

Delegates Report At OES Meeting

Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson, Mrs. Will Wood and Mrs. Wallace Uerling, delegates to the grand lodge of the Order of the Eastern Star for Oregon, made their reports to Aloha chapter No. 81, at the regular meeting held Tuesday evening in the Masonic temple, Klamath avenue.

The grand lodge convened in Portland June 12 to 15, in the Masonic temple. Interesting reports of different phases of the sessions were given by the delegates. Dr. June Martin, Marshfield, retiring worthy grand matron of the order for Oregon, reported $8000 contributed by Oregon members of the order for the purchase of two Red Cross ambulances and one station wagon to be used in the war effort.

At the Tuesday evening meeting, degrees of the order were conferred upon Mrs. Blanch Marks, Mrs. Janie Voight, Mrs. Elsie Ryan, and Mr. Joe Rosser. Mrs. Voight was a courtesy initiate from Boise, Idaho. Lela from the chapter, carrying the colors of the star points, were placed around the neck of each initiate at the close of the ceremony.

Mrs. Howard Liston, associate conductress, was escorted to the east and honored because of her two years' service as council for Jobs Daughters, and who has now been elected grand junior custodian of Jobs Daughters for Oregon.

Mrs. Will Wood, associate matron, presented to Mrs. Dickson a collection of birthday handkerchiefs from her officers. Mrs. Clara Sherman, president of the Eastern Star Social club, in behalf of the club, presented to Aloha chapter, $50 in money and two $25 war bonds.

During the social hour, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Getz, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wood, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dickson, Mrs. Wallace Uerling and Mr. Earl Palmer presented a gay nineties dancing skit, dressed in costumes belonging to that period. This feature was thoroughly enjoyed by the 65 members present.

Out-of-state visitors were Margaret Terry, past matron, Silver Wave chapter No. 18, Tillamook; Mattie Roberts, Edith chapter, No. 61, Yampa, Colorado, and Maude Plyler, Roseburg chapter, No. 8, Roseburg.

Hostesses for the evening were Irene Markham, Vera Linkenback and Ruby Kenyon. Bowls of roses and columbine were used in decorating the rooms and buffet table. Watermelon was served by the committee.

Chapter adjourned for July and August as is customary, and will meet again the second Tuesday in September.

Arriving Friday to spend the summer months with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers at their home on Pacific Terrace, was Mrs. Mellette James Jennings of San Francisco. Mrs. Jennings was formerly a resident of this city and later of Honolulu.
