

Verna Cheyne Is Married Sunday

TULLAKE—Before an altar banked with blue and white alpinium, white gladiol and tall white tapers, Verna Cheyne, daughter of the late Mr. Robert D. Cheyne and Mrs. F. M. Cheyne, pioneer residents of Henley, became the bride of Herman Turnbaugh, Tulelake, at an eight o'clock ceremony Sunday, July 15. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Turnbaugh, Tulelake.

The ceremony was read before one hundred and fifty guests in the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church by Rev. Hugh Bronson. Preceding the ceremony Conrad Schultz of Tulelake sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Joyce Turnbaugh, sister of the groom, played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, lovely in white also, fashioned with round neck and marquisette yoke outlined with seed pearls, wore a full length train. Her veil was of net caught with a tiana of pearls about her head and she carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations and pink ribbon streamers. She was given in marriage by her brother, A. R. Cheyne of Henley.

Mrs. Alice Dickinson, Portland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of aqua tulle was floor length with a ruffled skirt.

Bridesmaids were Margaret Murphy, University of Oregon student at home in Henley for the summer vacation, and Miss Frances Rose, Tulelake. Miss Murphy wore peach net and Miss Rose pink net.

Little Miss Margaret Ann Takacs, blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Takacs Jr., Tulelake and niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a pale blue dress. All the attendants carried old fashioned nosegays and wore rose buds as hair arrangements.

Dean Callis, Tulelake was best man. Ushers were Jack Liskey of Merrill and Robert Adams of Tulelake.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church annex where the bride cut a beautifully decorated tiered bride's cake, circled with pink and white rose buds. The linen covered table was graced also with tall white tapers.

Pouring were Joyce Turnbaugh and Fannie Adams. Mrs. Dickinson assisted about the

Guest Here

Mrs. Dorothy Luce, who has been a guest at the Lyle O. Mills home for the past three weeks, left Wednesday by train for San Francisco where she will spend a week with her sister before returning to her duties as superintendent of the Lava Hot Springs hospital in Idaho.

Mrs. Luce was one of the first nurses in Klamath Falls, coming here in 1909. She was the superintendent of the old Blackburn hospital in the hot springs area here and left about 20 years ago.

While here recently she visited with many old friends.

The young couple will make their home in the Tulelake community where the groom farms following a brief wedding trip.

The bride is a graduate of Henley high school while Mr. Turnbaugh spent some time at Oregon State following his graduation from the Tulelake high school. He was a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

Complimented

Mrs. Roy C. Whytal and Mrs. John A. Schubert were hostesses at a party given for Mrs. Percy Webb in the pine-paneled room of the Elks club last week.

Bridge was played during the afternoon with first prize going to Mrs. Otto Ellis, second to Mrs. William Van Buskirk, and low to Mrs. Robert Elliott.

Honoring Mrs. Webb were Doris Blanton of Eugene, Mrs. Harry C. Stearns, Mrs. Webb's mother, from Oakland, Oregon, Mrs. Robert Constans of Doris, Calif., Mrs. Don McKay, Mrs. Frank Bogatay, Mrs. W. A. Souther, Mrs. Robert Elliott, Mrs. Ed Schnebeck, Mrs. W. R. Hibbs, Mrs. Victor Newman, Mrs. Robert Burleigh, Mrs. James Swansen, Mrs. Frank Niles, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. Otto Ellis, Mrs. Ed Klurer, Mrs. Melvin Leonard, Mrs. Orville Hamilton, Mrs. Lon Hunt, Mrs. Joe Bailey, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. James Ferguson, Mrs. Bert Schultz, Mrs. William Hearing, Mrs. F. C. Wissenbach, Mrs. Vern Moore, Mrs. Warren Bennett, Mrs. E. Goeckner, Mrs. C. D. Ough, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, Mrs. Truman Berg, Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mrs. Tom Orr, Mrs. I. M. Irwin, and Mrs. Karl Kufoc.

Soroptimists

The Soroptimist club will not hold any more regular meetings until September 7, but with the Soroptimist house a going project the members will be busy and contacts frequent.

Mrs. Rose Poole, the Klamath Falls delegate to the Soroptimist's National Federation convention in St. Louis, has just returned and was greeted by members at their Thursday meeting in the Pelican cafe. She reported that the Soroptimist club was now the largest women's service club in the world.

By special arrangements of the English government, Elizabeth Hawes, the liaison officer in England, was allowed to speak to the convention from London. The head of the British Broadcasting company announced that the privilege of greeting the American clubs was extended because of the outstanding work of the Soroptimist clubs in war service.

Sojourners

The annual picnic for Sojourners, their husbands, and guests will be held at Moore park at 6:30 p. m. on July 26.

Those who plan to attend will please make reservations by Monday evening, July 24, by calling Mrs. Greer Glascoe at 4646 or Mrs. Joseph L. Mitchell at 7181. Members are asked to bring their own table service.

The Past Matrons club will meet Friday, July 28, at the Masonic hall for dessert and a social afternoon. Co-hostesses will be Alfreda Steinmetz, Josephine Penrod, and Ida Moretz.

Society

By Nadine Palmerton

Tulelake Cadettes

The Tulelake Cadettes are a group of girls from the Tulelake area who have devoted most of their spare time to the entertainment and comfort of servicemen in that district.

They have opened rooms where the boys may come and enjoy a wholesome home atmosphere. Hundreds of men from all branches of the service have taken advantage of the opportunity to make themselves at home here.

At left, a group of the girls is shown with some of the servicemen in a friendly card game. From left to right around the table they are Private Trevathan, Sergeant Jean Scott, Bette Campbell, Second Lieutenant Ruth Crowther, Corporal Myrtle Bowen, PFC Carver and Ardyce Brown.

In the picture at the right are shown the three Tulelake women who since the organization of the Cadettes a year ago have served as adult advisors for the group of young women. They are Mrs. Gladys Ganger, Mrs. Mary Johnson and Mrs. Margaret Stevenson, who appear in the attractive blue uniform with silver wing buttons worn by all members of the organization.

In the small picture a group is gathered at one of the most popular spots, the sandwich bar. Left to right they are Marjorie Eagle, Private Purcell, Mary Frances Reiben, Corporal Moore and Captain Carolyn Ryckman.

—Wesley Guderian

Virginia Bubb to Marry in September

The engagement of Virginia Jane Bubb, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bubb of 405 High street, was announced this past week here.

She will wed Robert David Payne, son of Mrs. Margaret M. Payne of Ontario, Oregon, in a ceremony to be read in this city on September 24.

Miss Bubb attended the University of Oregon at Eugene where she was a member of Chi Omega social sorority. Since the first of the year she has been the medical technologist in charge of the laboratory at the University State Tuberculosis hospital in Portland.

Mr. Payne is a graduate of the University of Oregon where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, and Phi Delta Phi national law honorary. He is now in the United States army and is attending the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland where he is a member of Nu Sigma Nu medical fraternity.

The news of the engagement was first made known to friends when Mrs. Robin Hott honored Miss Bubb with a linen shower in Portland in early June.

Spending a two week's vacation here has been Helen Holverson of Sacramento, Calif. She has been visiting with Mrs. L. Z. Carter of 521 Hillside.

Elks Dance

Enlisted personnel at the naval air station who are members of the Elks lodge were hosts to Klamath Falls Elks and their wives at a dance given last Saturday night. Music was furnished by the Tulelake Guardsmen.

Before the dance, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley were host and hostess to a group at their home on North Seventh street.

Invited were Ensign and Mrs. Walter R. Kershaw, Lieutenant and Mrs. Curtis Lee, Lt. Commander and Mrs. B. M. Turner, Lieutenant and Mrs. Charles Smith, Lt. Commander and Mrs. Jones, Captain and Mrs. Fredrick Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore, Mr. and Mrs. J. Verne Owens, and Mrs. Jack P. Linman.

Sixth Birthday

Emilee Ann Carter celebrated her sixth birthday on July 13 when her mother entertained for her at a birthday party at the L. Z. Carter home on 521 Hillside.

Games were played in the yard and later ice cream and cake were served.

Emilee Ann will start in the first grade at Roosevelt school this fall.

Guests invited for the afternoon were Ruth, Frederick and Virginia Roenicke, Charles and Milton Bally of Merrill, Charles and Bobby Harris, David Montgomery, Richard Hilton, Gary Kliever, David and Steven Reeder, Marilyn and George Brandt, Rosalie Hazzard of Glendale, Calif., Sue Ramsby, Shirley Schofield, Richard Burnett of Bonanza, Patsy Lee Paterson, Billy Hosford, Susan and Sara Porter, Mary Jane Howard, Sally Soukup, Susan Jenkins, Anne Potter, Sandra Pemberton, Roberta Mathews, Diane Anderson, Betty Jane Kern, Steven Stiles, Donna Lee Carter, and Patty Thompson of Medford.

Mrs. Carter was assisted during the afternoon by Helen Holverson, Lynden King, Mrs. Frank Marks, Mrs. Al Brandt, and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke.

Birthday Dinner

Honoring Jeanne Long on her seventeenth birthday, a group of her friends met for dinner at the Pelican on Thursday evening.

Those complimenting Jeanne were Mary Minton, Joy Kent, Margie Clark, Jean Underwood, and Nancy Bennet.

Lorraine Irick Weds Utah Man

Lorraine Irick, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Crystal of Ashland and formerly of Klamath Falls, was married in a ceremony at the First Methodist church here on Wednesday afternoon to Ensign Keith Nebeker, of Springville, Utah.

The three o'clock ceremony was read by the Reverend Victor Phillips before a group of friends and relatives of the couple.

Maid of honor for the ceremony was Donna Brotherton and best man was Ensign Frank Waters.

Legion Dance

Fifty servicemen from the Marine Barracks and the Klamath naval air station were entertained Friday night at a party given for them by the American Legion.

Hostesses for the evening were a number of Junior Hostesses. The Junior Hostess group is an organization which appears at various servicemen's dances. The group is sponsored by the city military entertainment committee and the girls are taken into the group upon character references given by the dean of women at the high school and from other reliable sources.

Complimented

Barbara Schultz entertained at her home on South Sixth street Friday evening honoring Phyllis Hutchins who has just arrived here to make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hutchins of Lincoln street. Miss Hutchins has completed her second year at Ball State college in Indiana.

Honoring her were Virginia Turnbow, Letty Linman, Jean Underwood, Margie Palmerton, Naidine Palmerton, Marjorie Schultz, and the hostess.

Farewell

Mrs. Dora Goddard was hostess to a group of women honoring Mrs. Melvin P. Leonard who is leaving for Chico, California, on Tuesday evening, July 18, at a party at the Pelican. Mrs. Leonard was given a handkerchief shower.

Guests were Mrs. Mae K. Short, Mrs. Della Schroeder, Mrs. Ralph C. Brooks, Mrs. Harry Panning, Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. M. L. Shepherd, Mrs. J. A. Mahoney, Mrs. Millard Pedigo, and the hostess.

Shower

Mrs. Roy C. Whytal was the honor guest at a handkerchief shower given at the home of Mrs. W. H. McPherrin in St. Francis park. Mrs. Whytal is leaving soon to live in Eugene, her former home.

Bridge was played during the evening.

Guests were Mrs. Roy C. Whytal, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. Emil Paul, Mrs. Bert Schultz, Mrs. William Spangler, Mrs. E. Leonard, Mrs. J. A. Schubert, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. J. R. Fowler, and the hostess.

Friends happy to hear of the birth of a little girl to the Neil Blacks at the Emmanuel hospital in Portland on Monday. The baby has been named Jane Ruth and she has an older brother, Bruce, almost three. Major Black is a flight surgeon, now stationed in England.

This picture shows the entire group of Tulelake Cadettes. Left to right, they are Mrs. Gladys Ganger, advisor; Captain Carolyn Ryckman, Mrs. Margaret Stevenson, advisor; Mrs. Mary Johnson, advisor; Imogene Rowan, Corporal Myrtle Bowen, Master Sergeant Dorothy Thomas, Ardyce Brown, Shirley Main, Second Lieutenant Ruth Crowther, Dorothy Zlobek, Staff Sergeant Jean Scott, First-Lieutenant Marjorie Eagle, Wilrose Ferguson, Bette Campbell, Mary Dugan and Mary Frances Reiben. This group was a prominent one in marching units at the Fourth of July parade in Klamath Falls.

—Wesley Guderian