Money No Measure
By EARL WHITLOCK

Does it come as a bit of shock to you, I wonder, to realize that General Eisenhower, planning and executing the greatest military move since the days of King, Gen. MacArthur, Goggedly fighting his way back to the Philippines, Admirals Nimitz and King, Gen. Grant, Doolittle and even Marshall—these men, holding America's fate in their capable hands are working for about the same pay as a fairly competent welder in a war plant? $8,000 a year. That is the pay of a general or admiral. Or it was, the last I heard. I don't think they have been upped recently. $8,000 a year. About $155 a week. Of course, they do get some housing and mess allowance. But that $155 a week is their basic pay. And any good welder, willing to work in a bit of overtime could equal that. You know, it is kind of wholesome to stop, once in a while and remind ourselves that the almighty dollar is not the final measuring stick of merit. There is a reward for fine work not connected with finance. One's own self-approval, for instance. A wholly satisfied conscience within one. And the gratitude and love and faith of one's fellowmen.

Next Monday Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home will comment on "The Dog That Found Himself."

It is cool in Memory Garden.

Shasta View Grange—The Shasta View grange will meet at 7:30 Thursday evening in the Shasta school. The lecture hour starting at 8:30 will be open to the public with Robert Rieder of the Oregon State college appearing.

In Idaho—Mrs. Pearl Litton of LaPointe's is on vacation in Boise, Ida.

Police Court—In police court Wednesday morning there were three drunks and two vags.
