

Olivia Thompson Complimented

Olivia Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thompson, recently announced her engagement to Lieutenant Clifford Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brannan, who was honored this week at several informal affairs. Miss Thompson will be married in the near future to Lieut. Clayton, who is now stationed in Bakersfield.

On Wednesday, July 12, she was complimented at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Guy Brannan. Tables were beautifully decorated in pink and white and the centerpiece was a large cake.

Those invited in honor of Olivia were Mrs. R. E. Thompson, Mrs. Mamie Higgins, Mrs. Guy Merrill, Mrs. J. Burke, Mrs. Martha Brannan, Mrs. William Goddard, Mrs. Frank Wells, Mrs. John Stansbie, Mrs. Lettie Stansbie, Mrs. Herbert Landis, Mrs. Mayhew, Mrs. J. E. Mayhew, Mrs. Joe Fred Floetke, Mrs. Joe Fred Whit, and the bride, Mrs. Guy Brannan.

On Thursday, July 13, she was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at the home of William Ely on Nevada. The hostess for the evening was C. O. Dryden.

The group huddled dishes and then put their names in the corners. Later they played games with Mrs. R. A. Ely winning a high score. Mrs. Ruth Alban, low.

Those present were Mrs. R. E. Thompson, Mrs. Guy Brannan, Mrs. Mamie Higgins, Mrs. Martha Brannan and Mrs. Stansbie, the future bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Floetke, Mrs. Frank Wells, Mrs. N. A. Eberman, Mrs. A. P. Robson, Mrs. Ernie McGoran, Mrs. Ray Weed, Mrs. Otto Smith, Mrs. R. H. Reeves, Mrs. S. Stone, Mrs. Ruth Alban, Mrs. R. A. Cantrell, Mrs. L. E. Ely, Mrs. Mochatt, Mrs. Phillis Ely, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

The rooms were bright with flowers and refreshments were served at a late hour upon small tables placed out the rooms.

Miss Mary Harlan celebrated her fifth birthday last Saturday when she was guest of honor at a birthday party given for her by her mother, Mrs. W. D. Harlan, at their home on Lookout street.

The party was held out of doors with refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake being served to the youngsters later. Guests were Judy Brauner, Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. Ruth Alban, Mrs. Naomi Filer, Karen and Roy Porter, Kay Black, Doug and Roddy Van Buskirk, and Billy Harlan.

Mrs. Donna Roberson of Portland was complimented on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Elo Ellis entertained a luncheon for her at her home on Colorado street. Mrs. Roberson is being visited with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Welch of Tulelake.

Places were set for Mrs. Roberson, her mother, Mrs. Babe Wilson, Mrs. Jerry Rajnus, and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, all Tulelake.

Two Honored
Honoring Connie Peters of Ventura, Calif., who is visiting in Klamath Falls, and Josephine Hornton, who left Friday for a short stay in Santa Barbara, a group of girls met at Sari's Thursday night for a dinner party.

Visitors from Lodi, California, this past week have been Mrs. One Lange and Mrs. Emma Herin, sisters of Mrs. Nell Reed of McKinley. On their arrival they saw Beverly Reed, AMM member with the WAVES, before she returned to duty in Iowa. The sisters left Saturday for their home.

Entertain WAVES

Twelve WAVES from the Klamath naval air station were guests of the Business and Professional Women's club at a picnic breakfast held Sunday morning, July 9, at Moore park where zesty appetites made short work of flapjacks, bacon, eggs and doughnuts.

Guests from the air station included Margaret Wheeler, Marietta Conklin, Philomena Strizzi, Rita Waldman, Dolores Wiedershoft, Esther Camardo, Mary Bracken, Prudence Johns, Jane Foreman, Helen Potter, Betty Dunlap and Lillian Hagen. Tennis and strolls about the park were enjoyed before and after the breakfast hour.

Norma Miller, new president of BPW, acted as head chef, assisted by Lee Robinson, chairman, and members of her picnic committee.

An informal card party will be given for BPW members on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Miller, 1739 Bisbee. Those planning to attend are asked to call Jacquelin Newcom at 3893. Alice Stout is in charge of arrangements.

Social Evening

Friendship court number 11, Order of the Amaranth, will dispense with the regular business session on Wednesday evening, July 19, and will have instead a social evening starting at 6:30 with a potluck supper in the Masonic temple. This will be followed by bridge, pinocle, and moving pictures.

Members and their husbands or wives having birthdays in the months from January to July will be the guests of the members having birthdays in the latter part of the year. To make reservations, members are asked to call Mrs. George Pierce at 5943 no later than Monday night.

The royal matron, Mrs. Blanche Schulze, and the royal patron, J. E. Jones, have invited all members to come for an enjoyable evening.

Sojourners

Sojourners held their meeting at the Willard hotel, on Wednesday, July 12, with Mrs. A. J. Lambert as hostess for the afternoon.

Guests included Mrs. Norval Wallen and Mrs. Gene Kellogg. Bridge and pinocle followed the brief business meeting with prizes in defense stamps going to Mrs. Ben Gibson, Mrs. Matt Finnegan, and Mrs. A. J. MeManus.

Plans for the annual picnic for the Sojourners, their husbands, and their guests, were made and the date set for July 26 at Moore park.

Picnic Luncheon

A picnic luncheon was enjoyed by members of the Rebekah social club Wednesday, July 12, on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Fred Cofer, 1017 High. Twenty members and guests attended, and Ashland, Medford and Merrill were represented.

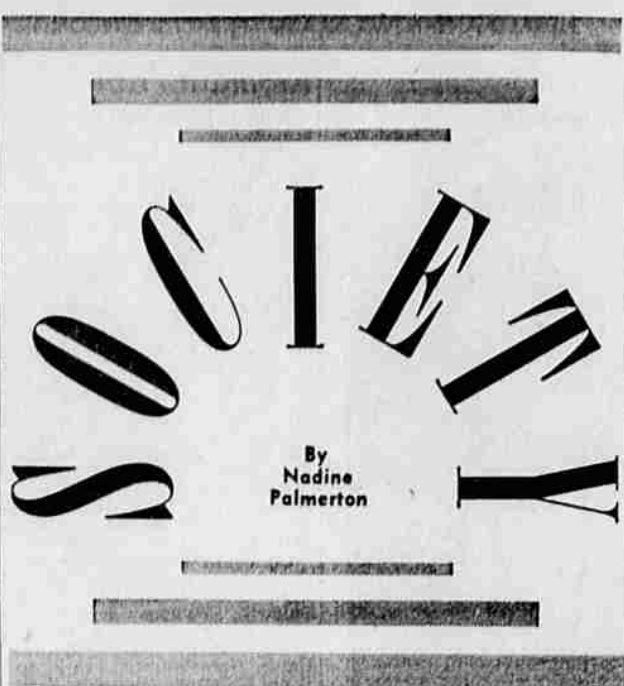

Eva Richardson, the new president, conducted the business meeting and the afternoon was so pleasant that it was decided to hold the next meeting, July 26, in the same place, and it too will be a picnic. Eva Richardson and Alice Goeller will be the hostesses.

Installation

The American Legion auxiliary will hold a joint installation of officers with Malin, Merrill and the junior auxiliary on Tuesday, July 18, at 8 o'clock in the Legion hall.

Membership pins will be presented to the new members of the last year. Refreshments will also be served after the installation. Members of all units are invited to attend.

Mrs. Vic Lashua and daughters, formerly of this city, will leave Monday for their home in Tacoma after visiting with Mrs. William Matson, 2100 Hope street, a sister of Mrs. Lashua, and with two brothers, Gus Warrell of Chiloquin and Garnet Warrell of Bly.

Comings and Goings

Comings and goings are of interest to Klamath people this week with many people leaving and others visiting here.

Shown with her young son Michael Franklin is Mrs. R. F. Miller, the former Joyce Leech, who plans to leave soon for Alameda, Calif., to join her husband who is stationed there.

Visitors in Klamath Falls this week were Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Reese of Fresno and former residents of Klamath Falls. They are here with their two children.

Leaving last Sunday for Sioux City, Iowa, were Lieut. and Mrs. Ben Goddard and daughter, Paula Jean. Lieut. Goddard is receiving combat training there and as soon as he leaves for overseas duty, Mrs. Goddard and Paula will return to Hardin, Montana.

—Kennell-Ellis pictures

Klamath People Entertain Men

Recreation for marines stationed at the local Marine Barracks and for men at the naval air station is becoming of major importance in the summer plans of many who own homes at lake resorts in the Klamath Falls area.

Several families have already been among those to entertain men at homes at Lake o' the Woods and Diamond lake and the list is growing of Merrill, Malin and Tulelake families who have invited boys to visit ranch homes and enjoy some of the famous western hospitality.

Recreation officials at the Marine Barracks have announced that they will furnish transportation to and from the resort, as well as provisions and even bedding if necessary while the boys are there, if Klamath people will furnish cabins and houses for the men.

Also on the list of projects being carried out by local people is the presentation of articles to the Barracks for recreational use. Heading the list was Mrs. Gladys Hunt who this past week gave a guitar and a large number of magazines to the recreation office.

The lodge then adjourned to meet again on July 21. The homemaking committee met on Friday afternoon at the hall for a business meeting and potluck luncheon with fourteen present.

The card party sponsored by the chapter last Friday had seven tables in play. Ruby Bell held high score, Patricia McMannus, second, and Belle Tompkins winning the door award.

The alumni committee sponsored the alumni breakfast on Sunday, July 9, at 10 a. m. and forty were present. The Legion dinner served by the Women of the Moose was served to 61 members.

Catholic Daughters of America met on Monday, July 10, at 8 p. m. in the parish hall with the new grand regent, Phyllis Mahoney, presiding. Reverend Joseph Hunt, who is a Maryknoll foreign missionary, was the special guest of the evening.

Mrs. Mildred Seavey was appointed program chairman for the year and she will be assisted by Marian Cronin. Mrs. Norman Moty was appointed to be chairman of the sick committee for the coming year. The refreshment committee for the evening was Ethel Bruner, chairman, assisted by Martha Lavenok, Elizabeth Bruner, Gwendolyn Miller and Emilie Miller. Twenty-five members were present.

The July meeting of the Eastern Star social club was held at the Masonic temple last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Harold M. Brown and Mrs. L. F. Willis acting as hostesses.

Four tables were in play following the dessert hour. A beautiful arrangement of red roses centered the refreshment table. Honors at bridge were received by Mrs. Sam Roberts and Mrs. Morris Sherman received the special award.

Here this last week was Mrs. Paul Foster of Portland who spent some time here as guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Biehn of Pine street and with her sister, Mrs. Marvin Lucas.

The past presidents of the 3-R club will meet with Iva May Schendel, 2348 Orchard, on Tuesday, July 18, for a one o'clock luncheon.

Annual Picnic

Plans for the annual picnic for Sojourners, their husbands, and their guests, are being made with the date of the picnic set for July 26 at 6:30 p. m. in Moore park.

Mrs. Steiger Wins Lamm Trophy Friday

Women at the Reames Golf and Country club yesterday ended play for the Lamm trophy, an award given annually, with Mrs. J. J. Steiger winning first place. Runner-up in the event was Mrs. W. O. Smith.

In the first flight played Friday, winner was Mrs. Greer Glascoe and Mrs. Matt Finnigan was the runner-up.

Yesterday ended tournament play for the months of July and August, but women are asked to turn in their five best scores and the handicaps will be taken off.

Winning the prize of the day Friday was Mrs. E. D. Hamaker.

Hostesses for the Friday afternoon before the Fourth of July were Mrs. H. E. Hauger, Mrs. Ray Oldenburg and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter. Winning the prize for that day was Mrs. Oscar Shive.

There were no hostesses for the past two Fridays.

Eight members of the Catholic Daughters of America met on Wednesday afternoon, July 12, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Ely on Nevada and worked on their project of laprobes for the Red Cross. Five more were completed and work was started on three more.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. L. Alva Lewis announced this week the betrothal of their daughter, Vivian Ruth Davis, to Ernest C. Bridger. The wedding date has been set for July 29. The bride-elect who is now employed by the Southern Pacific, is well known here where she has made her home for many years and attended school. Mr. Bridger, son of Mrs. Emily Bridger of Pismo Beach, Calif., is owner and operator of two service stations in the city.

Juveniles

Juveniles of the Neighbors of Woodcraft enjoyed a picnic lunch on Wednesday, July 12, at the home of Alta Clark, 1959 Academy, with eighteen present. The luncheon was served at one o'clock by Stella Dryden, senior guardian, and Alta Clark, and the afternoon was spent playing games. Committee for the day consisted of Patsy Clark and Patsy Ruth Miller. On Tuesday, July 25, the Juveniles will hold another picnic, this time in Moore park.

OES Meeting

The July meeting of the Eastern Star social club was held at the Masonic temple last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Harold M. Brown and Mrs. L. F. Willis acting as hostesses.