, D. C. and was given in marriage by Aviation Cadet Edmund S. Walker, son of Brig. General Walker of Santa Ana. Best man for the ceremony was Cadet Lee Barnett, who has been a classmate of Richard's all through training at Lowry field in Denver.

The Episcopal double ring service was read by Cadet Chaplain Clark.

After the ceremony a party was given for Richard's squadron in the Cadet Center club rooms with the bridal party enjoying a dinner later in the evening.

Hathaway returned to her home to await Richard's transfer to New Haven in early July when she will join him while he continues his training in the Technical Officer's school at Yale university.

Both young people were students at Reed college in Portland and Hathaway has visited here often.

Mrs. Ludwig Peterson of Primeville, former Klamath Falls resident, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren of California avenue. She arrived Wednesday and will leave the middle of the coming week.

Summer Tea

A group of ten women were hostesses at a charming summer tea given for the navy officers' wives at the Pelican party room on Wednesday afternoon, June 21.

Tea and punch were served from three until five o'clock with the hostesses in long summer dresses greeting the guests.

Pouring at the tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. E. Godfrey Blohm and Mrs. W. E. Lamm.

At the punch bowl were Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mrs. Joseph Peak, and Mrs. E. M. Igl.

Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson has received word from her sister, Vera Stephenson, that she stopped in Mexico City on her way to San Jose, Costa Rica to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Tillotson and their children.

Mrs. Charles V. Rugh is spending several weeks visiting in the Monterey peninsula area in California.

THREE COLORFUL JUNE WEDDINGS were events of the past several weeks. A double wedding took place at the Episcopal church when the former Patterson twins were married. A surprise to friends here was the marriage of Hathaway Kellogg-Smith and Cadet Richard Blohm.

Left are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. Culver. She was Louise Patterson, and the couple will soon be making their home in Seaside.

Center, Mrs. Richard Blohm, who was Hathaway Kellogg-Smith. Cadet Blohm is stationed in San Antonio and the ceremony was read there.

At right, Mr. and Mrs. James Wallinder. The former Frances Patterson and her sister are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson.

Wallinder and Culver pictures by Kennell-Ellis.