

Society

By Nadine Palmerton

Former Residents Wed in Oklahoma

Marian E. Hassett of San Francisco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison of Grants Pass, and Corporal Eugene E. Hamstreet, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hamstreet of Olympia, Washington, were married at the Church of the Assumption in Muskogee, Oklahoma, on Friday evening, July 7. Both young people are former residents of Klamath Falls.

The ceremony was read at 8 o'clock by the Reverend Paul V. Brown. The bride wore a street length dress of white jersey with white accessories and a shoulder length veil with a corsage of tallman rosebuds.

Mary Ratley, maid of honor, wore an aqua two-piece dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Private First Class Robert M. Oxler served as best man with Sergeant Carl A. Oakland and Private Elliott H. Moldenhauer assisting as ushers.

The traditional wedding marches and Schubert's "Ave Maria" were played by Organist Betty Dickmann during the ceremony.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the east lounge of the USO. The table was attractively decorated with bouquets of white petunias, white tapers, and a beautiful wedding cake which was cut by the bride and groom and served by Mary Bauer, hostess.

Later a party was held at the Sunset club for the wedding party and their guests.

Mrs. Hamstreet is a graduate of Grants Pass high school and the Interstate Business college in Klamath Falls. While in Klamath Falls she was employed by the dramatics department of Klamath Union high school and by the Fountain Supply company. For the past two years she has made her home in San Francisco.

Corporal Hamstreet is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and he also attended the Interstate Business college. He was employed by the dramatics department at the high school until he accepted a position with the Southern Pacific railroad in Dunsmuir, California. He enlisted in the army air forces in November, 1942, and is now stationed with a photo reconnaissance squadron at Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Luncheon

Mrs. Jay Hazzard was honored on Friday with a luncheon given for her by Mrs. Elbert Stiles at the Willard hotel. Mrs. Hazzard is Mrs. Stiles' sister and will be remembered as Delcie Foster. She and her daughter, Rosalie, have been at the Stiles home on Mesa, Mr. Hazzard having returned to their home in Glendale two weeks ago. He was formerly employed at the local Railway Express office and is now the agent for them in Glendale.

Before the luncheon, cocktails were served in the ladies' room of the Elks club to several friends of Mrs. Hazzard's, including Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Estin Kiger, Mrs. Paul Dalton, Mrs. E. O. Foster, Edna Jansson and the hostess.

Niece Honored

Mrs. Elbert Stiles entertained for her niece, Rosalie Hazzard, who is visiting here from her home in Glendale, California, recently. A matinee was enjoyed by Bernie and Jack Alexander, Sue Rensby, Sally Soukup, Sue Thompson, Emilee Ann Carter and Rosalie. After the movie ice cream and cake were served and games were played.

Mrs. Robert Thompson complimented Rosalie with a luncheon on Friday, July 21, at the Thompson home on Pacific Terrace. Those invited were Sally Soukup, Karen Kiger, Sue Thompson and Rosalie.

Mrs. E. O. Foster entertained for her granddaughter, Rosalie, when twenty of her little friends were invited to Moore park for a picnic. Rosalie and her mother, Mrs. Jay Hazzard, have been guests of Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Elbert Stiles for the past month and returned to their home in Glendale on Monday.

Elks Dance

The Elks sponsored another of their dances for men of the Marine Barracks, the naval air station, and Camp Tulelake, Friday night at the Elks' temple.

Junior Hostesses again attended the dance as hostesses. Music was furnished by the Tulelake Guardsmen and dancing was enjoyed from 9 until 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Freeman were married recently in a ceremony at the First Presbyterian church here. Mrs. Freeman is the former Mary Jane Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Manning of this city. —Kennell-Ellis

Mary Jane Manning Weds Recently

On Leave

Some of Klamath's women who have entered the armed forces are home this week on leave from various training centers and bases throughout the country. For many, this is the first time home since they have been in the service.

Nan and Adra Goeller, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller, are lucky enough to get a leave at the same time from their duties as WAVES. Nan is a storekeeper 2/c, stationed at Treasure Island, and Adra is a seaman 1/c from the naval training station in San Diego.

Home from the naval station at Clearfield, Utah, is June McMullen, who is a yeoman 3/c stationed there. June is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks of 934 Pacific Terrace and also with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Snyder of Reclamation street.

Dorothy Pomroy is home until August 1, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sexton. Dorothy is a seaman 1/c stationed at San Diego.

Mrs. Annabel Smith of Brookings, former resident of Shasta View, spent the weekend in Klamath Falls visiting with relatives and friends.

Mary Jane Manning, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Manning of Henley, was married in a ceremony read in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, July 16, to Luther Freeman, son of Mrs. Dorothy Vestel of Terrebonne, Oregon.

The Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. performed the 9 o'clock ceremony on Sunday evening before a few friends and relatives of the couple.

Traditional white was chosen by the bride who also wore a fingertip veil caught at the head with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a lovely bouquet of red roses and white gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Dorothea Beckwith and bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Geraldine Manning. Dorothea wore a pale rose floor length gown and Geraldine chose a light pink dress. Both wore shoulder corsages of pastel summer flowers.

Best man was James Crawford and usher for the occasion was William Dyer.

Before the ceremony, Alma Farrell sang "Oh Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Denison on the church organ.

The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and tall white tapers were used. The ceremony was read by candlelight.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the apartment of the bride's sister. There the bride and groom cut a large wedding cake which was served to a few close friends and relatives.

The young couple left Monday for Portland on their wedding trip. For going away, the new Mrs. Freeman wore a blue suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Later the bride returned to Seattle, where she has been employed for some time and Private Freeman returned to his base with the army air corps at Hobbs, New Mexico.

Reames Dance

Plans are now being made for an informal dance which will be held for members of the Reames Golf and Country club on Saturday, August 12.

Those in charge of arrangements for the coming affair are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook.

Music for the dance will be furnished by the Tulelake Guardsmen.

Wed in Reno

Married in Reno on July 17 were Dorothea Hamilton and George McNulty, both of this city. The couple were wed in the presence of a few close friends at the First Methodist church in Reno by the Rev. F. H. Busher. They will make their home at 1720 Eldorado.

Sojourners entertained their husbands and guests with an enjoyable picnic Wednesday evening at Moore park. Mrs. Wilbur Shannon was in charge of the committee for arrangements.

Guests for the evening included Mrs. Lottie Moffatt, Mrs. B. Huenegard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whytal, Second Lieutenant Kay Beatty of the WACS, Lieutenant (jg) E. Ruth Hedemon, USNR, Ensign Marian Hodgson, USNR, S 1/c and Mrs. H. A. Storey, Captain and Mrs. F. G. Lewis, Harry Land, C. S. Elliot, Sergeant J. R. King, Corporal Bert Hegler Jr., Corporal Lowell W. Kuntze, Corporal W. P. Woods, PFC Lee A. Koplin, PFC Walter R. McLeod, PFC Max Hawley, PFC John W. Lyon, PFC Ernest A. Romanoff, and PFC Francis J. Farina.

The next regular meeting of the Sojourners will be held on August 9, at the Willard hotel with a no-hostess luncheon at 12:15 p. m., and with the meeting and cards at 1:45 p. m. All newcomers to Klamath Falls are welcome to these meetings.

Verna Cheyne became the bride of Herman Turnbaugh in Tulelake on July 15. She is the daughter of Mrs. F. M. Cheyne of Henley. —Kennell-Ellis

Karlene Schubert to Marry Soon

Announcing her engagement at a luncheon given for a few friends and relatives Saturday afternoon, July 29, was Karlene Schubert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert of this city.

Karlene will wed Corporal Fred O. McNaught, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNaught of Santa Ana, California, with plans for the wedding to be announced soon.

The news was told at the party held at the Schubert home on Lincoln. Guests were given white, and blue corsages to which was attached a small roll saying "Karlene and Fred." Bright summer flowers were placed around the rooms.

Karlene is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and attended Armstrong's Business college in Berkeley and Oregon State college at Corvallis. She is affiliated with the Gamma Kappa sorority there. While attending school she has been one of the most active members of the Commandos, being the group soon after it was organized.

Corporal McNaught is with the marine corps stationed at the local Marine Barracks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simmers, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Annabel Smith, of Brookings, have returned to Klamath Falls and will go to Salem for awhile, hoping that the change of climate will benefit the health of Mrs. Simmers.

Lecture Series

Dr. Adolph Weinzirl and Mrs. George Moorehead of the E. C. Brown trust division of social hygiene at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland will appear here Monday to present two lectures.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the Little Theatre, they will speak to all interested women in the community on the topic, "Health in Wartime." This is a community problem, as well as a personal one, and Dr. Weinzirl and Mrs. Moorehead will bring information and facts from the medical school.

At 7:30 in the Little Theatre at the high school, the two will speak to the Junior Hostesses and Commandos on the topic, "The Importance of Health in Wartime." Next week will be the last of the series of six lectures.

Junior Matrons

The Junior Matrons' of the First Methodist church met on Tuesday, July 18, at the home of Mrs. Ray Garrison, 2398 Garden, with Mrs. Don Potter assisting. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. M. H. Melcher presiding, and after the meeting work was continued on the Red Cross quilts started at the previous meeting. There will be no meeting in August.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. P. M. Deller, Mrs. David Snyder, Mrs. Florence Edmondson, Mrs. Frank Lambo, Mrs. Hazel Samson, Mrs. Audra Fulquartz, Mrs. M. H. Melcher, Mrs. Walter Herridon, Mrs. Christ Huck, Mrs. P. H. Rozendal, Mrs. Floris Case, Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger, Mrs. Stewart Snell, Mrs. Wendell B. Smith and Mrs. J. R. McLellan.

Members of the Happy Hour club will be hostesses to their husbands and families at a picnic dinner to be held at Moore park on Sunday afternoon, July 30, at 1:30 o'clock. Those attending the affair are requested by the president, Mrs. Frank Evans, to bring their own table service.

Birthday Party

TULELAKE—The navy, army and marines shared honors at a birthday party for service men with birthdays in July, which was given the evening of July 27 in the servicemen's room by the Tulelake Cadettes. Twelve young men, including Captain Erwin, provost marshal at Camp Tulelake, were remembered with gifts by the girls and shared the big birthday cake topped with pink candles. Refreshments were served to 125 service men and as many young women during the course of the evening.

Three Tulelake boys, home from duty, were also among the guests, including Second Lieutenant Sherman Waldrip, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waldrip, who is serving with the ordnance department of the army, John Coulson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coulson, whose home is on the state line, and Harry Galloway, who is spending his furlough with his mother and sisters. John and Harry are in the air technical training corps, graduating from St. Maries pre-flight school, and will report back to Norman, Oklahoma.

Music for the dancing was furnished by the Tulelake Guardsmen. Miss Brown of Tulelake played two piano numbers and two accordion numbers were offered by Patty Gentry.

Military police from Camp Tulelake whose courtesy goes far in helping to make the dances for the service men a success, were highly commended this week by Mrs. French Johnson, adult advisor for the Cadettes.

Julia Denault Weds Navy Man

At an informal wedding on the evening of July 15, Miss Julia Denault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Denault of Oregon avenue, became the bride of William Walder, seaman first class of the U. S. navy, son of Mrs. Susan Walder of Akron, Ohio.

The 8 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by Father Tighe at the Sacred Heart church and was attended only by members of the family.

The bride wore a light blue dressmaker suit with blue accessories for the occasion, and with it wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annabelle Denault, who also wore an outfit of blue. Seaman 1/c Paul Dombay attended the bridegroom.

Mrs. Walder is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy and is well known here where she has resided for a number of years. Just before her marriage she returned from San Francisco where she had been employed for several months, and has recently accepted a position with Mason Ehrman company.

Seaman Walder who is an aviation metalsmith, has been located at the Klamath naval air station since January, and prior to that was in training at Pensacola, Fla., and Norman, Okla. He is an outstanding member of the air station, baseball team.

Housewarming

A group of friends honored Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Frasier with a surprise housewarming at their new home on 3112 Cannon, Thursday evening, July 27. They were presented with several lovely gifts. The Frasier's recently purchased the former residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heath.

Those enjoying the evening were Dorothy Smith, Mildred Wilkinson, Marie Pike, Caroline Holbert, Mae Capps, Kathleen Hepburn, Bell Thompkins, Laura Baldwin, Ruby Bell, Vivian Bell, Blanche Pyle, Grace Crump, Claude and Maude Hollingworth and the Frasier's.

Corporal and Mrs. Eugene Hamstreet were married recently in a ceremony read in Muskogee, Oklahoma, where Corporal Hamstreet is stationed with the army air forces. Mrs. Hamstreet is the former Marian Hassett and both are former Klamath Falls residents.

Seaman First Class and Mrs. William Walder were married here in the Sacred Heart church on July 15. Mrs. Walder was Julia Denault before she was married. —Kennell-Ellis