

Bridal Shower Is Event of This Week

Honored at a lovely bridal shower Tuesday evening was Mrs. Don Mast, the former Barbara Moore, who was married recently in San Diego. She has returned to Klamath Falls to live with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chesleigh O. Moore, while Don is overseas with the navy.

Fern Pennington and Anna Mae Peterson entertained for Mrs. Mast at the party given at the Pennington home on Portland.

During the evening games were played and later the honor guest opened her gifts.

A large white cake centered the refreshment table and two small bowls of sweet peas and tall white tapers were used for decoration.

Guests invited for the evening were Mrs. C. O. Moore, Mrs. I. J. Ogden, Mrs. I. J. Ogden Jr., of Eugene, Mrs. Lester Pennington, Mrs. Larry Ray, Mrs. Kenneth Ramsey, Kathleen Angel, Jackie Obrist, Mary Ellen Long, Marlys Steinsiefer, Christina Demetrakos, Mary Landry, Dorothy Riggs, Nadine Palmerton, Joanne Hamilton, Ann Otey, Gwen Mead, Helen McNulty and Peggy Keating.

Grange Club

The Home Economics club of Midland grange met at the home of Mrs. W. G. Ely on Nevada street August 1. A short business meeting was held after which the afternoon was spent in sewing for the Red Cross.

The proceeds of a card party given last month were turned over to the grange for the purpose of buying another war bond. Plans were made for the entertainment of service men later this month.

Mrs. George Lamb who is recovering from an operation was able to be out again and was presented with a gift from the grange.

Mrs. Fred Crapo won the door award, and refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to Mrs. Lee Sutton, Mrs. Phil Motschenbacher, Mrs. H. B. Largent, Mrs. Katie Bowles, Mrs. Roy Huff, Mrs. George Lamb, Mrs. August Andrieu, Mrs. John Myster, and the hostess, Mrs. W. G. Ely, and son Johnny.

Club Meets

Members of the Past Noble Grand club of the Prosperity Rebekah lodge met with Alma Cofer at her home at 1017 High on Tuesday afternoon, August 1. A potluck picnic had been planned, but owing to threatening weather, the meeting was held inside.

Members present were Nellie Wattenburg, Alice Goeller, Alice Gowland, Mayde Plyler, Lucille Helfer, Kate Hogue, Alfreda Steinmetz, Stella Dryden, Margaret Biden, Charnian Johnson, Mary Curtis, and the hostess.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Frances Waits and Stella Dryden at the September 5 meeting in the IOOF hall.

Betty Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitlock of Silverton, Oregon, is visiting at the home of Betty Ray, daughter of Mrs. Ruth K. Ray of this city. Part of this week Miss Whitlock spent with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Rex High of Poe Valley. Miss Whitlock is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and graduated from Oregon State college this last June. She will be here until this next Tuesday.

Birthday Party

The lawn of the John H. Abell home at Ivory Pine mill was the scene of a birthday party on July 18, honoring little Danny Abell, who was four years old.

The slide, see-saw, and swing in the Abell yard were greatly enjoyed by the little guests. Games were played after which refreshments were served.

Guests were JoAnne Kendall, David and Martin Clemens, Johnny Wealing, Merle Anette Knoebel, Joan and Suzanne Larkey, Sharon, Charles, and David Sherrick, Kathryn, Elizabeth, Scotty, and Tony McLean, Charlotte, Louise, and Morris Phelps, Peter Larson, Glenda Santie, Clyde and Clair Varney, Marzelle Garrett, Freddy, Donald, and Bobby Stilwell, Jennifer, Judith, and Mark Stilwell, Sally Jane Abell, and the guest of honor.

Assisting Mrs. Abell with games and refreshments were Mrs. O. D. Stilwell of Ivory Pine and Mrs. Rollin Phelps, Mrs. E. C. Sherrick, and Mrs. L. C. Stilwell, all of Klamath Falls.

Women of Moose

The Mooseheart and social service committee of the Women of the Moose met in the Moose hall for a committee meeting Thursday. Chairmen are Blanche Pyle, Mooseheart committee, and Grace Crump, social service committee.

Canton To Meet

The ladies auxiliary and chevalliers of Canton Crater will meet in the IOOF hall on Thursday evening, August 10, at 8 o'clock when members are requested to attend in full dress uniform for balloting on candidates.

A special meeting of the Canton was held last week for the mustering in of two candidates, Mrs. Walter Helfer and Mrs. Frank Hogue. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Friends will be interested to learn that Naomi Clement, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clement, former residents of Klamath Falls and now of Portland, is very much improved. She has been in a wheelchair for some time and is now permitted to walk a few steps each day. The Clements recently purchased a home at 1126 S.E. Fiftieth in Portland.

The card party sponsored by the Women of the Moose, Friday afternoon, July 28, had seven tables in play. High score was held by Ann Solie, second by Mrs. Kellinson and the door award went to Mrs. Hoover.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Frances Cox, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Cox, celebrated her fifth birthday last Saturday with her first party. Guests for the occasion were Terry McAtee, Colletta Albee, Diane Binkley, Suzanne and Sarah Porter, Suzanne Rice, Roger and Ray Macey, Judy Glascoe and little Johnny Cox.

Junior Musicians To Give Recital

The Junior Musicians of America, sponsored by the National Institute of Music and Arts, will be heard in a recital on Sunday afternoon, August 6, in the First Methodist church at Tenth and High at 3 o'clock.

Frank S. Long, who has been the local instructor for the past two years, will conduct, and the public is cordially invited.

Those who will participate in the program are Evelyn Paup, Willard Brightman, Phyllis Lynch, Jaunita Puckett, Charles Brightman, Kenneth Barke, Charlene Bennett, Francis Gwinn, Thomas Oden, John Winkleman, Jeannette Rusteen, Don Crouse, Audrey Laurence, Ariene Hollenbeck, Ronald Hollenbeck, Lavonne Earnest, Joy Swenson, Doris McGaughey, Doris James, Joe Smith, Wilda Smith, Daniel Williams, Beverly England, Sue Crouse, Harold Wood, Beverly Marts, Mervin Woodard, Jennell Shannon, Jean Sauer, Margaret Scholer, Jean Larson, Yuvonda Kirkpatrick, Joan Elliot, Vernon Keller, Jerry Wagner, Kenneth Smith, Clifford Sorenson, Dorothy Casebier, Wayne Byrd, Peggy Kohler, Mary Bruner, Theresa Bruner, Raymond Baker, Mardella Baker, Jack Kirkham, Wava Prince, Geneva Prince, Jimmie Mentch, Mitchell Byrd, Joyce Gaston, Garry Nichols, Sally Thompson, Carlene Meggitt, Sharon Larson, Glenda Sechler, Jennell Rogers, Joan Weddie, Vel-da Weddie, Nolan Day, Coryl Pullum, Lowell Brooks, Edward Davidson, Janice St. John, Gene St. John, Florence Lampropoulos, Athena Lampropoulos, Loretta Gardner, Erlene LeBranch, Dan Totten, Christina Nelson, Janet Robinson, Patricia Brown, Bradford Howard, Robert Stephens, Marcelyn Lytle, Joyce Pretari, David Hull, Kent Goeckner, Wayne Buck and Bobby Hyneck. Mrs. Dumm, local piano teacher, has been engaged as accompanist.

Malin Visitor.

Guest at the Hubert Morelock home in Malin for the past month was Mrs. Browning of Los Angeles, a cousin of Mr. Morelock. Mr. Browning and Mr. Campbell also arrived last Wednesday for a few days' visit. All left Sunday for their homes in the south.

Mr. Morelock is expecting a sister and her family for a visit in August. His sister, Mrs. Beam, and her family reside in Bakersfield where Mr. Beam is employed with the Southern Pacific. Mr. Morelock has not seen his sister for 23 years when he left Tennessee. Mrs. Beam came west a short time ago to live in Bakersfield.

RECENT WEDDING

Elizabeth Pasch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pasch of Hayward, Wisconsin, is now Mrs. Kenneth Finnell. He is a Klamath Falls man, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Finnell of this city. The ceremony was read in Pasco, Washington.

To Our Customers:

HELP!

Please Come In
And
GET YOUR CLOTHES

We need the space and the hangers!

Klamath Cleaners and Dyers

431 Main

Social Calendar

Monday, August 7
No-host theatre party for members of BPW club, 7:30 p. m. at Esquire. Sack lunch refreshments to follow at the home of Mrs. Stella Bowne on High street. Members not contacted are asked to call Jacquelin New-com, 4895.

Wednesday, August 9
Sojourners will hold their luncheon and meeting at the Willard hotel starting at 12:45 with the luncheon. All newcomers to the city are invited to attend.

Thursday, August 10
Auxiliary and chevalliers of Canton Crater to meet at IOOF hall, 8 p. m. in full dress uniform for balloting on candidates.

Saturday, August 12
Members and guests of the Reames Country club will have an informal dance at the Country club at 10 o'clock.

Wednesday, August 30
The Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold their annual fall tea in the Pelican party room.

Merry Mixers

Eleanor Curtis was hostess to the Merry Mixers on Thursday evening, August 3, at her home at 1335 Crescent. The evening was spent playing cards and visiting. Awards went to Ruth Anderson and Billee Snider.

Those attending were Ruth Lawrence, Ruth Anderson, Maxine Rose, Jo Paup, Billee Snider, Louise Cramblett, Alberta Allen, and the hostess. Jo Paup will entertain at her home at 1524 Division for the next meeting of the club.

Initiation

Neighbors of Woodcraft met in the IOOF hall recently for their regular business meeting and initiation of new members. Alta Clark, guardian neighbor, presided. Sylvia Thompson and Dorothy Jean Sayres were received into membership.

Moving pictures showing life in the WAVES were shown by the navy recruiting officer, and at the close of the evening, birthday cake and coffee were served in honor of those whose birthdays fell during the months of April, May and June.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Shaw of Glendale, Ore., were guests here last weekend of Mr. Shaw's mother, Mrs. Clara Shaw of Homedale drive, before leaving for Alaska where they plan to make their home. Upon their departure, the visitors were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Maxine Ray and young daughter, Sandra Jo, who will visit with relatives and friends in the northern city for a short time.

Joan Thompson Is Bride of Soldier

TULELAKE — In a delightful garden setting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Capek, dark-haired Joan Thompson became the bride on July 9 of PFC John Eastlund Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eastlund, Bonners Ferry, Idaho. The ceremony is stationed for the present at Camp Tulelake as a member of military guard.

The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of a few intimate friends and parents of the bride by Rev. Dr. Dod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Malin, Ore.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of net, made with a neckline and tiny cap at the neck. She wore a Juliet cap and her arm bouquet of white carnations with tulle trim.

Miss Ruby Stearns, Malin bridesmaid wore pink and white similar style and her floor length gown of net, made with a neckline and tiny cap at the neck. She wore a Juliet cap and her arm bouquet of white carnations with tulle trim.

During the afternoon bingo and pinocle were played. The ladies agreed to make cookies for the Commandos for the four Saturdays in August.

Members present were Charlotte Canoy and grandson, Freddie, Grace Jerrue, Eva Myers, Matilda Crapo, Betty Allen, Alice Gray, Helen Eiting, Della Arnold, Bernice McCracken, Ingeborg Wilkerson and Viola Hermann. Visitors were Magdalen Ronfeldt and Mrs. J. Ronfeldt and her two little girls, Corinne and Theresa.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, August 9, at the home of Mrs. Viola Hermann of 329 Iowa street.

Immediately following ceremony refreshments served from an attractive covered table centered with tiered white wedding cake circled with orange blossoms and topped with a bride and groom. The cake cut by the new Mrs. Eastlund, assisted by her husband, Mrs. Capek, wore a turquoise length jersey and corsage gardenias.

The bride has made her home in Malin for a number of years, moving only recently to Tulelake with her parents to be near her home.

The young couple will be in Tulelake.

Willis Bark, Clara McPherson, Stella Dryden, and the bride and groom. The next meeting will be held at the home of Willis Bark.

Attending were Idoline Schupp, Bertha Hewitt, Fannie Thompson, Alice Lawrence, Pearl Yorkland, 519 North Eleventh, entertained the Thursday Contract club at her home on August 3. Alice Lawrence held the high score, Stella Dryden, second, and the travelling award went to Willa Bark.

Members present were Nellie Wattenburg, Alice Goeller, Alice Gowland, Mayde Plyler, Lucille Helfer, Kate Hogue, Alfreda Steinmetz, Stella Dryden, Margaret Biden, Charnian Johnson, Mary Curtis, and the hostess.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Frances Waits and Stella Dryden at the September 5 meeting in the IOOF hall.

Betty Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitlock of Silverton, Oregon, is visiting at the home of Betty Ray, daughter of Mrs. Ruth K. Ray of this city. Part of this week Miss Whitlock spent with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Rex High of Poe Valley. Miss Whitlock is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and graduated from Oregon State college this last June. She will be here until this next Tuesday.

The ladies auxiliary and chevalliers of Canton Crater will meet in the IOOF hall on Thursday evening, August 10, at 8 o'clock when members are requested to attend in full dress uniform for balloting on candidates.

A special meeting of the Canton was held last week for the mustering in of two candidates, Mrs. Walter Helfer and Mrs. Frank Hogue. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Friends will be interested to learn that Naomi Clement, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clement, former residents of Klamath Falls and now of Portland, is very much improved. She has been in a wheelchair for some time and is now permitted to walk a few steps each day. The Clements recently purchased a home at 1126 S.E. Fiftieth in Portland.

The card party sponsored by the Women of the Moose, Friday afternoon, July 28, had seven tables in play. High score was held by Ann Solie, second by Mrs. Kellinson and the door award went to Mrs. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Shaw of Glendale, Ore., were guests here last weekend of Mr. Shaw's mother, Mrs. Clara Shaw of Homedale drive, before leaving for Alaska where they plan to make their home. Upon their departure, the visitors were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Maxine Ray and young daughter, Sandra Jo, who will visit with relatives and friends in the northern city for a short time.

Mr. Morelock is expecting a sister and her family for a visit in August. His sister, Mrs. Beam, and her family reside in Bakersfield where Mr. Beam is employed with the Southern Pacific. Mr. Morelock has not seen his sister for 23 years when he left Tennessee. Mrs. Beam came west a short time ago to live in Bakersfield.

Guest at the Hubert Morelock home in Malin for the past month was Mrs. Browning of Los Angeles, a cousin of Mr. Morelock. Mr. Browning and Mr. Campbell also arrived last Wednesday for a few days' visit. All left Sunday for their homes in the south.

Mrs. Dumm, local piano teacher, has been engaged as accompanist.

Those attending were Ruth Lawrence, Ruth Anderson, Maxine Rose, Jo Paup, Billee Snider, Louise Cramblett, Alberta Allen, and the hostess.

Neighbors of Woodcraft met in the IOOF hall recently for their regular business meeting and initiation of new members.

Moving pictures showing life in the WAVES were shown by the navy recruiting officer, and at the close of the evening, birthday cake and coffee were served in honor of those whose birthdays fell during the months of April, May and June.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Shaw of Glendale, Ore., were guests here last weekend of Mr. Shaw's mother, Mrs. Clara Shaw of Homedale drive, before leaving for Alaska where they plan to make their home.

Upon their departure, the visitors were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Maxine Ray and young daughter, Sandra Jo, who will visit with relatives and friends in the northern city for a short time.

The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of a few intimate friends and parents of the bride by Rev. Dr. Dod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Malin, Ore.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of net, made with a neckline and tiny cap at the neck. She wore a Juliet cap and her arm bouquet of white carnations with tulle trim.

Miss Ruby Stearns, Malin bridesmaid wore pink and white similar style and her floor length gown of net, made with a neckline and tiny cap at the neck. She wore a Juliet cap and her arm bouquet of white carnations with tulle trim.

During the afternoon bingo and pinocle were played. The ladies agreed to make cookies for the Commandos for the four Saturdays in August.

Members present were Charlotte Canoy and grandson, Freddie, Grace Jerrue, Eva Myers, Matilda Crapo, Betty Allen, Alice Gray, Helen Eiting, Della Arnold, Bernice McCracken, Ingeborg Wilkerson and Viola Hermann. Visitors were Magdalen Ronfeldt and Mrs. J. Ronfeldt and her two little girls, Corinne and Theresa.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, August 9, at the home of Mrs. Viola Hermann of 329 Iowa street.

Immediately following ceremony refreshments served from an attractive covered table centered with tiered white wedding cake circled with orange blossoms and topped with a bride and groom. The cake cut by the new Mrs. Eastlund, assisted by her husband, Mrs. Capek, wore a turquoise length jersey and corsage gardenias.

The bride has made her home in Malin for a number of years, moving only recently to Tulelake with her parents to be near her home.

The young couple will be in Tulelake.

Willis Bark, Clara McPherson, Stella Dryden, and the bride and groom. The next meeting will be held at the home of Willis Bark.

Attending were Idoline Schupp, Bertha Hewitt, Fannie Thompson, Alice Lawrence, Pearl Yorkland, 519 North Eleventh, entertained the Thursday Contract club at her home on August 3. Alice Lawrence held the high score, Stella Dryden, second, and the travelling award went to Willa Bark.

Members present were Nellie Wattenburg, Alice Goeller, Alice Gowland, Mayde Plyler, Lucille Helfer, Kate Hogue, Alfreda Steinmetz, Stella Dryden, Margaret Biden, Charnian Johnson, Mary Curtis, and the hostess.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Frances Waits and Stella Dryden at the September 5 meeting in the IOOF hall.

Betty Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitlock of Silverton, Oregon, is visiting at the home of Betty Ray, daughter of Mrs. Ruth K. Ray of this city. Part of this week Miss Whitlock spent with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Rex High of Poe Valley. Miss Whitlock is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and graduated from Oregon State college this last June. She will be here until this next Tuesday.

The ladies auxiliary and chevalliers of Canton Crater will meet in the IOOF hall on Thursday evening, August 10, at 8 o'clock when members are requested to attend in full dress uniform for balloting on candidates.

A special meeting of the Canton was held last week for the mustering in of two candidates, Mrs. Walter Helfer and Mrs. Frank Hogue. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Whytal's

DISTINCTIVE APPAREL
Phone 8222 901 Main

Hollywood interpreted by "Sally Faith" in famed COHAMA PINEBROOK COVERT. Slim, trim flattery in an out-of-this-world suit! Californian styling with custom-like finish to turn all eyes your way. $2250. In Cohama Pinbrook Covert with slimming waistline insets of contrasting velveteen. In Gold with Brown, Gold with Black, Blue Tan with Black, Beige with Brown. Sizes 9 to 17. EXCLUSIVE WITH US

CONSULT SEARS For FIGURE PROBLEMS

Cordtex-lift BRASSIERE

The Bra with a real future

The all-occasion bra of pre-shrunk cotton broadcloth with Cordtex-lift for rounded accentuation. 1-inch diaphragm band anchors brassiere. Medium low back. Closing adjusts to four sizes. Self material straps. Can be washed as often as you want. Popular "Adair" model for medium full busts. Nude. Sizes 32 to 40.

$1.29

GARTER BELT

Dainty Lace Trim

A form fit garter belt attractively styled with cotton lace applied on fine quality rayon satin, 4 1/2-inch front. Back hooking with adjustment to fit 4 sizes. Four flat garters hold stockings securely in place. Nude. Sizes 24 to 34.

$1.00

Sears, Roebuck and Co.

133 S. 8th St. Phone 5188

Owned and Operated by MRS. HELEN MILLER

Four Years PERMANENT Satisfaction

Cold Waves, Machineless and Machine Waves... Latest Modern Equipment for All Beauty Work.

Same phone number--8200 Across street from old location

4056 Shasta Way

Helen's Beauty Shop