

Transfer Hurts Navy Advances in Bend Tilt

Walden Moved to Different Station; Miller, Farmer Opposing Hurlers

The powerful baseball squad will meet the Naval Air Station team that is weakened by the loss of Second Baseman Walden, who pitched a 12 to 7 victory over the Bend hurling all-stars on the mound for the first time since he was transferred to another naval station, according to Tom Fena, manager of the team.

Fena was batting well above .400 for the season so far and Walden has been par excellence. Taking his place on second base was Fred Gay, who pitched a 12 to 7 victory over the Bend hurling all-stars on the mound for the first time since he was transferred to another naval station, according to Tom Fena, manager of the team.

FRITZ HOWELL Pinch-Hitting for Hugh Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5 (AP)—Bits of banter:

It isn't surprising that the Chicago Cubs are in fourth place in the National loop—they hit bottom so hard at the start that they just naturally bounded that far. . . . The manpower shortage in football is getting tougher — Notre Dame has a Kelly and a Sullivan on its squad of "Fighting Irish" . . . Ducks. Unlimited, reports another bumper crop this year, with an increase of 25,000,000 over last year — and the hunters have no shotgun shells.

HOW'S YOUR BASEBALL?

No. 1—What player won a major league hitting championship, and did not hit a home run?
No. 2—Only one major league team since 1900 has scored in all nine innings of a game. Name the team.
(Answers at end—but no fair peeking now.)

NOTES TO YOU

Carl Hinkle, Vanderbilt's 1937 all-American center, is a major commanding a flight squadron in England. . . . 18-year-old Ned Garver, pitcher with the Newark club of the Class D Ohio State league, has won 18 and lost 3, boasts a .438 batting average, hurled a no-hitter, and is in his first year of baseball. . . . "Terrible Ted" Pavlic, Detroit Lions tackle, has signed to fight for the world's heavyweight championship against the immortal John L. Sullivan—in the motion picture of the same name.

BASEBALL ANSWERS

No. 1—Zack Wheat, Brooklyn, 1918, batted .335, no home runs.
No. 2—The New York Giants, vs. Philadelphia, June 1, 1923; the score — 22 to 8.

And Still Champeen!

Dr. George Adler, city wrestling commission doctor, awards Paavo Katonan the Pacific coast light-heavyweight wrestling belt after he knocked out challenger Herb Parks out with a reverse body slam. The belt was put in the hands of the commission by Katonan previous to the bout to be awarded to the winner.

Piledriver Knocks Out Challenger

Katonan Puts Parks Asleep With Reverse Body Slam; Tony Morelli Disqualified

A terrific reverse back slam on Challenger Herb Parks put him out cold and classed Pacific coast light heavyweight titleholder, Paavo Katonan, as still "champeen."

The powerful piledriver sent Parks into never-never land for about 10 minutes and incapacitated him to such an extent that he was never able to answer the bell for the second round.

Canadian Champ Herb held the advantage for most of the match, specializing in stop over-tops and arm-holds. In the semi-final affair was just as slam-bang knock-down, drag-out as Tony Morelli took the first fall from Jack Kiser with a body press. Kiser came back to win the second fall with a series of dropkicks and slugs to the jaw followed by a press.

Morelli got rough and tried to mix it up with Referee Earl Yokely, but he didn't get far. Yokely disqualified him and awarded the bout to Kiser to the crowd's pleasure.

The curtain-raiser was a crowd pleaser, too. Reddy O'Dowdy took a fall from Tex Porter with a Boston crab after the first round had been fought to a draw. Porter came back to take the second fall with a reverse arm scissors to cause the match to be called a draw.

Wally Moss lost a rare chance to referee a championship match when his gentle saddle horse threw him while riding one day last week and broke two of Wally's ribs. Yokely, who has refereed here before, was called in to keep the bad boys in line and he did an excellent job of it in the opinion of the crowd.

Jack Wallops Bob Montgomery

NEW YORK, Aug. 5 (AP)—Pvt. Bob Montgomery won the decision, Pvt. Bob Montgomery didn't lose his lightweight title, $35,864,900 in war bonds were sold, and the 15,822 customers, including several hundred wounded veterans saw a whale of a fight show.

The two gladiators have fought 55 rounds to date. Each has won two decisions, and the count on rounds is almost as even as that. Counting a total of 165 votes for the 55 rounds, two judges and the referee voting on each, it stands: Beau Jack 78, Montgomery 77, even 10.

Jack won last night by piling up an early lead with a slashing body attack against the slow-starting Montgomery, and then staying off a late rally by the champion. Although he won, Jack was the only one to show any marks of battle. He had a bloody nose and mouth, and a damaged eye, while Montgomery was unharmed.

Oldtimer Comes Back As Pitcher

Ben Chapman Back After Many Years to Twirl Bums To Victory Over Boston

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Ben Chapman's stormy baseball career had a new slant today as the newest Brooklyn Dodger saw his name posted in the National league books as a pitcher with a 1,000 winning percentage and a .500 batting average.

Temperamental Ben from Nashville led the American league in base stealing four times, hitting .61 in 1931, and played shortstop, third base, second base and outfield in his advance from Asheville to the New York Yankees, Washington Senators, Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians.

It remained for the Piedmont league to bring out Chappy's talents as a side-arm hurler with a good "downer" as he went to the mound for his Richmond Colts when a string of double headers disrupted his pitching staff. Deacon Branch Rickey lured him away from Dixie with a cash payment and Rookie Pitcher Clyde King.

Chapman wasted little time reporting to the Dodgers. He went to the hill to stop Boston, 9-4, last night in full view of 13,065 of the Flatbush curious. Firey Ben limited the Braves to eight safe blows, and left no room for doubt by bashing a double and single, driving in three runs and scoring three more to warm the Rickey heart and doom Al Javery.

While Chapman was taking the bows, Bucky Walters climbed back on the win wagon, stopping St. Louis for the fifth straight time to hang up his 1st victory after four futile efforts. Cincinnati's margin was 5-3, with Al Jurisich, the first of four St. Louis hurlers, getting the loss.

Hal Luby's 10th inning homer gave Bill Voiselle and the New York Giants a 4-3 nod over the Phillies' Ken Raffensberger. Freddy Fitzsimmons' Phil finished the game under protest as they absorbed their 10th straight loss. Chicago held fourth place by beating Pittsburgh 4-3 on Bill Nicholson's 24th homer, coming with a man on in the ninth as Paul Derringer took the win from Max Butcher. It was the 10th straight Chicago triumph.

Connie Mack's 50th anniversary as a manager was spoiled by the Yankees, who took a 1-0 game behind Hank Borowy before a night turnout of 29,166. Bobo Newsom was the tough-luck loser.

Chicago's White Sox returned to the first divisions by trimming Cleveland's Mel Harder, 5-3, on some neat relief work by Jake Wade. Johnny Niggeling tossed Washington to a 7-5 edge over Boston in the first of two but Ernest O'Neil blanked the Sens in the finale, 4-0. Detroit and St. Louis were not scheduled.

Doings of Klamath Horseback Enthusiasts, Recounted by "Top Wrangler"

Howdy Folks: You've got a date Sunday afternoon at the Fairgrounds an' I calculate you'll all be there when the bugler blows for the races. Earle Arant will pony the bang-tails to the post, Guy Barton will be on hand at the startin' gate to git 'em off. What's a race if the grandstand isn't full of folks hollerin' fer the winner. The Saddle club is as busy as a cat's tail and they've got a lot of men a helpin'. Charlie Read, Ole Chase and Keith Moon a makin' out like they are carpenters and fixin' the rail in front of the grandstand. Elmer Balsiger and Blanche Harmon hawling hay for the furs-tails a munch on. That won't be any dust cause I heered the boys a sayin' they wuz goin' to put Guy Barton in the water wagon. Clarence Adams is field marshal with Billy helpin' him. Bob Robbins cut a big figure in the job of gettin' all events on the track in time. I got wind of sumthin' that's been pulled fer the little tots. A clown act and a exhibition stunt, too. Seems to me these girls haven't fergot much in the line of entertainment an' are a tryin' to git on sumpin fer every type wuz round these parts. Now I want to add right here git your entries in 'fore Friday and help this club. Yuh can win a purse or prize in every event. All of yuh who don't ride get a ticket to this outdoor flare, who knows, yuh, too, might develop sum nasty saddle sore 'fore the show gets over. I wuz out to the fairgrounds las' nite and I seed a lot of people gettin' their hoss ready. Pat Ivory wuz a helpin' two girls with that English kind of ridin'. Dr. J. Hilton exercisin' his hoss with a young lady at his side on her steed. Jack Ray and Alice driving their hoss to a cart in a spankin' new harness. Clair Bilger proudly workin' his beautiful hoss. Punky Adams is ridin' in one of the events at the show, but not the race cause Punky don't want to ride the fat off of his sorrel. I hope this is a humdinger of a show cause I'd like to see sumpin like this get started right here in the heart of a hoss country. Gladys Hogue had some trousers made fer her hoss so she can ride the pants off of it in the saddle hoss race. Jim Stewart ask me if I'd ride his hot-blood in a race, but I've got a little lead poison that makes me over weight. I heered he got a rider and I'm goin' to watch that sorrel. Well, I got a gallon hat, cause ten gallons is hard to git. Bye now. See yuh Sunday—

Hotshot Pros Unlimber Clubs For Round Two

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Aug. 5 (AP)—Some determined golfers, including the hotshot professionals, Byron Nelson and Jug McSpaden, unlimbered their clubs today for the second round of the Beverly Hills first annual open, bent on retrieving the lead won yesterday by a comparatively unknown amateur, Carl Hannan, local war worker.

Hannan fired a surprising 32-35—67 on the 71-par rolling hills country club course.

He ended the round with a two-stroke lead over Tony Penna, Dayton, Ohio, pro, who carded 32-37—69. Freddy Gordon, another local amateur, trumped in for third spot with 35-35—70.

Portland Teams Beat Outsiders

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 5 (AP) Commercial Iron of Portland edged Woodburn 2-1 and Portland's Lind & Pomeroy nine bumped Albany's Cummings Movers 4-1 in yesterday's opening rounds of Oregon Junior American Legion baseball championship play.

The Ironmen clipped Woodburn's victory string at 18. They tallied both their runs in the third inning and then nipped a fifth inning rally that saw Woodburn score once on singles by Rolland Ott and John Garren. Albany, led to four hits by Wally Lambertson who whiffed 12 of the up-state batsmen, made its lone run in the fifth on Pitcher Neil Richardson's sharp single that brought in Ralph Cooper. Richardson yielded seven hits.

Haegg Breaks World Two-Mile Record

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 5 (AP)—Gunder Haegg has a new unofficial world record for the two-mile run to his credit today.

The Swedish flyer, in possibly the greatest race of his career, finished 100 meters ahead of his nearest rival last night in taking the event in the Stockholm stadium games in 8:42.8. The record, which he holds, is 8:46.4.

Another world mark was bettered when E. Elmbecker covered the 3000-meter steeplechase in 8:59.6. The official record is 9:03.4. Arne Andersson missed his try at the 1000-meter record, being timed in 2:21.9, three-tenths of a second slower than the recognized world mark set by Rudolf Harbig of Germany.

29,166 Ignore Transit Strike To See Connie Mack Celebration

By TED MEIER

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5 (AP)—There are many tender memories in the life of Cornelius McGillicuddy—Connie Mack to you— but possibly the most poignant was last night's celebration at Shibe park in honor of his 50th anniversary as a big league baseball manager.

A crowd of 29,166, including many of the game's top figures and famous players of yesterday, crowded into the park. To get there they disregarded the city's transit strike that has stopped all subways, street cars and buses. Thousands came in automobiles, but the majority walked.

Since he first took the helm of a big league club—at Pittsburgh on August 4, 1894—baseball's "grand old gentleman" has gone up and down the baseball ladder. He has won nine American league pennants with his Athletics and five world titles, as well as winding up in the cellar on many occasions.

Introduced from home plate by Lt. Governor John C. Bell of Pennsylvania, "Mr. Baseball" was presented a gold box with a check for $5000 as a "token of admiration and affection from the sports fans of America."

"It has been a very happy night for me," Mr. Mack replied. "The loyal fans of Philadelphia and in all cities I have visited also have treated me fairly. As long as we have men like Commissioner Landis, Will Harridge, president of the American league, baseball will continue on its high plane."

The big moment of the celebration was the presentation of Connie's living all-time best player. Connie presented these players: George Sisler, first baseman of the St. Louis Browns;

Eddie Collins, second baseman of the Athletics; Frank "Home Run" Baker, third baseman of the Athletics; Honus Wagner, shortstop of the Pittsburgh Pirates; Lt. Bill Dickey, catcher of the New York Yankees; Walter Johnson, right-handed pitcher for Washington; Lefty Grove, southpaw pitcher for the Athletics; Tris Speaker, outfielder for the Cleveland Indians; and Babe Ruth, "the greatest hitter of all time," Yankee outfielder, Catcher Mickey Cochrane, formerly with the A's and Detroit, and Outfielder Ty Cobb were unable to be present.

The only sour note was the 1-0 defeat the Yankees inflicted on the A's after the festivities were over. Bobo Newsome and Hank Borowy engaged in a scoreless duel until the ninth when George Stinweis's single and a sacrifice, an infield single and an infield out produced the only run.
