Mrs. Peltz Honored At Tea Recently

Honored at a tea this past week was Mrs. H. E. Peltz, recently of the Audley apartments, who left Thursday to make her home in Ashland with her husband.

Mrs. L. D. Gass and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable entertained at the Gass home on North Third street for Mrs. Peltz from three until five.

Pouring at the tea table were Mrs. Glen Kent, Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps and Mrs. Mae Balsiger. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Tom Thorne, Mrs. Harry Wortley, Mrs. Holly Monroe, and Mrs. W. I. Tingley. The tea table was charming with a centerpiece of pink roses and pink candles.

Those complimenting Mrs. Peltz were Mrs. Glen Kent, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. Mae Balsiger, Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, Mrs. Alfreda Steinmetz, Mrs. George Lindley, Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. J. K. Reno, Mrs. Katherine Casper, Mrs. A. Skinner, Mrs. Harry Wortley, Mrs. W. T. Withrow, Mrs. Tom Thorne, Mrs. Holly Monroe, Mrs. Blanche Brannan, Mrs. L. Haynes, Mrs. John Yador, Mrs. H. S. Wood, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Betty Norris, Mrs. Ruby Kenyon, Mrs. Earl Temple, Mrs. Ed. Drake, Mrs. M. A. Fry, Mrs. Phyllis Hogan, Janice Barnstable, and the two hostesses.

The Peltz family has made a host of friends during their 39 years residence here and will be missed in civic, social and church circles, where they have been active.

Their home in Ashland will be at 476 Beach street.

Young Women

Second in a series of six lectures will be given for Junior Hostesses, Cadettes of Tulalake, Commandos and any other interested girls between 16 and 24 this coming Monday evening at 7:30 in the Little Theater of the high school.

Speaker for this lecture will be Dr. Adolph Weinzirl, professor of public health and preventive medicine at the University of Oregon Medical School, and also director of the E. C. Brown trust division of Social Hygiene education at the medical school.

Topic for the evening will be "Do You Know That Happiness Lies Within Yourself?"

Dr. Weinzirl will speak on Monday afternoon to a group of older women interested in the entertainment of servicemen.

Returning last Sunday to his station in South Carolina was Corporal Warren W. Walker of Merrill. Mr. and Mrs. Walker, (she is the former Audrey Reed) enjoyed many gatherings during Corporal Walker's stay here.

One of the events was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker of Merrill, where many friends greeted the young couple.

Soroptimists

At their luncheon meeting on Thursday, the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club began a new promising year with the installation of officers who will carry on the work of this civic club.

President Catherine Brumbaugh, who has already been honored by the Soroptimist northwestern regional conference with the adoption of her program plans for the year, will have as her associates, Kathleen Thompson, first vice president; Alice Howard, second vice president; Doris Peyton, recording secretary; Margaret Wherland, treasurer; Lillian Hillis, corresponding secretary; and directors Rose Poole, Pearl Drew and Gertrude Moore.

The club was happy to interrupt its business meeting long enough to greet Aviation Machinist Mate 3/c Beverley Reed, who leaves in a few days for her camp at Ottumwa, Iowa. Beverley was a member of the Klamath Falls Venture club and the first Wave to be enlisted from this organization. Her special work at this time is making propellers.

The Soroptimist house committee is busy this week, opening the new home on Pine street where rooms may be secured by women who are visiting service men in this locality.

On Leave

Home on leave is Beverley J. Reed, AMM 3/c with the naval air station at Ottumwa, Iowa. She is spending her week of annual leave at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Reed of 312 McKinley street.

She has had the pleasure of renewing old acquaintances from the Klamath Falls air base.

As her guest of the weekend, she has Edith Grace Rubini of Seattle, also stationed with the Waves at Ottumwa, Iowa.

The Commandos have also been cooperating in getting invitations for the men.

These organizations will be in charge of hospitality in the home arrangements from now on and Klamath people are reminded that they will again be asked to entertain some of the boys.

Buffet Supper

Entertaining for a group of friends who are home for the summer holidays was Marianne Lion, who gave a buffet supper at her home on Pacific Terrace Thursday evening.

Marianne is returning this weekend to Palo Alto where she will resume her studies at the start of the summer session at Stanford university.

Guests were Dorothy Riggs, Jean Underwood, Jeanne Long, Ann Otey, Margie Palmerton, Letty Linman and Nadine Palmerton.

Navy Families

Klamath Falls has become a military town with the installation of the Klamath naval air station and the Marine Barracks. On this page are shown three navy officers' wives and children.

Below is Mrs. B. M. Turner with her two children, Robert and Benjamin Jr. Lieutenant Commander Turner is the executive officer at the air station and commanding officer at the present time in the absence of Commander Darron.

Holidays Busy for Servicemen Here

Klamath people outdid themselves on the Fourth of July holidays this year in their invitations to servicemen. There was hardly one in the community who, if he wished, did not have the opportunity to spend the day at someone's home.

Summer homes at Klamath lakes were filled and servicemen galore were seen at the Buckaroo Days celebration and rodeo at the fairgrounds. Others were invited to spend the afternoon or evening in a home atmosphere at homes around the city.

This was largely a result of the efforts put forth by the newly formed Klamath Hospitality committee who conducted a campaign before the Fourth of July holidays asking Klamath people to invite men from the Marine Barracks and from the naval air station to their homes over the holidays.

The Commandos have also

Complimented

Mrs. Jerry Thompson, the former Alma Penrod, was honored by Mrs. Ida Momyer Odell and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable when the two gave a miscellaneous shower for her in the Pelican party room on June 28.

Mrs. Thompson was married in March. She is a petty officer first class with the WAVES and is stationed at the Bronx, New York.

The party room was decorated with iris and after gifts were opened, dessert was served.

Those complimenting Mrs. Thompson were Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, Mrs. E. J. Champagne, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan, Mrs. Harry Goeller, Mrs. E. A. Fredrickson, Mrs. C. E. McClelland, Mrs. C. L. Harvey, Mrs. A. C. Olson, Mrs. Charles Garcelon, Mrs. Louise Humphry, Mrs. Stella Bowne, Mrs. Emma Carter, Mrs. R. O. Hoyt, Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, Mrs. Edna Russell, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Mrs. Carl Tomlin, Mrs. Lucille Davison, Mrs. Charles Fairall, Mrs. George Elliott, Mrs. C. E. Dennis, Mrs. M. J. Young, Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. Margaret Lavin, Mrs. Stephen Sabo, Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. Martha McCollum, Mrs. Ruth Bathiany, Mrs. Lloyd L. Miller, Mrs. Gertrude Moore, Mrs. Arthur Porter, Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mrs. Alice Mathiason, Mrs. J. F. Penrod, Nancy Gaylord, Bette Champagne, Janice Barnstable, Margaret McClelland, Eleanor Weatherford and the hostesses.

Birthday

June 30 was the anniversary of Mary Ann Munson's seventh birthday.

Invited over for cake and ice cream were Nancy Warren, Judy James, Laura Ferguson, Ruth Marie Larson, Barbara Fitzgerald, and Paul Robert Munson.

Houseguests

Visiting for a few weeks as house guests of Barbara Osborn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dean Osborn of Lawrence street, are Norma Ainsworth of Gates Harbor, Washington, and Virginia Allen of Everett, Washington.

The two girls were school mates of Barbara's when they all attended Annie Wright Seminary in Tacoma.

On July Fourth they entertained three marines at the rodeo. They were PFC Donald Gatz, PFC Charles Stanburg, and PFC William Hollingwood.

Honored

On Thursday evening Mrs. Sverre Munson entertained in honor of her mother, Mrs. Martha Sjodin and cousin, Caroline Targvald visiting here from Bellingham, Washington.

Miss Targvald, who is an accomplished singer, entertained with several songs, accompanying herself on the piano. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Invited guests were Mrs. Drummond Lavin, Mrs. H. S. Rathe, Mrs. C. Murdock, Mrs. Wendela Dahquist, Mrs. Joseph Huck, Mrs. Andrew Persson, Mrs. Truman Berg, and Mrs. Helen Ferguson.

Robertta Alexander Marries in East

At a four o'clock ceremony read on Thursday afternoon, June 22, Robertta Alexander, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alexander of Manzanita street, Klamath Falls, became the bride of Lieutenant Sheldon Harold Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Harold Russell of Cambridge, Minnesota, at the Russell home. Rev. F. L. Russell, grandfather of the groom, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of white silk jersey with matching accessories, and a corsage of red rosebuds.

The maid of honor, the bride's only attendant, was Grace Russell, sister of the groom. She wore a street-length frock of blue with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Ensign Orris Lodien of Cambridge was best man.

Before the ceremony, F. Harold Russell sang "Because" and "God Touched a Rose," and immediately following the exchange of vows, he sang "Together Life's Pathway We Tread," with Marilyn Westberg as accompanist. Miss Westberg also played the "Prayer Perfect March" and Lohengrin's "Wedding March." Only immediate relatives were present for the wedding.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served to the following guests: Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Russell of Minneapolis; Mrs. Charles Lindgren of Isanti, Minnesota; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lodien and sons and Marilyn Westberg.

The bride is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and for the past five years has been employed as a stenographer in the Weyerhaeuser Timber company office here.

The groom was employed as a bookkeeper at the Klamath Falls branch of the First National bank before entering the service.

The young couple will make their home at Edenton, North Carolina, where Lieutenant Russell is stationed with the U. S. marine air corps.

Marries

Lois Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Howell of Grants Pass, and formerly of this city, became the bride in late June of Private Martin E. Horton, army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Horton of Lebo, Kansas.

The ceremony was read in the Bethany Presbyterian church in Grants Pass by Dr. H. S. Reichard.

The bride wore a white two-piece dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Her only attendant was Dorothy Lowe, who wore a brown tailored suit with white accessories.

The bride's father, R. L. Howell was best man.

Private Horton left soon after the ceremony for Fresno, Calif., where he is stationed. Mrs. Horton will join him as soon as living conditions permit.

Mrs. Horton graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1940 and also attended grade school here. She left Klamath Falls in April, 1943, and has since made her home in Grants Pass, but has many friends and relatives here.
