"Going My Way" Said to Be Best Of Crosby Pictures

No one ever suspected that Bing Crosby, as a man of the cloth, could give a heart-warming performance. From all reports, though, Bing's characterization as a priest in Paramount's "Going My Way," brings him into the limelight for top academy award laurels, theatre officials said today.

A major share of the credit must go to Leo McCarey for his direction of this great motion picture which opens this weekend at the Esquire and Tower theatres. His understanding of human elements blessed the production with goodness from the very start. Preview audiences marveled at the tempo and pacing of "Going My Way," and humbly paid their respects with salvos of applause to the actors who made scene after scene so lifelike.

Pentecost Car Hit On Street Today

A car driven by W. J. Pentecost, foreman at Big Lakes, was hit on South Sixth street about 3 a. m. this morning, by a car pulling out from the stop signal at Altamont drive.

S. H. Hawkins, U. S. navy, San Francisco, was driving the other car, which is owned by John E. Hawkins, 925 Newcastle. Pentecost claimed $350 damage to his car.

A motorized infantry division consumes 12,500 gallons of gasoline per 100 miles.

German Prisoner Leaves Stockade

SEATTLE, Aug. 3 (AP)— The federal bureau of investigation announced today that a German war prisoner had escaped from the stockade at Fort Lewis. He was listed as Karl Schwingenheuer, 26; 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighing 143 lbs., and having blue eyes, blond hair and a wound scar on his right arm. He speaks some English.

AMERICANS FATTENING UP

Department of Agriculture estimates that despite war requirements civilians in the U. S. in 1943 consumed 5 per cent to 7 per cent more food than in the pre-war average 1935-39 and only about 2 per cent less than in 1942.

Long's

NEW shipment of sweaters arrived at Long's this week. . . . So many different styles and weaves that I know there must be at least one of the kind you nt.

here are cardigans, slip- boxy styles, short and long eves. . . . All the luscious Fall shades. . . . And clev- knits, from soft, fine ones to ubby. . . . And all the kinds etween. . . . From $2.95 to 5.

While I was in the store this ek, Nick Long told me that es and cartons of suits are iving almost every day. . . . d I saw some new arrivals re that I simply must talk ut.

They are tailored styles with ressy" touches. . . . Like scal- ed revers, or unusual pock- . . . That give new attrac- ness to the simplicity of the lored styling.

Of course, Long's has beau- l dressmaker suits, too. . . . d all kinds of suits. . . . Pin- ripes, tiny checks, solid des. . . . Soft lightweight ls, novelty weaves and hard sh. . . . Really, it's impossi- to describe them.

Prices on suits range from 5 to $69.50. . . . And there's tremendous selection. . . . At ng's. . . . 719 Main Street.

Whytal's

IGHT now Whytal's is hav- ing one of those clear-'em- out sales that the store is noted for. . . . All the Summer clothes, and lots of year-around classics. Because, as Marge told me, hat's the use of keeping em in the store when I don't ve room to even stack up the es of new stuff?"

It's the kind of sale that kes one go sort of crazy. . . . I'd had time yesterday I uld have gotten something every occasion. . . . But as was, I got a darling black suit ich was marked down from 50 to $15.

Here are examples of the rgains. . . . The inexpensive tons, seersuckers, linens, ers, etc., formerly priced up $5.95, are now $3.

Those with a price range om $6.95 to $10.95. . . . In- uding Cay Artleys, Suzettes, ains, prints, sheers. . . . Even me new play-clothes with de- chable skirts that just came (late). . . . Are now $5.

The better jerseys, 2-piece esses, meshes, linens, "dressy" esses, that sold from $10.95 $20.95, are now $9.

Suits and coats that still bear ice tags marked from $25 to 9.50 are going at $9. . . . ose up to $45 are priced now $15.

I'd suggest you get down to hytal's and look things over urself. . . . Ninth and Main reets.

Garcelon's

NEW shipment of inexpensive dinnerware has arrived at Garcelon's. . . . American-made. . . . And it's so good-looking that I suggest you drop down to k at it.

There are seven different patns, really pretty ones. . . . prices that run like this: rvices for 6, $8.95 and $11.95. Services for 8, $12.95 to 0.

Garcelon's also has received ot of new silverware. . . . I n cutlery. . . . It's chrome- ed with plastic handles. . . . the sets range in price m $8.95 to $17.95, depend- mostly on the number of ces in the set.

Garcelon's is at 407 Main eet, you know.

Currin's

AFTER lying around in the shade a couple of Sundays ago, and getting sunburned, I decided that even staying at home has its hazards. . . . And went to Currin's the very next day to get stuff to put on my face and keep sunburn away.

Have you ever tried the Rubinstein line for suntanning? . . . There are three kinds that I know are good, from my own experience. . . . And Currin's has a good stock of them all.

One is Sunburn Oil. . . . Which is just what it is called. . . . An oil to prevent sunburn, with properties in it which filter out the harmful rays of the sun and allow you to get a beautiful tan, quickly. . . . It's $1.00 for a 3-ounce bottle, plus tax.

Then there's Liquid Sunshine, which is a lotion for the same purpose. . . . It filters out the burning rays, and is non-greasy. . . . And, in addition, has something in it that is an insect repellent. . . . So is wonderful to take fishing, if you can go fishing. . . . I know several men who use it and swear by it, because it protects them from the water-reflected sun and also from the mosquitos which seem to be unusually annoying this Summer. . . . It comes in two sizes, 85c and $1.50, plus tax.

And then there is Rubinstein's Suntan Cream. . . . It's a lovely foundation cream. . . . And, if you use it heavily and powder over it, you can just about keep your lily-white complexion intact. . . . Or you can acquire a soft suntan through its use. . . . It's $1.00 for a 4-ounce bottle, plus tax.

It's a good thing to use something to protect you from the sun, because otherwise your skin gets too dry and then there's a lot of work ahead to soften and smooth it.

Ask about these Rubinstein products at Currin's. . . . The girls there know a lot more about them than I.

Currin's is at 840 Main Street. . . . On the corner of Ninth and Main.

Your Store

IF you want to get in on some good buys in blankets. . . . While the buying is good. . . . Be sure to drop in at Your Store and look at the blanket selection.

You can go in for the "blanket club" for as little as 50c down, Earl Isaac told me. . . . And every one of the blankets is from a nationally advertised line.

Your Store keeps most of the blankets up on the mezzanine floor, and there still are some people in Klamath Falls who don't know they're there!

Well, they ought to see them. . . . Every kind of blanket, from cotton sheet blankets at $1.39, through army and navy blankets and all the various wool percentages (10-25-50-80-100 per cent).

The nicest blanket in the store, I think, is a fine-woven one called St. Mary's "Linden." . . . It has a wider-than-usual satin binding, and costs $22.95.

While the 100 per cent wool blankets range in price from $11.95, on up, the one that is the biggest buy for the money, I think, is the "Springfield" made by the Wamsutta mills, which sells for $16.95.

And Your Store has a good stock of blankets with around 80 per cent wool in them, that are priced at $8.95 and $9.95.

Incidentally, one nice thing about a "blanket club" is that you can buy several better blankets, pay for them in dribbles, and by the time you need them you feel as if you got them for nothing, because they are all paid for!

Your Store is at 721 Main Street.
