Howdy Folks: Reckon I better git me some Kangaroo boots so I kin jump 'round faster like. The Saddle Club is to quick fer me. Them girls are like a steel trap, jist snap and they're at it when it somes to gettin' things done. Now there's some hoss races to take in at the Fairgrounds August 6th along with a hoss show with purses fer all types of hoss flesh with riders on 'em. . . The Saddle Club held a meetin' and got things ta rollin' and made up some purses fer all events but a few goin's on where they'll give some ribbons. You'd think money come out of a pump, but they got the right idea of keepin' it in circulation and ridin' being made more popular all the time. Thar is ta be a hoss sale tomorrow and I jist took a look at the sale stock and I'm surprised at all the hay burners and good ones rounded up fer this affair. While I wuz out thar I noticed some bangtails on the way to Gresham fer a race meet. Spec some of them will be in the race here the 6th as they are here to get their hosses in shape. Startin' to-day the track will be worked into shape so they can boot 'em home fer your entertainment. I had my kin folks here a visitin' me from Hollywood and I didn't stick to my trainin' while they wuz here, so don't have much news. I saw 'em over the line this morning on the way home and I'm not braggin' but I've got to fergit these dude ways I've been a carryin' on and settle down for I try to pull my trousers on over my head. Now 'bout this here hoss show . . . make your entries early and at Charlie Read's Saddle Shop. All entries close Friday nite before the 6th so the gals can get the programs printed and all on-lookers will know which, which is which. Your paper will carry the dope of the races and show, all you haff to do is go see it. Help these girls keep the West Western. Bye now.

Sports Briefs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

By FRITZ HOWELL
(Pinch-Hitting for Hugh Fullerton Jr.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—Some bits of baseball:

A member of the St. Louis Post Dispatch sports staff found a fan who wants to bet the Browns win the world series, but Sports Editor John E. Wray turns down all inquiries with: "No, you can't have his address—we saw him first!"

Tom Brown, the new 16-year-old shortstop signed by the Dodgers may be a help to the Bums after all. They say he's big enough to wear long pants. Which brings up the observation that these wartime infields boast no tinkers-to-evers-to-chance combinations—they're just tinkers, and you'd better read it fast.

Seriously: Don't be surprised if Bill Skiff, competent skipper of the Seattle club of the Pacific coast loop, takes over a big league club next year. Several biggies are stalking the Yankee-trained pilot.

Red Sox Acquire Cecil From San Diego Padres

BOSTON, Aug. 1 (AP)—With two months of play remaining in the pennant race, the Boston Red Sox tonight moved to bolster their pitching staff by acquiring Rex Cecil from San Diego for three players and an unannounced sum of cash.

General Manager Eddie Collins of the Boston club announced the Pacific Coast team received on option Johnny Lazor, catcher and outfielder, and Lou Lucier and Joe Wood, Louisville pitchers, plus a sum of cash.

The Coast league strikeout king, who will report to Boston before August 14, is 27 years old and has a medical discharge from the army.

Solons to Meet San Francisco

By The Associated Press

If the fast climbing Sacramento Solons continue an early season record they should fatten their Pacific Coast Baseball league standings again this week against second-place San Francisco.

The Solons, who moved from last to sixth place last week, have won 10 and lost four in competition with the Seals this season. Willie Werle will open for the Seals tonight in an attempt to retrieve his record of four losses against no wins against the Solons. He faces stiff competition in Clem Dreisewerd, who has won four for four.

The tobogganning Seattle Rainiers meet a likewise slipping Oakland nine at Oakland, and Hollywood opens against San Diego in other league play tonight. Portland and Los Angeles open tomorrow night.

CHASE SCORES WIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1 (AP) Jack Chase, 162, Walsenburg, Colo., hunched out an easy 10-round decision over Jimmy Hayden, 162, New York, last night. Chase staggered Hayden with hard punches in the fourth and tenth rounds.

Washington Hits Cellar As Boston, St. Louis Load Up For Final Pennant Push

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Washington's mid-winter pennant boom vanished in thin air today as the Nats hit the American league cellar while the St. Louis Browns and Boston Red Sox, once a couple of "also-rans," loaded up for the stretch drive.

The Browns and Red Sox, who were supposed to be playing merely for exercise while Washington and New York fought for the flag, took charge of the battle as the clubs neared the two-thirds marker by strengthening their weakest spots.

St. Louis acquired Catcher Tom Turner from the White Sox via the waiver route to bolster Frank Mancuso and Red Hayworth. Boston picked up Rex Cecil from San Diego, the Pacific coast strikeout king to report before August 14 and give Tex Hughson a hand in the department that has been the club's glaring weakness.

Even the New York Yankees, currently in third place but only 5½ games back, sought a new catcher to replace Rollie Hemsley who will be inducted Monday. To date no results had been announced.

Washington dipped into the basement last night after bowing to St. Louis, 3-2. Homers by Vern Stephens and Lefty McQuinn helped Jack Kramer take the nod over Roger Wolff, making his first start in a month.

Boston kept pace with the Brownies by shading Cleveland, 1-0, on an unearned run in the ninth. Mike Ryba and Red Barrett, who relieved in the last frame, yielded only two hits as did the Tribe's Steve Gromek. Pete Fox's single following a two-base error by Mickey Rocco told the story.

Philadelphia pushed past Chicago in the 10th, 3-2, as Hal Epps' single followed Buddy Hall's triple to give Russ Christopher the win over Orval Grove. Detroit and New York were not scheduled.

Brooklyn's Hal Gregg ended a two-month victory famine by beating St. Louis, 6-1, his first win since May 30. Mort Cooper was hammered off the hill in three frames.

Chicago took its seventh straight, 5-1, on Hy Vandenberg's three-hitter as the Phillies bowed for the ninth in a row, but the Cubs failed to reach their first division goal as the New York Giants topped Cincinnati, 9-7. Rookie Andy Hansen relieved Bill Voiselle to throw a fancy eight-inning job for the first big league win.

Fritz Ostermueller of Pittsburgh, stopped Boston, 9-2, with two hits, trimming Nate Andrews and chiming in with three hits for the cause.

Teams to Clash For Semi-Pro Championship

PORTLAND, Aug. 1 (AP)—The Miller Lumber nine of Eugene and McElroy's Ballroom of Portland meet tonight for the Oregon semi-pro baseball championship.

The power-packed Lumbermen moved into the finals last night by blanking Reliable Shoe of Portland, 3-0. McElroy's tripped Commercial Iron of Portland, 6-2.

Southpaw Archie Hayes pitched shut-out ball for the Eugene team, striking out 10 and allowing only five hits. His teammates scored in the first inning on a single by Jack Walton after Bill Moye doubled to center. Two singles and two Portland errors produced two more runs in the fifth.

Katonan Successful In Title Defense; To Risk Belt Here

Promoter Mack Lillard received a telegram Tuesday morning from Paavo Katonan informing him that Katonan had successfully defended his Pacific coast light heavyweight title against Jack Lipscomb in Portland Monday night.

That means the title will be at stake for Friday night's clash at the armory when Paavo meets Herb Parks. Katonan plans to send the belt itself down to Klamath shortly, where it will be on display in town as well as at the armory the night of the match.
