

Reatha Ball Wed In June Ceremony

MERRILL — Reatha Lois Ball of Merrill, granddaughter of Mrs. Lucy Gardner of Klamath Falls, and John Krizo of Malin were married in a simple ceremony on Monday, June 19, by the Reverend Victor Phillips, pastor of the First Methodist church in Klamath Falls.

The bride was lovely in a wedding dress of white satin with her veil beaded in white. Attendants were the brother and sister of the groom, Frank Krizo and Martha Krizo. Only immediate relatives of the young couple were present.

After the ceremony, a wedding supper was held in the blue room of the Willard hotel where the bride and groom cut a beautiful wedding cake. Friends who attended were Mrs. Gardner, Martha Krizo, Marian Kandra, Mrs. Roy Hessebauer, Mrs. Katherine Isensee, and Frank Krizo.

Mr. and Mrs. Krizo are now making their home in Merrill. The bride has been employed recently in the Merrill branch of the First National Bank of Portland and the groom is engaged in farming in the Merrill and Tulelake communities.

Social Calendar

Friday, July 7
Regular meeting of Eastern Star Social club to be held at Masonic temple, Klamath avenue. Hostess committee to be announced later.

Sunday, July 9
Picnic breakfast to be given by BPW club at Moore park, 9 a. m. Make reservations by telephoning Jacquelin Newcom, 4895, not later than Friday, July 7.

Wednesday, July 12
Sojourners will meet at the Willard hotel for luncheon meeting. Newcomers to the city are welcome.

The Rebekah Social club will have a potluck picnic at the home of Alma Cofer, 1017 High street. Guests are to bring their own table service.

Neighbors

The meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, held in the IOOF hall Monday evening, June 19, was a very interesting one. Minerva Coddling, grand advisor of the national Neighbors of Woodcraft, was present and gave a talk on her work. She is making a tour of the nine western states in the interests of organization.

Committee for the evening was composed of Dickay Weed and Alta Clark. A washcloth shower was given to Rose Eberman, and following the meeting, bingo was played, with a potluck supper later in the evening.

There will be no meeting July 3, but at the next meeting, July 17, members who have had birthdays during April, May and June will be the guests of honor at a birthday party, with the other members entertaining.

Camp Fire Girls

On Tuesday, June 20, the Sugar-gl-hoose-kungs Camp Fire Girls entertained with a party in the basement of the First Methodist church in Chiloquin. Several interesting new games and tricks were introduced by Gaynel Hanlan assisted by Juanita Buck and Patricia Hanlan.

At the close of the evening Gaynel Hanlan favored the group with two songs. She was ably introduced over the "mike" by Bill Floyd.

Those attending were Mary Pat Monks, Bonnie Mae Gienger, Mary Alice Blocklinger, Lila Porter, Georgia Wade, Elene Pohl, Norma Lee Gienger, Rose Marie Floyd, Patricia Hanlan, Marie Joyce DuBois, Lorraine Graybill, Gaynel Hanlan, Georgel Priebe, Juanita Buck, Bill Pohl, Bill Floyd, Elmora Nicholson, Gaylor Hatcher, Duane Matt, Harold Muncie, Dick Flury and Kenneth Luderman. Mrs. Hanlan and Mrs. Geinger acted as chaperones.

ANNAPOLIS WEDDING CEREMONY

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Nelson are shown after their marriage at Annapolis in mid-June. She is the former Barbara Johnson of this city, and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson. They are making their home in Florida at the present time.

Rebekahs Honor Two at Reception

Alma Cofer, conductor of the Rebekah assembly, and Henry Anderson, grand patriarch militant of Oregon, were honored at a reception given for them Friday evening by the Prosperity Rebekah lodge. About 200 guests attended.

Special guests were Ralph L. Russell, grand master of the IOOF of Oregon, and George W. Dimmick, grand conductor of the IOOF of Oregon.

Mary Curtis, noble grand, called the meeting to order after the flag had been presented by Eva Richardson, marshal. Charlotte Martin, past president of the ladies auxiliary of Oregon was introduced as the chairman of the evening.

She in turn introduced the officers present. They were Henry Anderson, grand patriarch; Alma Cofer, assembly conductor; O. J. Harris, grand marshal of encampment; Mae Anderson, color sergeant of ladies auxiliary; patriot militant; Nellie Wattenburg, past president of Rebekah assembly of Oregon; Hazel McNeil, D. D. of Merrill; and Kate Hogue, D. D. of Prosperity 104.

Their escorts were Ivy Propst, Ada Willis, Irene Markham, Alice Goeller, Jennie Hurn, Ruth Heidrick, and Anna Funk.

The program was as follows: Vocal solo by Mr. Sandefur, accompanied by Mrs. Nyback. Louise Barnhart, piano solo. Mary Lou Van Riper, cello solo, accompanied by Mrs. Don Zumwalt.

The Mahoney sisters, vocal numbers. Thelma Dunn, accompanist. Marion Sexton, vocal solo. Mary Lou Van Riper, cello solo.

Mr. Raul, vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. Moore. Mary Louise Sexton, vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. Zumwalt.

John Carter, vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. Zumwalt. Mrs. Schnebeck, vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. Wendell Smith.

Remarks by Ralph L. Russell, Henry Anderson, Alma Cofer, George Dimmick, O. J. Anderson, and Mae Anderson. Later refreshments were served by Mrs. Laura Uerlings and Alice Goeller, charter members of the Prosperity lodge. The lace-covered table was centered with Cambridge crystal candelabra and roses.

Among the guests were Mrs. Ralph L. Russell, Mrs. George W. Dimmick and Mrs. N. Thompson of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger of Payette, Idaho. The auditorium was profusely decorated with early summer flowers.

Mrs. Twyla Ferguson had as her guests at her cabin at Lake o' the Woods last weekend, Lieutenant and Mrs. John Fenst and Lieutenant and Mrs. Ralph Traubell of the naval air station. She is also one of the many Klamath folks who is entertaining at her cabin this weekend for members of the armed forces.

Marines Feted

The members of the Thursday club of Mt. Laki and their husbands honored 12 marines from the local Marine Barracks with a picnic Sunday at the fish hatchery.

A picnic dinner was served by the hostesses at 12:30 after which a pleasant afternoon was spent getting acquainted. Many of the group played baseball and volleyball.

Those present were PFC John W. Clarke, PFC Johnnie C. Kohut, PFC Oliver J. Posey, PFC Harold W. Hayden, Cpl. Leo H. Grenier, PFC James R. Jarrell, Cpl. James C. Dulin, PFC Jerry O'Brien, PFC Robert W. Regan, PFC Stephen R. Powaznik, PFC Donald Dilascio, PFC Junest J. Domanque, Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall and children, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Jackson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Buford Kaylor and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Breithaupt, Mr. and Mrs. Gray Brannon and Fay, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Kaylor and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Thompson and Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cheyne and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLap Jr., and children, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Enman and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill and children.

CONDUCTOR OF ASSEMBLY

Mrs. Alma Cofer was one of those honored Friday night at a reception given for her and Henry Anderson, grand patriarch militant of Oregon, by the Prosperity Rebekah lodge.

—Kennell-Ellis

Lecture Series

A series of lecture programs sponsored by the League of Women Voters in connection with the lectures being given to the Junior Hostesses and Commandoes will be started on July 10.

Lectures will be given for the benefit of mothers of the younger group of girls, women interested in girls, or anyone interested in doing work with servicemen. They will be given at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of the day that the series for the girls will be given.

The same speakers will be featured but their topics will be different although of similar subject matter. Speakers will appear in the Little Theater of the high school.

Scheduled topics are as follows:

July 10, Dr. Weinrill, speaking on "The Family in the World at War."

July 17, Dr. O. R. Chambers, "Do Adolescents Need Parents?"

July 24, Dr. Lowell Coggeshall, "The Service Man and His Recreation."

July 31, Mrs. George Moorhead and Dr. Weinrill, "The Value of Health in Wartime."

August 7, Dr. Lawrence Bee, "The Family of Tomorrow."

The first of the talks for the girls was given this last Monday evening at the high school with Mrs. George Moorhead, field secretary of the E. C. Brown trust division of social hygiene at the University of Oregon Medical school, speaking on "Do You Know What Most Girls Want Out of Life?"

Pinochle Club

Ye Olde Pinochle club met on Thursday, June 29, with Nona Hall at her home at 915 East Main, and a salad luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock to Fannie Goddard, Melva Danielson, Maggie Upton, Violet Vance, Agnace Lowe, Grace Bock, Kathryn Billings, and the hostess. High score was held by Nona Hall, second by Fannie Goddard, low by Kathryn Billings, and pinochle award by Maggie Upton. Melva Danielson's birthday was observed as it fell during the month. The next meeting will be with Violet Vance on Shasta way.

Visiting Here

Visiting here for the past two weeks from Portland have been Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stone, who have been staying with Bob's mother, Mrs. Alice Stone.

The young couple were married in April and she is the former Margaret Lawrence of Portland. Both were students at Roosevelt high school in Portland.

Bob attended Klamath Union high school for two years before he moved to the northern city. He left for duty with the navy on June 28.

Surprise Party

Mrs. Eileen Evens was honored with a surprise birthday party on Monday, June 26, at her home in the Malin district.

Those honoring Mrs. Evens were Alva Smally, Effie Johnson, Emma Marelock, Bessie Aubrey West and Des Brathanek.

Mrs. Evens received many lovely gifts from the group and later refreshments were served.

Chaplain Crothers Soroptimist Guest

Chaplain S. D. Crothers of the Marine Barracks was the guest speaker at the Soroptimists' luncheon meeting on Thursday at the Pelican party room. Chaplain Crothers delighted his audience with his account of his first crossing of the equator and the initiation ceremony given the "Pollywogs," the name for those crossing for the first time.

Chaplain Crothers was first stationed at New Caledonia and next at Guadalcanal, he informed the group. The beauty of the coral lagoons was vividly described by him as were the land snakes and the poisonous coral.

The marvelous job the Seabees have done in roadbuilding in the jungles was told. The slogan of the Seabees, according to Chaplain Crothers, is "We can do the possible in a day, but the impossible takes a couple of days longer."

Olive Cornett, defense chairman, announced that Soroptimists had purchased $15,125 of E bonds during the fifth war loan drive.

Kathleen Thompson made an announcement for the Klamath Falls hospitality committee urging Soroptimists to invite members of the armed services into their homes for dinner or to the rodeo during the Fourth of July holidays.

Announcement of the installation of a new Soroptimists club at Bremerton, Washington, on June 30, was made. This will be the twenty-fifth club in the Northwest region and will make the number of clubs in the American Federation of Soroptimist clubs reach 186.

Guests at the luncheon Thursday were Nancy Gaylor, Alma Penrod Thompson, WAVE 1/c, and Betty Champagne.

VFW Auxiliary

At the meeting of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, held in the library clubroom Thursday evening, June 29, excellent reports were given by delegates and alternates who attended the state encampment in Portland earlier in the month.

Mrs. Carl Henry reported upon the memorial services, Mrs. John Mullins upon the opening session of the auxiliary, Mrs. Orville Lohrey covered the women's memorial service, Mrs. Frank Subject gave a report of the Sunday meeting and the election of state officers, Mrs. A. A. Myers told of the joint session with the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Mrs. H. J. McGilvray summarized the whole assembly.

Mrs. Carl Henry was elected to serve as junior vice president, and Mrs. W. A. Barron was appointed to serve as rehabilitation chairman and patriotic instructor. A letter was read from J. M. Brocktrup, district commander of the state, thanking the auxiliary for its cooperation in the poppy sales in May. This organization sold one-third of all the poppies sold in the state.

At the close of the meeting the auxiliary served sandwiches and coffee to the members of the post. The next meeting will be held July 6.

Phyllis Foster, Spanish teacher at the high school, left Thursday night for Oakland where she will attend the summer session at Mills college. She will be taking the Casa Pan Americana course which offers advanced Spanish and Portuguese language training.

Billee Snider, 1821 Lancaster, was hostess to the Merry Mixers on Thursday evening, June 29. Those attending were Jo Paup, Eleanor Curtis, the hostess, and one guest, Mrs. Edna Randolph. Mrs. Snider's mother, Tripoley was played and Ruth Anderson held high score and Jo Paup second. It was voted that the next meeting, on July 6, should be a theatre party.

Phyllis Foster, Spanish teacher at the high school, left Thursday night for Oakland where she will attend the summer session at Mills college. She will be taking the Casa Pan Americana course which offers advanced Spanish and Portuguese language training.

Officers Elected

New officers for the American Legion auxiliary were elected for the coming year at a meeting held on June 20. Mrs. Lenore Gallagher is the new president, Mrs. Florence Ogle, first vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Peterstainer, second vice president, Mrs. Martha McCullum, secretary and Mrs. Peggy Browning, treasurer.

Installation will be held at the Legion Memorial hall on July 18.

Delegates to the State convention at Portland on August 10, 11 and 12, are Mrs. Arlene Schubert, Mrs. Lina Moteschenbacher, Mrs. Lenore Gallagher and Mrs. Martha McCullum.

The Legion and the Legion auxiliary will entertain 20 service men and the rodeo queen and her court at a potluck dinner on July 4 at 6 o'clock at the Legion hall. All members are invited and for more information, they can call 6158.

Happy Hour Club

Mrs. Harry Richardson was hostess to the Happy Hour club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on South Riverside.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Paul Johnson of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Alice Goeller. Members attending were Mrs. Anna Funk, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. George Blehn, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. C. C. Hedrick, Mrs. R. G. Moteschenbacher, Mrs. Dayton Barnhart and the hostess. Plans for the next meeting will be announced later.

Flowers
Gaston's
Flower Shop
724 Pine Ph. 5560

Baby's First Birthday

... is a once-in-a-lifetime event!

So be sure to have EVERGREEN PORTRAITS made for the occasion. As the years speed by you will count among your dearest possessions these mementoes of your child's life.

Bring baby in for this most important portrait. And let this picture be the first of a Birthday Series by

Evergreen
STUDIOS
"PORTRAITS OF DISTINCTION"
737 Main Phone 7240
Across the street from United States National Bank

In order to give our staff their annual vacation all at one time this year, La Pointe's store will be

CLOSED

From
Monday Morning, July 3,
Until
Tuesday Morning, July 11

