

HOOVER GIVES DENUNCIATION OF NEW DEAL

CHICAGO, June 28 (AP)—Herbert Hoover was back in the political lists at 60 today after denouncing the most scathing denunciation of the democratic administration yet heard at the republican national convention.

In a "right until I die" speech, the only living former president told a cheering crowd of participants last night that only by an upsetting of the Roosevelt administration "will our returning to find freedom preserved at home."

The new deal, Hoover said, "forced shackles on the liberties of our people."

He declared the new deal "a milder form of tactics followed by European revolution, and that President Roosevelt, the man who beat him in 1932, appears to be indulging in 'power politics' and 'personal power diplomacy' in foreign affairs," "not a diplomacy of power."

Before he mounted the platform, Hoover told newspapermen:

"I'm going to stay in this fight until I die. The fight is for everything that is precious to the American people."

Boasting with apparent good health, Hoover ended speculation that he might not take an active part in this campaign. He left no doubt that he will be in the thick of the fight for a republican victory this November.

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

TULELAKE—Ensign Robert Lidel, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lidel, Tulelake, who took his commission at Columbia university, N. Y., has been home on furlough, prior to reporting for ship service at Seattle.

Ensign Lidel was one of 150 students of air-transportation chosen from a class of 1080 at Columbia to be sent to Ohio State university for advanced study and was one of three who graduated from the course. Prior to leaving Columbia he was made an instructor and will continue in that capacity at his new post.

Before entering the service he was studying pharmacy at the San Francisco medical school and lacked just four months of graduation. He graduated with the class of 1940 from the Tulelake high school, is just 21 years old and is the oldest son in the family.

'BLUFF FLEET' SENT TO COAST ON D-DAY

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—The allies sent a "bluff" fleet into the Calais-Boulogne area on D-Day to draw the German air force away from the actual beachheads on the Normandy coast, says Comdr. Anthony Kimmins, British naval intelligence officer.

Ships in the "diversion" fleet did not suffer much damage, he said yesterday in an interview with the New York Times.

Kimmins said he believed the Germans expected the invasion in the Calais-Boulogne section and added: "When the Germans' final defense plans are found, I think we will discover that they thought we were coming in there."

FDR to Approve Price Control Bill

WASHINGTON, June 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today he will approve recently passed legislation to extend the life of the price and stabilization acts.

The chief executive told his news conference the bill will be signed Saturday to place it in effect July 1, expiration date of the present law. He said he probably will have a statement at that time.

At today's conference, he did not go into the legislation which passed congress last week after administrationists won a compromise victory toning down amendments which price-officials and some others had denounced as inflationary.

FURLOUGH—Private Harold L. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Robertson of 535 Lincoln street, has been home on a 15 day furlough and left Tuesday, June 13, for Portland. Pvt. Robertson is a graduate of KUHS with the class of 1929 and received the Klamath award in athletics. He was president of the senior class and also of the H-Y.

He is stationed at Terminal 4 in Portland and is in the transportation corps. His duties are with the port air office and port engineers.

AN EIGHTH AAF FIGHTER STATION IN ENGLAND—It's a far cry from riding the range on horseback to riding the moors via truck for the U. S. army but that's what happened to PFC Donald Barkley of Sprague River. Donald is the only Klamath Indian on this P-47 Thunderbolt station. All his buddies call him "Chief."

The mess hall is about three miles from where the men live and work and the job that PFC Barkley holds down is driving his truck to and from the mess hall taking the men to eat and then back to work. It's a tire-some grind for the west coast Indian but he sees humor in it when he says, "It's like herding my cattle to their grazing lands." Donald owns a 160 acre ranch.

The former Sprague River high school student entered the army on August 16, 1942. He received basic training at Fresno, Calif. Then he attended transportation school at Chantute Field, Rontoul, Ill. He came to England in August, 1943.

The Klamath warrior and his wife, Mrs. Mary Barkley, have two children, Marie and Donald Jr. He is the son of Mrs. Effie Barkley of Sprague River and was also employed by the Crater Lake Lumber company. Back in Oregon, the "Chief's" main recreation was hunting deer, geese and ducks. The only thing he hunts over here is fresh eggs—a tough mission in itself.

As a result of passing the A-12 examination offered by the United States army, Bill Scharnschmidt, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Scharnschmidt of 715 Roseway drive, is now attending the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, where he is putting in eight hours of study daily and reports it is "good for a guy."

The training is part of the army specialized training program and he is studying civil engineering.

ENCROACHMENT ON FISHERIES TALKED

VICTORIA, B. C., June 28 (AP)—Resolutions urging action against encroachment on Canadian and American fisheries by other nationals, surveys of all salmon rivers before construction projects or hydro developments are permitted, and the formation of an international commission with control over salmon and other fish in the Fraser river basin were adopted at the concluding session of the Pacific Northwest Trade association here last night.

Delegates selected Bellingham, Wash., as the scene of the next association meeting in three months.

Also approved was a resolution urging the United States and Canadian governments to take specific steps toward greater freedom of commerce between the two countries.

Selling of Canned Goods to Government Authorized by OPA

WASHINGTON, June 28 (AP)—The office of price administration today authorized processors of canned vegetables to sell several varieties of this year's pack to the government at prices to be adjusted when ceiling prices are fixed.

The permission is intended to help the armed forces obtain immediate supplies of canned peas, snap beans, corn, tomatoes and tomato products.
