DIES GROUP NAMES 15 PAC LEADERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—The Dies committee made public today the names of fifteen men and women identified as prominent in activities of the CIO political action committee and formerly government officials.

The list was prepared by Robert E. Stripling, chief committee investigator, from data obtained by the committee during its investigation of the PAC. Most of the fifteen, Stripling said, resigned their government jobs only recently.

Heading the list was C. B. Baldwin, assistant chairman of the PAC and former head of the farm security administration.

The others on the list:

Charlotte Carr, New York director for the PAC, formerly with the war manpower commission.

C. A. McPeak, Texas PAC director, formerly with the war production board.

George S. Mitchell, southern PAC director, formerly assistant head of the farm security administration.

Amer Lehman, PAC director for Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico, Utah and Arizona, formerly with the farm security administration.

Raymond S. McKeough, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin PAC director, former member of congress and regional OPA director.

Leisa Bronson, Los Angeles PAC office, formerly with the library of congress.

Joseph Caer, PAC research expert, formerly with the treasury department.

Emil Corwin, PAC radio director, formerly with the agriculture department.

Clark Foreman, secretary of the national citizens political action committee, formerly with the public works administration.

Sidney Hillman, PAC chairman, formerly with the office for production management.

Thomas Burns, assistant to Hillman, formerly with the office for production management.

Ping Perry, PAC publicity director, formerly OPA investigator in New Hampshire.

Verda Barnes, director of the PAC women's division, formerly assistant director of information for the war manpower commission.

Thomas R. Amlie, head of the PAC research division, former member of congress and once nominated by the president for membership on the interstate commerce commission.

Airport Use Saves Timber From Fires

OKANOGAN, Aug. 2 (AP) — Use of isolated Pasayten forest service airport in northwest Okanogan county enabled forest service crews to save thousands of acres of virgin timber in the Chelan national forest primitive area, L. T. Jolley, fire assistant of the forest, reported.

Fire fighters confined to 800 acres a blaze in the area 60 miles north of Winthrop and six miles south of the Canadian border this week.

The crew of 90 men and all equipment was flown to the airfield, only a short distance from the fire.

Portland Prepares For Celebration

PORTLAND, Aug. 2 (AP)—Portland's retail trade bureau went ahead with plans today for a patriotic celebration when Germany surrenders, despite opposition from Chief of Police Harry Niles.

"We won't be able to hold our employes, anyway," said R. L. Childs, chairman of the trade bureau.

The same sirens that signalled Invasion Day will sound the victory. Three hundred stores will suspend business but war plants will keep on working.

ATTENDS SERVICES

SOERVILLE, Mass., Aug. 2 (AP) Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the president, was among the mourners who today attended funeral services for Miss Marguerite Alice Le Hand, 46, who for 20 years was personal secretary to Mr. Roosevelt.

Have a "Coke" = What's the hurry?

...a way to be carefree in the Caribbean

Between spells of duty at our southern outposts, the American soldier knows how to relax. Have a "Coke", says a thirsty Yank, and it's like a friendly invitation to fun or a chin-fest... the same as when you serve Coca-Cola in your home. From the Caribbean to the Arctic, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the high-sign of friendliness many places overseas.

Coca-Cola
-the global high-sign

"Coke" = Coca-Cola
It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".

An open letter to all Klamath County girls, 18 to 26 . . . .

Dear Girls:

We know you've heard about the "MISS KLAMATH" contest. We are sure you know that if you are single, photogenic, etc., you are eligible to enter. We know, too, that you realize to win this contest would . . . well, those are the things dreams are made of. BUT — this is no DREAM and there's no time to lose! REGISTER NOW!

For you girls who have entered the contest already; be sure to mark these "red letter" days on your calendars!

AUGUST 5 — Registration closes. All contestants to be introduced from Pelican theatre stage in evening.

AUGUST 12 — Twelve finalists to be presented from stage at Baldy Evans' armory dance.

AUGUST 16 — Final judging on Pelican theatre stage. After final judging "MISS KLAMATH" and alternate will be introduced by JAN GARBER at the armory.

Now you know all the details. From here on it's up to you!
GOOD LUCK!

Sincerely,
Junior Chamber of Commerce
