

SOCIETY

By Nadine
Palmerton

Betty Fairclo to Wed Lt. Whitlatch

Another Klamath Falls girl has joined the ranks of the brides. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fairclo of Henley district have announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to Lieutenant Lt. W. Whitlatch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Whitlatch, of this city.

Both young people are well known in this community where they attended school at Klamath Union high school.

The news was first made public when Betty was honored recently in Berkeley, California, by friends and business associates who complimented her before she returned to Klamath Falls.

She has attended Oregon State college and, more recently, Armstrong's Business college in Berkeley.

Lt. Whitlatch is with the navy air corps stationed at El Paso, Texas. The date for the wedding has not yet been definitely set.

Buffet Supper

June McMullen, Y 3/c with WAVES, was honored at a buffet supper party Tuesday evening given for her at the home of Mrs. J. J. Palmer on Pacific Terrace, June 15, for duty in Clearfield, Utah, on Thursday.

Those invited were the honor guests, Virginia Turnbow, Susan Paul, Barbara Schultz, Mary Hendry, Dorothy Riggs, Betty Hansen, June O'Brien, Bettie Hopkins and Margie and Nadine Palmerton.

No-Host Dinner

Complimenting Mr. M. W. Coseboom, now residing in Southern California, who has been visiting in Klamath Falls, his former home, a group of friends gathered Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. J. Palmer on Lincoln street for a no-host dinner, followed by cards.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cofer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. George Biehn, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. John M. Hamilton, Mrs. Ivy Propst and Mr. Coseboom.

Theatre Party

Continuing a summer program of informal meetings, members of the Business and Professional Women's club are invited to attend a no-host theatre party at the Esquire on Monday evening, August 7.

Those attending are asked to meet in the theatre lobby by 7:30 o'clock. Following the showing of Bing Crosby's new picture, "Going My Way," the club will adjourn to the home of Mrs. Stella Bowne on High street for sack-lunch refreshments. Each member is asked to bring her own refreshments and two or three sandwiches and cake, and those not contacted in regard to the party may call Jacquelin Newcom, 4895.

Wednesday Club

The committee in charge of the annual fall tea and the rummage sale sponsored by the Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church met last week to make plans for the fall events. Mrs. Richard Hibbs was hostess to the committee for a luncheon at her home on Eldorado.

Mrs. C. D. Ough has been named chairman of the fall tea which is to be given on Wednesday, August 30, in the Pelican party room.

The date for the rummage sale will be announced later by Chairman Dorothy Lolcoma. Anyone wishing to know more about the rummage sale or wishing to contribute rummage is asked to call the chairman at 8575.

Mrs. Hibbs served luncheon to the following members of the committee: Mrs. Truman Berg, Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Donald McKay, Mrs. Harold Shaffer, Mrs. Ed Goeckner, Mrs. Ed Schneebeck, Mrs. C. D. Ough, Willa Cowles and Dorothy Lolcoma.

Informal Dance

Plans are going ahead for the informal dance to be held for members of the Reames Golf and Country club and their guests on Saturday, August 12, starting at 10 o'clock. Music for the party will be supplied by the Tulalake Guardsmen.

Members of the dance committee are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Schuck, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller.

Plans are also being made for several informal parties for those going to the dance before the evening at the Reames gets under way.

Wedding

Barbara Jean Mather of Otumwa, Ia., became the bride on Monday, July 31, of Max Eugene Derby at an eight o'clock ceremony read by the Rev. Howard F. Hutchins of the First Christian church. The wedding was performed at the George W. Hillis home on Eldorado.

The bridal couple was attended by PFC and Mrs. Paul C. Crawford. Before the ceremony, "I Love You Truly" was sung. After the wedding a large cake was cut by the bride. PFC Derby is stationed at the Marine Barracks here.

Home on Leave

These three pretty WAVES were among women in service home on leave this week. Nan and Adra Goeller are the only sisters recruited from the local recruiting office and both are thrilled with their work in the WAVES. Nan is a storekeeper second class stationed on Treasure Island, and Adra is a seaman first class stationed at the naval air station in San Diego. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller.

June McMullen is a yeoman third class stationed with the naval supply depot in Clearfield, Utah. She left on Thursday to return to her work there after spending her leave here with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks and with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Snyder.

—Kennell-Ellis photos.

Officers and Guests Dance at Reames

"One of the best dances of the season" was the opinion of those who attended the dance given by the Navy Officers' Wives club last Saturday evening at the Reames Golf and Country club. Guests were officers and their guests from the Klamath naval air station and from the Marine Barracks.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the newly formed dance band from the Marine Barracks and those attending are still talking about the music played by the boys. The orchestra, under the direction of Technical Sergeant Julius J. Zamzow, has been judged as good or better than many of the big "name" bands.

Mrs. J. Miller Babcock, president of the Navy Officers' Wives club, had charge of arrangements for the affair which lasted from nine until one o'clock.

Picnic at Park

Members of the Happy Hour club, their husbands and numerous guests picnicked last Sunday afternoon, July 30, at Moore park when places were set for about fifty.

Those enjoying this annual affair of the club included Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mr. and Mrs. G. Motschenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Heidrich, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sevidge, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandell, Mr. and Mrs. George Biehn, Mrs. Ivy Propst, Mrs. Albert Langer, Mrs. Frank Frankford, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Maud Hosley, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. H. A. Funk, Mrs. J. H. Hamilton.

Guests included Mrs. Lula Wilson, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby, Mrs. Marian Heidrich, Mrs. Alice Goeller, Mr. M. W. Coseboom, Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul Johnson and two grandchildren, Charmion and Carol Ann Biehn, Louise Barnhart, Marjorie Redkey, Gary and Peter Heidrich, Loralou Rolph and Jerry Barker of Fort Klamath.

The next meeting of the club, set for September 12, will be held at the home of Mrs. Carl Sandell on Lincoln street.

Lecture Series

Concluding a series of six lectures will be Dr. Lawrence Bee, professor of sociology at the University of Oregon in Eugene, who will give two lectures on Monday at the Little Theatre in the high school.

Dr. Bee will speak at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to all women in the community interested in community problems and their own education. Attendance at the afternoon lectures has not been as high as desired and all women are urged to take advantage of the opportunity to hear Dr. Bee speak to the younger women on the topic, "The Rules of Courtship." The evening series of lectures has been well received here with quite a large group of girls listening to the speakers on Monday nights.

Four Years Old

Hazel Jo Washburn celebrated her fourth birthday on Friday, July 28, when her mother, Mildred Washburn, and Mrs. Homer DeLameter were hostesses at a party held at the DeLameter home at 2265 Patterson.

Games were played on the lawn and Hazel Jo was presented with many gifts. Ice cream and birthday cake were served later.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Jimmy Fuller and Walter and Rachel, Mrs. Leona Eglund and Larry, Mrs. Bryce Hammond and Sharrion and Buddy, Carol and Alice Baker, Marylou Hanson, Dorothy Salisbury, Betty Vahl, Dorothy Seymour, Douglas and Phyllis Golden, Patty and Wayne Buck, Roger Weir, Gerta Fae Lunston, Sharrion Styles, Jack and Sharleen Kirkpatrick, Janet Humphrey, Beverly Fuller and the hostesses and honored guest.

Family Reunion

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell on Sunday in Ashland in honor of PFC Alfred A. Larson, who was home on leave from Camp Forest, Tennessee. A large dinner was enjoyed by all those present.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Coin of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. James Coin of Eugene, Mrs. Clifford Crawford of Astoria, Mrs. Ray Sheird, June Wilkins of Long Beach, Nellie Boatman of Portland, Louie Boatman, Jr., of Portland, Billie and Jerry Leslie of Ashland, Barbara Jean, Charles, Jimmie and Sharon Mitchell and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell.

Legion Dance

The American Legion sponsored a dance on Tuesday night for servicemen at the Veteran's Memorial hall. Hostesses for the dance were members of the Junior Hostess organization. Music was furnished by the Tulalake Guardsmen.

Friends bade farewell this past week to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baker, who have moved to The Dalles where Mr. Baker will serve as manager of the Western Union office. During their more than twelve years of residence here, the Bakers were in charge of the Postal Telegraph office and for the past several years have made their home on Homedale road.