

Episcopal Ceremony Read Saturday Night

Elsie Richins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Richins of Cartwright, Canada, and Chief Petty Officer Robert Robida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Robida of Niagara Falls, New York, were married in an Episcopal double ring ceremony at St. Paul's Episcopal church on Saturday evening, June 24.

The candlelight ceremony was read by the Reverend F. C. Wissenbach at eight o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by Dr. George Adler, was beautiful in a white satin gown with lace panels and a veil caught at the head with lilies of the valley. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and orchids.

Bridesmaid was Joyce Porterfield who wore a dress of pink tulle and carried a bouquet of delphinium and sweet peas.

The best man was Thomas Clark and W. A. Sindt and Lee Resin were ushers. They are all navy men stationed at the naval air station.

The little flower girl was Dianne Maestretti who wore a dress of pink and white and carried a hat full of summer flowers.

Lohengrin's wedding march was played for the ceremony by Mrs. Charles Scharfenstein on the church organ and Terry Johnson sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

After the wedding a reception was held at the Pelican party room. Mrs. Jo Maestretti, close friend of the bride, received with the bride and groom. Pouring was Mrs. Harry Jackman, assisted by Mary Ann Grafton. The table was centered by a wedding cake with crossed Canadian and American flags on top.

The young couple left after the reception for Crested Lodge where they spent their honeymoon. For going away the bride wore a silk suit of steel blue with brown accessories, and an orchid corsage.

The couple are now making their home at 119 South Seventh in Klamath Falls.

Bridal Shower

Joanne Garner was guest of honor at a linen shower given for her by Carmelita Sutton on Friday evening, June 23.

Joanne became the bride of Thomas "Nick" Nicholson on Monday, June 26.

Guests at the shower included Mrs. J. T. Garner, Lois Nelson, Dorothy O'Malley, LaVaughna Bridge, Kanre Hardin, Barbara Kvern, Eileen Bocchi, Alice Eastman, Dorothy Cassell and Mrs. Sutton.

Several invited guests unable to attend sent gifts.

Birthday

Roger Botens celebrated his fifth birthday this week with a lawn party. Cake and ice cream were served later in the afternoon.

Guests were Glen Persinger, Frankie Husted, Sandra Baker, Elaine Zimmerman, Joan Gerkin, Paul Stippich, Bobby Cutting, Mary Lou Kerr, Sharon Mathers, Amy Kerr, Virginia Lynne Larson, Michael Botens, David Stippich, Dean Baker, Dorothy Dorrell, Raymond Holliday and Thomas Dorrell.

Mothers there were Mrs. Virgil Stippich, Mrs. Dick Botens, Mrs. Floyd Larson, Mrs. Charles Kerr and Mrs. Lewis Botens.

Wedding

A quiet wedding was held before the altar of the Klamath Temple on Sunday, June 18, when Dorothy Dalrymple of Bend and Forrest Pitman of Helena, Montana, were married. The Reverend Daniel Anderson officiated.

Only close friends and relatives of the couple were present. Mrs. Pitman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Dalrymple of LaPine and the granddaughter of Mrs. Nellie Dalrymple of Mitchell street, Klamath Falls.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Tennesfoss on Owens street. The bride cut a large wedding cake.

Among those there for the reception were Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dalrymple of Klamath Falls, Francis Dalrymple, USN, brother of the bride and Alice Pearson of San Francisco.

At the present time, Mr. and Mrs. Pitman are making their home in Ashland.

Rebekahs

The social club of the Rebekahs met in the IOOF hall at 1:30 for dessert luncheon on Wednesday, June 28. Hostesses for the afternoon were Blanche Mutschbacher and Edith Ward.

During the business meeting, officers elected were Eva Richerson, president; Ora Sweet, vice president; Ruth Heidrich, secretary-treasurer.

Work is progressing on the Red Cross quilts.

The next meeting will be a potluck picnic at the home of Alma Cofer, 1017 High street on July 12. Alice Gowland and Nellie Wattenburg will be the hostesses. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

Picnic Dinner

The Junior Chamber of Commerce held a picnic dinner at Moore park on Monday evening, June 26. Bill Bratton, social director, was in charge of the entertainment and dinner.

Forty-two members and guests were present and this number included several navy men. Softball and horseshoe were played by the group.

Spending a few weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Foster of Jefferson street are Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hazzard and daughter Rosalie of Glendale, California.

Women volunteer workers are making news this week. At a nurses' aide capping ceremony, nine women were given their pins and caps. Above, they are, left to right, Mrs. J. C. Piland, Mrs. Harry Jackman, Mrs. Rae Horton, Mrs. Earl Weimar, Mrs. W. C. Milkey, Mrs. Stephen Walker, Mrs. Russell McCollum, Mrs. J. Miller Babcock, Mrs. J. E. Hawkins, assistant instructor, Mrs. Ray Oldenburg, instructor, and Mrs. Fred Jenkins.

At the right are shown volunteer workers at the bond booth on Main street. They are Mrs. Orth Sisemore, Mrs. W. E. Lamm, Mrs. George Davis, Lela Bravo, Mrs. Jean Porter, Mrs. Rollo Oakes and Mrs. Stephen Sabo.

Below is Mrs. Horace Getz, president of the Garden group, who is busy making miniature gardens for the Marine Barracks.

Musicians to Be Presented Tonight

Patricia Brown, accomplished young singer, and Madelon Adler, piano student of Mrs. E. D. Johnson, will be presented in concert by Mrs. A. J. Voye Saturday evening, July 1, at 8:30 at the First Presbyterian church.

Both young women are artists and a program of excellent music is in store for listeners.

- Marie Obenchain is accompanist. The program is as follows:
- Au Printemps.....Gounod
  - None But the Lonely Heart.....Tschaikowsky
  - A Winter Lullabye.....R. de Koven
  - Patricia Brown
  - Le Coucou.....Daguin
  - Eccosaies.....Beethoven
  - Madelon Adler
  - Voce Di Donna.....Ponchielli
  - Song to the Open.....LaForge
  - The Lord Has Given Me a Song.....Wise-Livingston
  - Patricia Brown
  - Wienertanze.....Gartner
  - Prelude in C Sharp Minor.....Rachmaninoff
  - Madelon Adler
  - Were My Songs With Wings Provided.....Kahn
  - Down in the Forest.....Ronald
  - To a Hill Top.....Cox
  - Patricia Brown

Honored

Mrs. Dale West of Merrill entertained at her home last Sunday evening with a Sunday night supper in honor of Mrs. Neil Black and Mrs. Robert Porter of Klamath Falls.

About eight guests attended the party and the rooms were decorated with wild flowers.

Stork Shower

A stork shower was given for Mrs. Lewis Botens Jr. of West Klamath on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Floyd Larson of 2325 California avenue. The room was decorated with lovely spring flowers.

Games were played during the evening before Mrs. Botens opened her many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were later served which consisted of Swedish pastry and coffee.

Those invited to the party were Marie Fitzgerald, Betty Stippich, Eileen Botens, Gertrude Bostwick, Helen Bostwick, Phyllis Larson, Elsie Hayden, Mrs. J. B. Fennell, Ocie Welch of John Day, Faye Orling, Mary Ellen Hotchkins, Irene Wilkinson, Ellen Fitzgerald, Magie and Effie Botens, and the hostess, Marjean Larson.

Picnic Breakfast

A picnic breakfast at Moore park on Sunday, July 9, at 9 o'clock will open the new fiscal year for the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club and Norma Miller, the new president, will preside "at the range" from which will come food "fit for a king."

WAVES at the naval air station who were unable to attend the June picnic supper will be special guests on this occasion, so all members of the club attending are requested to bring service for herself and one guest, including a small fruit juice glass.

Transportation will be provided to those without cars and they are asked to be at the Winema hotel between 8:30 and 9 o'clock.

Reservations for the breakfast must be made with Jacquelin Newcom, 4895, not later than Friday, July 7. There will be a minimum charge.

Navy Wives

Navy Wives were hostesses Thursday afternoon at a bridge and bingo party for navy and marine wives in Klamath Falls.

The party was given at the Officers club at one o'clock.

Mrs. Bert Schultz and daughters Barbara and Marjorie returned Thursday from San Jose where they have been for the past week. Barbara has just completed her first year at San Jose State college and Mrs. Schultz and Marjorie went down to accompany her home.

Joanne Garner Marries Monday

Joanne Garner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Garner of this city, became the bride of Tom C. Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nicholson of Seattle, in a ceremony read at the Garner home on Alameda street on Monday evening, June 26.

The candlelight ceremony was read at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Reverend Daniel B. Anderson before an altar banked with white stock and pink and yellow snapdragons.

The bride was attended by her sister, Janice, who came from Portland for the wedding, and by Carmelita Sutton.

Joanne wore a light blue suit with white accessories and gardenias. Janice, as maid of honor, wore a rose pink suit and Carmelita wore a suit of yellow. Both carried arm bouquets of sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Garner home for a few friends and close relatives. The table was centered with a large wedding cake and the table was decorated with sweet peas and ferns.

Out of town visitors for the wedding were Mrs. Blanche Bruner of Portland, grandmother of the bride, and Janice Garner, also of Portland.

The young people are now making their home at 1304 Wenden.

The bride is a student at Klamath Union high school and active in student affairs. The groom is stationed at the Klamath naval air station.

Sojourners

The Sojourners met on Wednesday, June 28, at the Willard hotel for a luncheon and meeting. Mrs. Matt Finnegan and Mrs. Don Rice were hostesses for the afternoon. Twenty-seven members and guests were present.

Guests included Mrs. John Hune of Portland and Mrs. R. A. Webber of Berkeley, California. Mrs. Matt Finnegan, president, presided at the business meeting at which time committees for the next six months were named. They are as follows: Mrs. Glenn Jones, hostess; Mrs. S. B. Hopkins, hospitality; Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, calling; Mrs. Greer Glascoe, historian; Mrs. Joseph L. Mitchell, publicity; and Mrs. Don Rice, Red Cross.

Mrs. Wilbur Shannon was named chairman for the annual steak fry for husbands and members of Sojourners. Plans for the affair which will be held in July will be made at the next meeting.

Prizes of war stamps were awarded to Mrs. Louis C. Sauer, Mrs. Greer Glascoe and Mrs. Ernest J. Howell.

The next meeting will be held at the Willard hotel on July 12. All newcomers to Klamath Falls are welcome.

Complimented

Mrs. Neil Black was honored at a party given for her Saturday evening by Mrs. A. O. Roenicke at the Roenicke home on Portland street.

Guests invited were Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. William Prentiss, Mrs. Fred Farley, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. Stanley Woodruff and Mrs. Neal Stewart.

WED RECENTLY

Mrs. Robert Robida was Elsie Richins before her wedding in the Episcopal church last Saturday evening.

MARRIES

Reatha Ball became the bride of John Krizo recently. The couple are now living in Merrill.

—Kennel Ellis