

LARGE NUMBER OF RIDERS TO CELEBRATE 4TH

One of the largest aggregations of organized mounted men and women ever seen here will be in Klamath Falls over the Fourth of July, to participate in Buckaroo Days celebration.

Among these will be Sheriff Ben Richardson's Siskiyou county posse, captained by Al Bryan; Sheriff Sidney I. Brown's Jackson county mounted posse, captained by George Field, Sheriff Henry Cassidy's Lake county posse, with Gordon Barry as lieutenant; the Rogue Troopers, Sheriff's riding club of Medford, captained by Mrs. Clarence Dodge; Klamath Saddle club, of which Mrs. Ernestine Read is president; and Sheriff Lloyd Low's Klamath posse, captained by E. P. Ivory.

Altogether, 124 horses and riders will be included in this great group. While here, the women will be guests of the Klamath Saddle club, other officers of which include Blanch Harmon, vice-president, and Maxine Cameron as secretary-treasurer.

The Klamath Saddle club will appear mounted in public for the first time, wearing their new uniforms. Two members have been chosen as chaperones to the Queen and her court, and the whole group will act as escorts during the parade at the Fairgrounds.

The men will be guests of the Klamath Sheriff's posse under Sheriff Lloyd Low and his deputy, Dale Mattoon. E. P. Ivory, captain of the Sheriff's posse, and Lt. Louis Serruys will handle the local organization and assist Marshall William Hooper of the Buckaroo Days committee in marshalling the organized contingent of horsemen.

The U. S. army can purchase two gas masks for the price of an $18.75 war bond.

Flashes of Life

WORTH FIGHTING FOR EAST HARTLAND, Conn.

What worried Gordon C. Wright most as he sped home on liberty after two years of naval service was that he would be too late for the strawberry season. Talking later about his first meal at home, he said: "Yes sir, I made it. And that strawberry shortcake was worth coming all the way from the South Pacific to get."

REPEATER OKLAHOMA CITY

An elderly man called at the Oklahoma county election board offices, asked Mrs. Ollie B. Roberts, stenographer, a question concerning registration and then told her: "I voted for William Howard Taft and haven't voted since, but I don't want to miss this election."

GONE BUT NOT, ETC. MIZPAH, Mont.

Heavy rainfall washed out the Mizpah bridge, but local residents are keeping track of it. They have notified downstream communities their bridge last was seen floating toward the Powder river and how was it getting along, please?

HOT RECEPTION, COOL SENDOFF CHICAGO

The republican national convention and Chicago's hottest weather in two years ended simultaneously last night.

Just as the GOP sessions concluded, a cool mass of air advanced to Lake Michigan, bringing relief to thousands after the three hottest days of the year.

On the opening day of the convention the mercury hit 95 degrees above; on Tuesday it touched 100—for a new season high and the warmest day in two years, while yesterday temperatures were 98.

Today, with most republicans homeward bound, an 80 degree reading was forecast.

DISCARD CHICAGO

Mrs. Madeline Wachtel, 25, a model, was granted a divorce from David Wachtel, 29, after she testified before Judge Joseph Sabath that her husband struck her. The reason, she said, was that she made a wrong play in a pinochle game.

MAN OF THE HOUR FRANKFORT, Ind., June 29

The man of the hour in Frankfort is Dewey Bricker. Bricker is a 37-year-old railroad employe.

SUPPLY HOUSE SOLD TO OSCAR REMBERT

Lee Smith and Sons, mill, logging and contractors supply house, has been sold to Oscar Rembert and associates. It was disclosed today. The new owners took possession on June 1.

Lee Smith and his son, Fred, had been in the business eight years at the same location, 330 South Seventh. Fred has been in the army since February, 1942. Smith is opening the same type of business in Eureka, Calif. The family will probably move to Eureka in the late summer.

Rembert was formerly with Cotwhit company here, and more recently has been with Moty and Van Dyke at Bend. The firm will have the name of Lee Smith and company.

EAGLE CONVENTION DECLARED SUCCESS

The streamlined 20th annual convention of Oregon Eagles which closed at The Dalles with the election and installation of state officers on Sunday afternoon, June 25, was one of the most successful in the history of the Oregon State Aerie, according to Klamath Eagles who attended.

The speakers called attention to the many post war problems that would confront the nation when the war was ended and expressed confidence in our de-termination and ability as individuals and a nation to solve those problems without any enduring hardships, when they were presented. Grand Worthy President Hanson suggested three objectives for Eagles to pursue in their post war planning. First, adequate training for under privileged children; second, pensions for aged in the form of social security for 20,000 Americans "who do not now come under the program by reason of occupation;" and third, jobs for returning servicemen and able bodied Americans.

Of special interest to local Angledom was the election of M. L. Shepherd, Klamath Falls, to the place of chaplain of the Oregon State Aerie and the adoption of legislation submitted by the local delegates.

A splendid program of continuous entertainment was arranged for the visitors by The Dalles Aerie. The Klamath delegation under Andy Meek, chairman, kept open house each night from 11 p. m. to 5 a. m. in the gold room of The Dalles hotel, for the pleasure of those delegates who were unable to find accommodations during the two day convention.

Dairy

W. M. (Jill) Adams under-ent an emergency operation for appendicitis in Hillsdale hospital on Saturday afternoon, June 24. Jill is the son-in-law of Mrs. Harry Kolb of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. James Luebke and son Bobby and daughter Barbara of Klaber, Wash., arrived here Friday, June 23, to visit with Mrs. Luebke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rueck, other relatives and old friends. They are former residents of this community.

Everyone is awfully glad to see Bud Fairco home again for a while. He arrived here on Wednesday, June 20, from an European war theater. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, of Pine Flat and sister and family, the Tony Steyskals of Malin.

Mrs. Edith Thatcher received medical attention in Klamath Falls on Saturday and visited with Marie Fraley on Ogden. Friends are glad to learn that Waldo Jones is recovering from his recent illness.

Friends of this community extend their most heartfelt and deepest sympathy to the Holz-houser family of Poe Valley in their recent sorrow.

Bank Allocates Bond Purchases To Klamath County

The Federal Land Bank of Spokane has allocated $17,000 in war bond purchases to Klamath county, H. E. Hamaker, secretary-treasurer of the Klamath Group National Farm Loan association, announced today. The land bank, which serves Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon, has invested $2,000,000 in bonds, of which $500,000 has been credited to each state. The state allocation, in turn, has been credited to each national farm loan association group office county on the basis of the number of land bank borrowers.

To a man who's handy with his hands

If you like mechanical work (even though you're not experienced), Southern Pacific has an opening for you that is well worth looking into. The Job: Helper in one of the fine crafts at the S. P. shops or roundhouse . . . working on locomotives or rolling stock. You'll see the "inside" of railroading . . . be in something big . . . find railroading more interesting than other work. Friendly people to work with . . . a chance to really learn a top craft with a fine outfit. Above all, a job with a permanent company — a job you'll like. Liberal age limits. New, higher wages. Railroad pass privileges. Fine pension plan. Medical services. Vacations with pay. Swell social activities. This is no fly-by-night opportunity. It's for a man who's sincere in wanting the right connection with the right outfit. If you join up with S. P., we're pretty sure you'll not regret it.

Brewing just as certain regions in the old world were favored spots for the production of fine beers, so does this great West provide every advantage to delight the brewer's heart. Here grow the world's choicest golden grains and the finest of aromatic hops. Here the purest of sparkling brewing waters are found. Beer is essentially a product of nature and nowhere has nature been more lavish in her gifts. As a result beers from this region are known and favored throughout the nation for their buoyant zest and golden refreshment. Where else in all the world can man find such varied resources at hand for all the good things of life as in this bountiful West?

Favored known and favored as one of America's outstanding beers is Sicks' Select—brewed in Oregon.
