

NEW CURFEW PASSED BY COUNCILMEN

Klamath Falls youngsters will be allowed on city streets after 10 p.m. instead of the age 11 limit at which persons are restricted as being out after hours was passed last year, when the curfew ordinance passed third and final reading at regular Monday night council meeting last night.

Under the new ordinance, which may now stay out until 10 p.m. instead of 10 o'clock for 17-year-olds instead of 15-year-olds and over are now exempt from this rule.

The new ordinance, which replaces the old curfew law, will go into effect immediately.

During its second reading, an ordinance providing that anyone who disturbs, annoys or makes an opening in any sidewalk, street or alley by placing a sign, poster or anything else on it, shall be liable to a $100 bond after making application to the city engineer.

The ordinance also provides for the prohibition of the hanging of political banners across city streets, was up for third and final reading. Before it was adopted, however, Councilman Cantrall moved that be adoption of the proposed ordinance should be referred to a committee for further study to determine whether or not the ordinance in its present form. Some question has been previously brought up as to whether or not the measure, as written, covers the subject matter. Councilman Cantrall's recommendation was accepted, and the third reading postponed.

Several bids for services to be city during the fiscal year, 1944-45, were accepted by the council Monday night.

The oil bid went to both Shell Oil and Standard as both companies had submitted the same prices. Union Oil will supply the city's oil for six months of the year and Standard will have the contract for the other half of the year.

Shaw Stationery was awarded the bid for the servicing of typewriters and adding machines. No one else applied.

Mr. Winnie Hoak was again given the contract for feeding prisoners and guards. Here is the only application.

The Associated Gas bid, the only one submitted, was tabled apparently on motion of Councilman Cantrall. The bid was referred over to the finance committee and the city engineer has power to act.

Bids from Kern's, Lombard's and Ashley's Chevrolet companies were opened. The three lowest quoted prices on a city street flusher. The communications were referred to the finance committee and city engineer.

Councilman J. J. Keller, head of the police committee, announced that he had been out the city dog kennels Monday afternoon to investigate a report by Adolph Nitschelm of Klamath View auto camp that the animals howl continually at the kennels, disturbing the neighborhood. Keller said he wanted to make a second investigation before making his report at the next council meeting.

City Engineer E. A. Thomas reported that the sidewalk in front of the Consolidated right-of-way has been smashed by the big trucks going over it and that Consolidated should be requested to put in a six-inch sidewalk able to withstand heavy traffic. The recommendation was adopted and the city engineer requested to notify the company.

Councilman Rollin Cantrall announced that an effort is still being made to clean up Linkville cemetery, but that the work is progressing very slowly due to lack of help. A request made by businessmen for the marking off of a temporary parking spot in front of the Vox theatre was referred to the city engineer. Mayor John Houston said that it is planned to use that location for a sort of country store affair scheduled for the last week of the Fifth War Loan drive.

Councilman Harvey Martin said that he had investigated the need for a more powerful street light on one portion of 9th street. He said the trees on that street made the sidewalk very dark at night and suggested more powerful globes. The matter was referred to the city engineer who was asked to confer with Copco for the installation of stronger lights.

Councilman Keller announced that the Red Cross had asked for a loading zone the length of one car in front of its headquarters. The city engineer was authorized to take the matter under consideration.

The city fathers decided to close the city hall on July 3, thus giving a three-day holiday to some of the city employees. It was also decided not to have a council meeting that night, the next regular session to be held July 10.

Stalin Lauds American Production in Confab

By HENRY C. CASSIDY
MOSCOW, June 27 (AP)—Eric Johnston, president of the United States chamber of commerce, talked business with Premier Joseph Stalin for two and a half hours in the Kremlin late last night and emerged with the declaration that the conversation had been "very successful."

The interview was confined largely to questions by Johnston about future trade between the United States and the Soviet Union and direct answers by Stalin.

However, Stalin also gave his guest a statement praising American business, labor and agriculture for their contribution to the war.

The statement, which Stalin gave Johnston for publication follows:

"American business and American labor have done a remarkable job of production for the war. American agriculture also has performed unusually well. American machines of war and American food have contributed to the successes of the red army in its victories.

"The United States government has played a major role in the development and coordination of this production and also in fostering cooperation between our two countries."

Stalin wore the uniform of a marshal of the Soviet Union with a single decoration, hero of socialist labor.

Above the portraits of Lenin and two Russian military heroes, Surkov and Kutov, further down the room were pictures of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels.

HOOVER TO TAKE PART IN CAMPAIGN

CHICAGO, June 27 (AP)—Arriving to address the republican convention, Herbert H. Hoover said today that he would participate vigorously in the election campaign.

"I am going to stay in this fight until I die," the only living former president told newspapermen as he stepped from his train. "The fight is for everything that is precious to the American people."

Hoover would not say whether he expected to "barnstorm" for the republican ticket, but left no doubt that he would contribute all his energies to the republican ticket.

"The prospects for a republican victory this fall are good," he said. Asked about Wendell Willkie's criticism of the foreign affairs plank preliminary draft for the platform the former president commented "the platform, so far as I have seen, is in the right direction. That includes the foreign plank."

Hoover appeared in excellent health. Perspiration gathered on his forehead from the hot and humid weather as he entered a cab for his hotel, but he said "it isn't any worse here than it is in New York."

Auto Sticker Use Slated For 1944

SALEM, June 27 (AP)—Oregon motor vehicle owners will use windshield stickers again next year along with their 1942 license plates, the state department said today.

It will be the third straight year that stickers will have been used.

Harry Schenk, deputy secretary of state, said plans to use plastic plates have been abandoned because of the high cost. He said enough steel could be obtained for one plate for each vehicle, but that delivery on the plates could not be obtained in time.

The women they'll never forget!

THIS WAS A RED-LETTER DAY for Jim—the soldier who had lost the use of his leg at Salerno. For this day he walked—strictly alone—for the first time in months. To Jim, it was a miracle. To the Wacs who had coached him so long and so patiently, he said, "Sister, if I live to be a million, I'll always remember you for this."

THIS IS A WORLD WAR. The most terrible of all recorded events in human history.

And this is what the Wacs—the women soldiers of our Army—are doing about it:

- Working in control towers. Making strategy maps for invasion.
- Manning the giant switchboards that send combat orders winging to tensely waiting bomber crews.
- Working night and day at vital jobs. Jobs that will speed the day of liberation—and give us peace again.
- These are the women "they'll never forget"...
- Gallantly, a new page is being written into American history by the women of the Women's Army Corps.

Working as lip-readers. Helping blind men to see again through knowledge of Braille. Working as laboratory technicians. As pharmacists. As psychiatric assistants. As ambulance drivers.

We'll gladly send you information about joining the Women's Army Corps. Simply mail the coupon below. Or ask at your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station.
