... and effort to make serv- men enjoy their stay here." Bell continued. "The recrea- program is progressing well. However, there must be a concerted effort on the part of the community to make avail- able to service families every possible bit of housing and to make it available at a price which they can afford to pay."

Examples Cited

An example was cited of a service couple being charged $35 a month for a single sleep- ing room. His monthly income is $68. Another case was that of a service family being charged $80 a month for a small apartment which never rented for more than $25 a month prior to the war.

Freight Loadings Posted in Month

SEATTLE, July 28 (AP)—The Pacific Northwest advisory board today announced the loading of 3,962 freight cars in its terri- last month, compared with 3,889 in June, 1943. Fruit load- ings continued low last month. It is reported, due to depleted ware- house stocks through heavy ship- ments early in the year.

Men! Ever wanted a locomotive fireman's job?

You know, up in the cab . . . maybe a string of war freights behind you . . . and power to go ahead. All right, Vital, too. Normally, not an easy job to get, but, however, Southern Pacific has some special openings for Firemen. And here's the thing: no experience needed. We'll train you in a couple of weeks. Then, as a full-fledged fireman you'll make around $20 per month even at base rate. (Some average considerably more.) Many extra advantages, too. At S. P.—fine pension plan, broad pass privileges, medical services, job with a big com- pany . . . with the one war in- dustry on which all others de- pend. Come in and talk it over. Write or write Trainmaster, S. P. Station, Klamath Falls, or your nearest S. P. Agent.

New Pine Creek

Grangers are looking forward to the next meeting on the evening of Saturday, August 6, which will be of short duration then all will adjourn to the pic- nic grounds for a good old wien- ner roast and a lot of fun. Wil- liam Holloway, in charge of the Lakeview home canning project, will be on hand to tell all about how everyone who desires can make use of the cannery. He says a lot of improvements have been made in the cannery in- stallations so that it is now one of the best of its kind in the state. Those who have large Vic- tory gardens to dispose of will find it to their advantage to avail themselves of these modern canning facilities.

Pvt. Jimmy Vincent, of the in- fantry, has been home visiting on a short furlough with his moth- er, Mrs. Mabel Vincent of Lake- view. He was a local visitor with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Vincent, last Monday. He is being transferred to a camp in Indiana from Texas, where he underwent the first stages of his training.

Claud Newcombe, of Lake- view, is expected home in about a week on a furlough from the east, where he has been training in the U. S. army engineers. It was learned through his wife, Mrs. Velma Newcombe.

How the U. S. National Bank OF PORTLAND Shows the Growth of the Great Northwest

The greatly increased importance of the Pacific Northwest is mirrored in a recent study which our Research Department has completed on the United States National Bank of Portland. Our report shows that this bank, the largest in Oregon, has seen its resources multiplied more than tenfold in the past twenty years and is preparing to meet the further great industrial development which is foreseen for this fastest growing region of our country.

Investors interested in this area and subject will also find valuable information on the bank's dividend record, distribution of resources, loan picture and preparation for the future. For a copy of this interesting study, sent without cost or obligation to you, write for booklet K.
