

Fred Gay Pitches, Bats Naval Air Station to 14 to 7 Win Over Craters

Leads Navy To Victory

Fred Gay pitched and batted the navy to a 14 to 7 victory over the Medford Craters Sunday in a game that was lighter than the score would indicate.

Olsen started on the mound for the sailors but the valley boys found his offerings to their liking and pounded him for one run in the first inning and five runs in the second frame before ex-Yankee Gay took over and quieted the uprising.

But the Crater spurt had put the sailors behind 6 to 0 in their half of the second inning. However they scored three unearned runs in that frame and added four more runs in the third to take a one run lead which they never lost again.

It was still anybody's game until the gods staged a four-run rally in the eighth that put the game on ice. The Medfordites' inability to bring their men in to score after they got on base cost them the game as they left 11 men on base compared to only four left on base by the navy.

Both teams played well in the field and the Craters twice pulled doubleplays that cut off potential navy runs. Second Baseman Calac was the standout for the Craters defensively making four unassisted putouts and five assists as well as participating in both double plays.

Eleven valley players went down swinging as Gay notched nine strikeouts and Olsen picked up two. The three Medford hurlers failed to fan anybody. Only four walks were issued during the whole game, two by Gay and one each from Johnson and Lange.

The sailors got 13 hits off the three Crater hurlers while the Medford champs got 11 bingles. Olsen gave up seven hits in 2 2/3 innings and Gay was hit only four times. Gay had the game so well in hand that only one run was scored off him and it was unearned.

Every man on the navy squad got a hit except the catcher, Ritenour, and he got credit for driving in a run.

Harvey Storey led the seafarers' hitting with a double and a triple in four times at bat. Gay followed with two doubles in four chances. In addition Gay drove in three runs to lead that department and he scored three times himself. Walder of the navy was among the leaders with two singles in three times at bat.

W. R. Hibbs of Hibbs Clothing company offered $5 and later $10 to any player who would hit a fair ball over the fence. Two batters sent balls that hit the left field fence but nobody tried to put one completely over. Storey whammed two balls in succession over the left field fence but they were both foul by a few feet.

Gay, relieving Jim Olsen when he got in trouble in the second inning, limited the Craters to four hits and struck out nine men. His batting record was top, too. Sports Briefs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—Having recently cast what might be regarded as a few aspersions on the climate of Texas, this department hastens to make amends by reporting that the Lone Star state is back in the "parade of champions" there July 4 presented Wilbur Martin of the San Antonio News informs us that beak-busting in Galveston and Houston is doing well and, under the guidance of the veteran Sam Slotsky, San Antonio is making a comeback.

FAN FARE
"The Golden Gloves has helped put boxing back on a level where mothers will let their younguns attend," Martin adds. In fact, mama usually is sitting right down ringside, sodapop, gum and a "kill the bum" attitude. It's the war!"

MONDAY MATINEE
Since he signed to coach the Columbia line next fall, Tad Wieman is definitely out as coach of the teamless Princeton Tigers, who will be looking for a big-time tutor when they resume football. The Pentathalon University of Mexico City will make a basketball tour of the United States in December and January. Marty McManus, former big leaguer who pilots the Kenosha, Wis., team of the All-America Pro baseball league, must be envied by managers of masculine teams. During a recent road trip, the gals washed and ironed Marty's shirts.

SERVICE DEPARTMENT
Lieut. Ted Williams, now patrolling right field for the Bronson naval air station team at Pensacola, Fla., says his club has four hitters better than himself. Batting just ahead of Ted is Monk Naznicki, former Boston college and Bears footballer.

Lipscomb, Paavo Katonen Meet

Jack "Buck" Lipscomb and Paavo Katonen are slated to meet again next Friday night in the main event of an otherwise undecided card, according to Mack Lillard.

Last Friday Lipscomb won, using some not too clean tactics. Paavo evidently demanded a rematch and got it. This match should see some real fireworks between these grapplers as both have everything to win and nothing to lose.

The rest of the card is undecided although Tony Morelli and Bulldog Jackson will probably see action.

Browns Still Lead After Road Trip

St. Louis Holds Two Games Over Second Place Yanks; Bums Stop Losses at 15

By JOE REICHLER (Associated Press Sports Writer)
The St. Louis Browns, en route home today from their second eastern road trip, still are perched at the top of the standings, giving every indication they are the team to beat for the American league flag.

They wound up their stay abroad by capturing both games of a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians, 8-7 and 2-1, before 32,553, with both games going 12 innings. The double win gave the Browns a record of 10 wins and 10 losses on their trip, after having dropped four of their first six games.

The sweep increased the Browns' first place lead over the New York Yankees to two full games. Second Baseman Don Gutteridge featured in both victories. He scored the winning runs in the 12th innings of each game, tallying in the opener, on George McQuinn's single and scoring in the nightcap when Milt Byrnes followed his lead-off triple with a long fly.

Four home runs gave the New York Yankees a 7-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the opener of a scheduled twin-bill before 41,171. A thunderstorm prevented the teams from playing the second game.

Dizzy Trout won his second game in four days and 12th of the season as Detroit and the Chicago White Sox divided their doubleheader, the White Sox winning the first 7-2 and the Tigers taking the second 7-3.

The Chicago Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates exchanged 1-0 shutouts, with Hank Wyse of the Cubs gaining the nod over Truett (Rip) Sewell in the opener, and Max Butcher of the Pirates shoving Claude Passeau in the second, before 40,920 at Wrigley field.

The league leading St. Louis Cardinals and the Cincinnati Reds split their doubleheader. The cards won the opener 4-2. The Reds took the nightcap 3-2. Washington won two games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-4 and 4-3, with Mico Camdini and Micky Haefner gaining the decisions.

Brooklyn ended its biggest losing streak in history by winning the second game 8-5 from the Boston Braves, after having dropped its 15th straight in losing the opener, 8-4.

The New York Giants dropped the first game to the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-2. They were leading 6-3 after eight innings of the nightcap, when the game was halted by the Pennsylvania 6:55 p. m. curfew law. This game will be completed later.

Cubans Leave Washington

By PAT O'BRIEN
WASHINGTON, July 17 (AP)—The Washington ball club, a bilingual outfit all season, was back on an English-speaking basis today. Of some 15 Latin Americans who turned up at the training camp last spring, only two remained—and they both converse in "Americano."

Two of the team's mainstays, infielder Gilberto Torres and outfielder Roberto Ortiz, and a substitute catcher, Fermin Guerra, quit the club yesterday after being told by national selective service officials to register for the military draft or leave the country.

Torres, Ortiz and Guerra—whose departure made Washington's already feeble pennant hopes blacker than the darkest night—elected to return to their Cuban homes and subject themselves to army calls there.

A fourth Cuban, Rookie Infielder Pedro Gomez, decided to stick with the club and register in this country. Gomez and Alejandro Carrasquel, veteran relief pitcher from Venezuela, are the only Latins left on the squad. Carrasquel wasn't involved in the draft directives.

Several months back, Washington club house conversations sounded like an inter-American confab.

"Naturally, I hate to see these boys go," President Clark, Griffith, baseball's "Old Fox" said last night, "but it's an order from a war agency."

Bevos Score Double Win Over Seals

Helser, Liska Pitch Ducks To Victories; Sacs Trimmed By Angels as Oaks Win

By The Associated Press
Ad Liska and Roy Helser were too much for the San Francisco Seals yesterday. Liska pitching the Portland Beavers to a 5 to 2 win in the first game of a doubleheader and Helser winning a 2 to 1 eight-inning Coast league nightcap.

Helser's shutout pitching string was stopped at 23 innings by the Seals as they gained their line run in the sixth frame. The twin win gave the Beavers a five to two margin in the series and skidded the Seals into a tie for third place.

Seattle moved up alongside San Francisco with a sweep of its doubleheader with Hollywood, winning the opener 4 to 1, and the afterpiece, 6 to 5, after losing four of the first five games of the week's series.

Los Angeles trimmed Sacramento twice, 3 to 1 and 4 to 3, for a five to three edge in the series. It was the first series the Solons have lost in six weeks.

League leading Oakland also took a twin bill, defeating San Diego, 5 to 0 and 6 to 3, for a six to one series margin.

Pekingese Judged Best Dog at Show
PORTLAND, July 17 (AP)—A Pekingese, Mol-Lee's Pung Chee, owned by Gladys Cressney of Victoria, B. C., was adjudged best dog in a field of 300 at the annual all-breed show of the Dog Fanciers association of Oregon here yesterday.

Egerstone Trull Queen, owned by Walter L. McDougal of Salem was chosen best Scottish terrier, and Four-in-Hand Raisencake, owned by Georgia Moserip of Sherwood, best dalmatian.

GRIDSTER RETURNS
PORTLAND, July 17 (AP)—Capt. John Kitzmiller, former University of Oregon All-American halfback, arrived here Saturday night by plane after 26 months in India. He said the army has placed him on its inactive list and that he will return to his former war job in Dallas.

One Stable Win Both Feature Races at Track

SEATTLE, July 17 (AP)—J. R. Gregory stable captured both feature races at Longview race track yesterday with Sir taking the $2000 V. F. handicap and First to Fight $1000 war relief purse.

Sunday marked the opening of a 15-day period in which all proceeds from the track will be donated to war charities.

The weekend also saw the opening and probable close of the racing career of Camryn, winner of the 1941 Longview stakes and one-time king of northwest racing. Fusser finished in a dead heat with Silver Traction in the feature Lamplighter purse Saturday. Time for the mile 1:11.6.

Prior to the race it was understood Camryn Fusser would be returned to stud.
