

Sports Briefs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—Major "Cac" Hubbard, former Denver university coach who became a member of the football rules committee just before he entered the army, agrees with Col. Bill Bingham that the committee shouldn't meet again until after the war, but he has some very definite ideas as to what should be done then...

MONDAY MATINEE The Chattanooga Lookouts played doubleheaders at home before crowds of 423 and 650, but 14,000 turned out for a bond rally-ball game against the Camp Campbell team...

A MAN'S WHISKEY Lansdowne Reserve advertisement featuring a bottle of whiskey and a glass.

Goodyear Service Store advertisement: Now Open For Business in New Larger Store EIGHTH and KLAMATH Pelican Theatre Bldg.

Barclay's Private Stock Straight RYE Whiskey advertisement with a bottle and glass illustration.

Tex Hughson Wins 12 to Top Hurlers

Righthander Blanks Boston to Red Sox; Cards Drop Dodgers Twice

Associated Press Sports Writer Cecil (Tex) Hughson, towering Texan twirler of the Boston Red Sox, is travelling at a faster pace than he did in his record-breaking year of 1942 when he won 22 and lost six to lead American league pitchers.

Hughson, beaten only three times has pitched 128 innings and has gone the route 12 times in 15 starts. His 62 strikeouts is a better average than his 113 whiffs which led the loop in '42.

Cleveland won two games from Washington, 4-3, 10 innings, and 6-3. Ken Keltner got seven hits in eight at bat, including a homer. His 10th inning single scored Lou Boudreau with the winning run in the opener.

Detroit and Philadelphia swapped shutouts. The Tigers, behind Dizzy Trout's eight-hit pitching, took the first 8-0, and the Athletics the nightcap, 2-0, behind Jesse Flores' four-hit twirling.

The Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies got an even break in their two games, Chicago winning the first 8-1, with Bob Chinman diving for five hits, and the Phillies taking the second, 4-2, behind Ken Raffensberger.

Nate Andrews pitched the Boston Braves to a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh in the first game, but the second was halted by Pennsylvania's 6:50 curfew after eight innings, with the score tied at 5-5.

N. L. Picks All-Star Squad Minus Tobin

Veteran No-Hitter Left Off National Team; Cards Lead Others With Six

NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—Jim "No Hits, No Nothing" Tobin today qualified as the forgotten man of 1944 as the National league announced its 25-man all-star team to play the pick of the American in Pittsburgh's Forbes field on the night of July 11 but failed to name the veteran knuckle-baller who pitched two no-hit games.

Six members of the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals were selected by the eight National managers who overlooked Tobin, along with such brilliant performers as Mort Cooper and Ray Sanders of the Cards, Tommy Holmes of the Braves, Phil Weintraub and Bill Voiselle of the Giants and French Bordagaray of the Dodgers.

Cincinnati placed four men on the squad that Billy Southworth as pennant-winning manager will boss. Pittsburgh, Chicago, Boston and Brooklyn each grabbed three spots, New York two and the Phillies one only.

Fourteen members of the 1943 club that bowed to the Yank American stars, 5-3, in Philadelphia, were picked with seven newcomers and four who returned to duty after an absence of a year or two.

With Martin Marion of the Cards and Eddie Miller of the Reds on the list, Southworth will have no shortstop worries and he has Whitey Kurowski of his own club and Bob Elliott of the Pirates for third base. Frank McCormick of the Reds, named for the seventh time, and Phil Cavarretta of the Cubs, are his first sackers with Rookie Don Johnson of the Cubs and Connie Ryan of the Braves, both making their all-star bows, available for the keystone spot.

George Munger of the Cards was voted to the star club although he is slated to be inducted into the service in St. Louis the day of the game. It was the first time for Munger but the sixth pick for Bucky Walters of the Reds, who has missed only 1938 and 1943. Rip Sewell of the Pirates, Max Lanier of the Cards and Al Javery of the Braves were selected for second-time duty. Ken Raffensberger of the Phils and Nate Andrews of the Braves round out the mound staff.

Walker Cooper of the Cards, Mickey Owen of the Dodgers, and Cincinnati's Ray Mueller, make up the catching department.

Dixie Walker of the Dodgers and Stan Musial of the Cards, who are engaged in a real scrap for the hitting crown, drew two of the seven outfield spots.

Mel Ott of the Giants who missed only 1935, for the first year, will become the real veteran of the game by playing for the 12th time and teammate Joe Medwick will play his 10th for the National. Bill Nicholson of the Cubs, Augie Galan of the Dodgers and Vince Di Maggio of the Pirates, who holds the classic's only 1,000 batting average on his 3 for 3 year ago, complete the outfield list.

Americans Name Top All-Stars For Game

Tigers, Indians, Senators Lead With Four Apiece

By JERRY LISKA CHICAGO, July 3 (AP)—The American league's third wartime all-star aggregation—without Detroit, Cleveland and Washington—making the largest contribution, four players each—stands nominated for the 12th annual tangle with the pick of the National league at Pittsburgh July 11.

The 25-player squad announced yesterday by League President William Harridge also included three players each from St. Louis, Boston and New York, and two players apiece from Chicago and Philadelphia.

All of which indicates the junior circuit's eight pilots who did the picking patterned their balloting on the loop's current standings.

Although the Yankees, who once supplied the heavy artillery of the all-star contest, this year merely contributed battery material—Pitchers Hank Borowy and Joe Page, and Catcher Rollie Hemsley—Joe McCarthy of the world champions was named to pilot the American leaguers for the seventh time since 1936.

McCarthy, whose reign at the all-star helm was interrupted only in 1940 and 1941 when Joe Cronin of Boston and Del Baker of Detroit respectively had charge, led his league to a 5-3 triumph last year.

Nominations by clubs: Detroit—Pitchers Harold Newhouse and Paul Trout, Third Baseman Pinky Higgins and First Baseman Rudy York.

Cleveland—Shortstop Lou Boudreau, Outfielders Roy Cullenbine and Oris Hockett, and Third Baseman Ken Keltner.

Washington—Outfielders George Case and Stanley Spencer, Catcher Richard Ferrell and Pitcher Emil Leonard.

New York—Pitchers Henry Borowy and Joseph Page and Catcher Rollie Hemsley.

Boston—Second Baseman Robert Doerr, Pitcher Cecil Hughson and Outfielder Robert Johnson.

St. Louis—First Baseman George McQuinn, Pitcher Robert Muncrief and Shortstop Vernon Stephens.

Seals Keep Slim Lead Over Pack

Oakland Meets Frisco in Crucial Series; Bevos Lose Three During Weekend

By The Associated Press The San Francisco Seals clung to a slim half-game lead in the Pacific Coast Baseball league today but they face a battle to retain that position this week as they meet the tough Oakland Acons, who have won their last four series.

The Seals lost the lead Saturday but regained it yesterday with a 9 to 14 win over the San Diego Padres followed by a 3-0 all tie while the Acons were drubbing Portland, 7 to 1 and 2 to 1.

The tie game at San Diego resulted when officials called the contest during the eighth inning at the agreed time of 5:45 to permit the Padres to catch a train. The Seals were leading, 5 to 3, but the score reverted to the seventh inning tally.

Oakland easily won the opener of its doubleheader with the Beavers but was forced to go 10 innings to win the scheduled seven-inning affair.

Seattle also won a double bill with Los Angeles, making it three in a row and dumping the Angels from a tie for third to seventh position over the weekend. The Rainiers took the 10-inning opener, 4 to 2, and the nightcap, 4 to 0.

The Sacramento Solons winning the opener, 3 to 0, behind the four-hit pitching of Guy Fletcher while the Stars pulled the nightcap out of the fire with two runs in the seventh frame for a 2 to 1 win.

Saturday's scores: San Diego 4, San Francisco 1; Oakland 4, Portland 1; Seattle 10, Los Angeles 1, and Hollywood 5, Sacramento 4.

In addition to the Seals-Oakland series this week, San Diego will play at Sacramento, Seattle at Portland and Los Angeles at Hollywood. All teams will open tomorrow with doubleheaders.

Hogan Meets Jug In Link Playoff

CHICAGO, July 3 (AP)—Lieut. Ben Hogan, determined to make a successful comeback in tournament golf after a recess of almost two years, and Jug McSpaden, the leading money winner of the season, met today in an 18-hole playoff for the Chicago Victory national championship.

In one of the most amazing finishes in golf history, McSpaden yesterday overcame a five-stroke deficit on the last nine holes by shooting five birdies to tie Hogan at the end of the regular 72-hole tournament with 173—11 strokes under par.

Today the winner will get $3000 in war bonds plus a certain percentage of the total gate in added cash. The loser will take a second prize of $1750 in bonds plus some extra folding money.

Champs Meet In Wrestling Main Event

This week's armory wrestling card pits two light-heavyweight champions against each other. Herb Parks, holder of the Canadian title, will meet Paavo Katonen, Pacific coast champion, in the main event.

The card was announced by Mack Lillard today and he said the finale should especially please those who like scientific wrestling, as both boys are experts at clean grappling.

For those who like blood and thunder, Lillard has arranged to have Gorgeous George Wagner tangle with Buck Lipscomb, who is a toughy on his own part.

The opener pits Big Davidson, the ex-marine, against Billy McEwin, in an evenly matched bout.

THE STANDINGS

Table with columns for League, Team, W, L, Pct. American League and National League.

SERVICE DEPT.

Lieut. Roger Terwilliger, 1942 national decathlon champion, recently made the highest score in physical fitness tests ever recorded at Pampa, Tex., army air field...

Reames Link-Men Lick Par

Old Man Par took a bad licking over the weekend at the Reames Golf and Country club.

Several linkmen burned up the tough Reames course in the first round of the Cascade-Wonderland medal play.

Tarr and Becken were tied for the lead with a two under par 142 for the 36 holes. Tarr shot a 70-72 for his score, and Becken shot a 75 and then a 5-under-par 67 to make his total.

Close behind the leaders were Eddie Simmons of Medford, who carded a 78-68 for 146, and Bill Hugelstein, who shot a 72-75 for a 147.

Knotted in a three-way tie for fourth were Johnny West with a 78-75 for 153, Corporal Leal, who carded a 74-79 for 153, and Martin Swanson with 79-74 for 153.

Still in the running was Ted Medford, who shot a 76-78 for a total of 154.

If it's a "frozen" article you need, advertise for a used one in the classified.

RAINBOW advertisement: LAST DAY Waterfront with J. CARROLL NASH, JESSIE JAMES JR., DON RED BARRY. Tuesday WHAT A WOMAN with RUSSELL AHERNE, WILLARD PARKER, ALAN DINEHART, EDWARD FIELDING, ANN SAVAGE.

ESQUIRE Tower advertisement: Telephone 4567. Box Office Opens 1:30 - 6:45 P. M. AT BOTH THEATRES HURRY! 3 More BIG DAYS tin Swanson with 79-74 for 153. Still in the running was Ted Medford, who shot a 76-78 for a total of 154.

SHOW BUSINESS advertisement: TUNEFUL! SPOONFUL! Gaiety Galore...Gals Gal-orious! Perfect entertainment from a perfect cast!

PELICAN advertisement: ENDS WEDNESDAY SONG OF THE OPEN ROAD with EDGAR BERGEN, CHARLIE MCCARTHY, BONITA GRANVILLE, W. C. FIELDS, SAMMY KAYE, JANE POWELL.

ESQUIRE Tower advertisement: HURRY! 3 More BIG DAYS. TUNEFUL! SPOONFUL! Gaiety Galore...Gals Gal-orious! SHOW BUSINESS. Perfect entertainment from a perfect cast!