

Local Man Weds English Girl

Thomas Eugene Patty, technical sergeant with the U. S. army corps and son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Floyd Patty of Klamath Falls, and Corporal Joyce Lucy Woodbridge, (A.T.S.) young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodbridge of Amersham, Buckinghamshire, England, were married at St. Mary's church, Amersham, Buckinghamshire, England, in late March.

The pastor, the Reverend C. E. Briggs, officiated, and Miss Smith presided at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of wedgewood blue wool crepe, with muffs and hat to match, tan shoes, and a shoulder bag of tan and cream colored shades.

Her only attendant was her six year old niece, Linda Harris, who wore a frock of pink chiffon velvet with shrimp pines hat trimmed with lace and bows to match. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers. The best man was technical Sergeant Robert E. Cassaman of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

A large number of guests, among whom were Sergeant Norman Kass of St. Augustine, Florida, and Sergeant John Benard of Springfield, New York, were present for the reception at the bride's home. The bride and groom left for Paignton, Devon, where they spent their honeymoon.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride and bridesmaid were brooches of gold wings.

Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thoman of University, Alabama, are the parents of a son, born June 25. Mrs. Thoman is the former Evelyn Zumwalt of Malin and was employed in the offices of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company following her graduation from the Malin high school. Richard Thoman is a professor of geography at the University of Alabama.

The juveniles of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a picnic on Wednesday, July 12, at the home of Alta Clark, 1959 Academy street, at 1 o'clock.

Texas Ceremony

Irene Mary Pearce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pearce of 1006 Arthur street, Klamath Falls, became the bride of Private Garland N. Foster, stationed at Fort Bliss, in a ceremony on June 29.

The wedding ceremony took place at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Trinity Methodist church at El Paso, Texas.

The couple left after the ceremony for Carlsbad Caverns, where they spent a three-day honeymoon.

Attending them at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Buckley, Private Buckley was with Private Foster on duty in the Aleutians.

Three R

The Three R club met on June 27 with Ella Pauley at her home on 631 Roseway Drive for a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon.

Pinocle was played and high score went to Kate Hogue, second to Anna McCormick and traveling award to Ida Mae Fett.

Eleven members were present. They were Jestia Kaylor, Lucille Helfer, Kate Hogue, Kathleen Hepburn, Anna McCormick, Jessie Steele, Anna Shafer, Edna Pinney, Grace Harris, Ida Mae Fett and the hostess Ella Pauley.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, July 11, with Kathleen Hepburn at 1303 Oak street.

ENGLISH WEDDING

Tom Patty, stationed in England with the air corps, was married in March to Joyce Woodbridge of Amersham, England. The ceremony took place at St. Mary's church in Amersham, Buckinghamshire.

Louellen Proctor Weds Lane Smith

Louellen Proctor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Proctor of Salem, and Lane Smith Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lane Smith of Keno, were married in a ceremony read by the Reverend C. Howard Hutchins in the First Christian church last Sunday morning.

The nine o'clock ceremony was read in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

The bride wore a light blue street dress with accessories of white and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds.

Her sister Lucille, was her only attendant and she wore a dress of pink with a corsage of forget-me-nots and rosebuds.

Best man was the father of the groom.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Martin on East Main street for the bridal party and close friends. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Leland Mayfield, Mrs. Lane Smith, Mrs. Romaine Thomas, Doris Yantis, and Lucille Proctor.

After the wedding the couple left for Salem where they will be until Lane reports back to Treasure Island where he is stationed with the navy. He has just recently returned from overseas duty.

Louellen is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and she moved this last fall with her family to Salem. The groom is a graduate of the Keno schools.

If you want to sell it—phone The Herald and News "want ads," 3124.

Surprise the folks back home

Send Them a Photograph Of You In Uniform!

Let an EVERGREEN PORTRAIT of Distinction be the link that binds you to the home-folks who are missing you—perhaps more than you know.

Do it NOW . . . It will take but a moment of your time and the cost will be trifling compared to the joy it's bound to bring to THEM!

No Appointment Necessary

Open From 10 A. M. to 7:30 P. M.

Evergreen STUDIOS
"PORTRAITS OF DISTINCTION"

737 Main Phone 7240
Across the street from United States National Bank

Many Enjoy Tea At O'Connor Home

MERRILL—In the charming garden at the Hugh O'Connor home, guests from Klamath Falls, Henley, Tulelake, Malin and Merrill admired the wealth of blossoms and enjoyed refreshments at the silver tea sponsored Thursday, June 29, by the Altar society of St. Augustine church at Merrill. Mrs. O'Connor was assisted by members of the society and by her three daughters, Kathleen, Mary Lou and Patsy.

Tables for tea and coffee were placed on either end of the garden terrace. At the tea service which flanked a central motif of mixed blooms, Mrs. M. A. Bowman of Merrill, Mrs. Jess Dieter of Tulelake and Mrs. E. M. Hammond of Merrill served from two until five o'clock. The iced beverage was served from a cut glass punch bowl.

The coffee table, placed beneath a huge garden umbrella, protected an arrangement of California poppies. Pouring at this table were Mrs. Mamie Giacomini of Merrill, Mrs. Nona Corpening of Olene and Mrs. Henry Cox, Merrill.

A profusion of iris, peonies, and columbine contrasted with unusual arrangements of fruit about the rooms of the spacious home.

Talented musical artists of the community contributed numbers to the program arranged by Mrs. Mamie Giacomini.

§ § §

Klamath friends are sending felicitations to Lieut. and Mrs. L. A. Hammers (Marjorie Southwell) who are parents of a daughter born June 28, at Fort Sill, Okla., where the lieutenant was stationed until his recent transfer to Camp Van Dorn, Miss. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Southwell of this city.

§ § §

The Prosperity Rebekah drill team will practice on Wednesday, July 12, at 7:30 in the Odd Fellows hall.

Lecture

Dr. Adolph Weinzirl will speak to any Klamath woman interested in the entertainment of servicemen in the Little Theater at the high school at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Dr. Weinzirl is in Klamath Falls in connection with a series of lectures being given to the younger girls on Monday evenings.

His topic for the afternoon will be "The Family in a World at War."

This series of lectures will have great educational value to the women of this city and it is sponsored by the E. C. Brown trust division of social hygiene at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland.

§ § §

The Prosperity Rebekah lodge met on Thursday, July 6, at 8 o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall. Following the business meeting, the IOOF members held their Memorial Day services. Alma Cofer played on the piano "Rock of Ages" and a poem was read by Frances Munsell.

§ § §

The next meeting will be held on July 20.

§ § §

Agricultural production in 1943 was 127 per cent of the 1935-39 pre-war average.

Sprague River

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leek and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Smith spent the Fourth on a camping trip on Wood river. They had a very nice time and enjoyed the fishing very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Krider and Daisy drove here from Canby over the weekend to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alto Leek.

The semi-formal dance sponsored by the Service League was well attended and enjoyed by all. The music was furnished by local talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Slinkard, daughter Linda and Mrs. Lena Carmony moved this week to the property they recently purchased near Redding, California.

Flowers
Gaston's
Flower Shop

724 Pine Ph. 5560

OUR STORE WILL RE-OPEN TUESDAY MORNING

Soap and water Summer

In and out of the suds in a twinkling. Smooth and slick beneath the iron . . . that's the formula for successful Summer dresses. If you've lost your gem of a laundress to a war job, you'll bless us for so many classically simple cottons . . . so easy to care for . . . so becoming to wear.

LaPointe's

MARRIED SUNDAY
Mr. and Mrs. Lane Smith were married in a ceremony at the First Christian church Sunday. Mrs. Smith is the former Louellen Proctor.

WED IN TEXAS

Irene Pearce of Klamath Falls was married in a ceremony at El Paso, Texas, on June 29, to Private Garland N. Foster of Cathlamet, Washington.