Sloppy Playing By Bend Gives Klamath Naval Air Station 8 to 2 Triumph

By SCOTT REED

Lack of experience and sloppy playing afield by the Bend nine gave the Klamath naval air station an 8 to 2 victory Sunday afternoon at Recreation park.

Six errors and a wild pitch, all by Bend, accounted for seven of the sailor's runs with only one navy tally being earned.

The game saw the return of big Jim Olsen to the mound and the fireball ex-Padre hurler struck out 10 batters and gave up 10 widely scattered base hits to the civilians. Houtchens did a tip-top job of twirling for Bend, yielding only seven safe hits to the gobs, but lack of support in the infield doomed him to defeat.

The navy men did most of their scoring early in the tilt, making three tallies each in the second and third innings and picking up one in the fourth and sixth. Bend scored in the fifth and eighth.

Flashy fielding by sailors prevented more runs from crossing the plate. Rickey and Storey were the standouts, defensively, each making catches that robbed the Bend batters of seemingly certain base hits. Only one bobble was chalked up against the gobs.

The pitching of both sides was so exceptionally good, that only one extra base hit, a double, was garnered during the whole game. Miller was the leading batsman for the navy and two safeties in four at bats. Houtchens smacked two singles in four tries and Nehl got two for five to lead Bend hitting.

Fred Gay of the navy was the big disappointment at bat, failing to get a hit in four tries.

Portland Pros To Be Known As 'Rockets'

PORTLAND, Aug. 7 (AP)—The "Rockets" has been selected as the name of the Portland professional football team of the American league, L. J. Macklin, Salem, won a $100 war bond for selecting the winning name

Coach R. L. Mathews said two weeks of stiff drills have improved the squad, and he predicted it will keep its head above water in the pro grid circuit.

Portland businessmen organized a booster club—the "Lunch Time Quarterback Club" which will aid the Rockets in their first year of grid play.

Florists Take Legion Title

PORTLAND, Aug. 7 (AP) — Lind — Pomeroy Florists, Jefferson high school youngsters, won the Oregon Junior American Legion baseball championship by walloping Woodburn, 15-4, last night after Woodburn had nosed out Commercial Iron of Portland, 10-9, in an afternoon game.

Woodburn captured second place in the double elimination tournament, and the Ironmen third.

In third round contests Saturday, Woodburn whitewashed Albany's Cummings Movers, 11-0, and the Florists down the ironmen, 10-6.

Savold, Baksi To Battle in Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 7 (AP) — Illinois' version of a "duration" world title heavyweight bout—a 10-round battle between 22-year-old Joe Baksi of Kulpmont, Pa., and ring-wise Lee Savold of Paterson, N. J.—is expected to cram Wrigley field tonight with upwards of 25,000 fans, a goodly portion gratis-admitted servicemen.

This would be Chicago's largest fight turnout since Joe Louis took Jim Braddock's crown in 1937 before some 45,000 cash customers.

With the army fully occupying Champion Joe Louis and his two foremost challengers, Billy Conn and Jimmy Bivins, Promoter Jack Kearns had little trouble selling tonight's mix as a heavyweight brawl of significance.

Whitman Starts Grid Practice

WALLA WALLA, Aug. 7 (AP) Whitman college's football practice will get underway this week with the arrival of newly-signed Coach Ben Dobbs, former assistant mentor at Maine university, President Winslow S. Anderson announced.

Dobbs, whose experience includes playing at Ohio State and for several American and national professional league elevens, was signed Saturday.

Whitman has a five game schedule this season composed of home-and-home contests with Willamette and Washington, and a single contest with the 2nd air force at Boise.

Browns Run Win Streak To Eight

St. Louis Scores Double Victory Over Cleveland; Bucs Stop Cub Rampage

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Closing their home stand yesterday with a double triumph over the Cleveland Indians, 9-6 and 6-4, with the aid of a big six-run inning in each game, the St. Louis Browns ran their winning streak to eight, one shy of their season-opening skein.

The Browns are enjoying their biggest first place lead of the season, six and a half games, despite a 24-26 game record away from home. The reason for this is their remarkable gait at their Sportsman's park home. Their latest and best home stand shows a record of 14 victories and five defeats for an over-all record of 38 wins and 16 losses—a .704 per centage.

If the Browns can win 11 of their next 22 games, they seem safe to be in first place on their return—to conclude their schedule with 23 out of their last 28 games at home.

On the other hand, both the Red Sox and the Yankees, the Browns' most persistent rivals must end their schedule abroad. Neither has fared well away from home, the Red Sox winning 25 and losing 29 on foreign fields and the Yankees emerging triumphant in but 21 of their 56 contests on the road.

Nelson Potter, pitching his first game since Umpire Cal Hubbard ejected him from a game for blowing on his hands, was credited with his 10th victory in the St. Louis-Cleveland opener, while Dennis Galehouse won his fourth in the nightcap.

Pittsburgh shattered the Chicago Cubs' 11-game winning streak by taking both ends of a double header 13-5 and 5-4. The double defeat dropped the Bruins back into the second division, one percentage behind the fourth place New York Giants. The Pirates were aided by a nine-run seventh inning in the opener.

Detroit swept a twin-bill from the Chicago White Sox, 10-3 and 3-1 before 18,801 fans. Dizzy Trout became the third major league hurler to win 17 games, giving up only five hits in the nightcap. He also starred at bat with his third homer of the year and a run-scoring double.

The Giants needed only an even split to regain the first division, winning the opener from the Phillies, 6-2, for Harry Feldman's ninth victory, and dropping the nightcap 3-1. Bill Lee hurled the win for the Phillies to end a 12-game Blue-Jay losing streak.

The Yankees won two games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-1 and 1-0. Johnny Lindell's 12th homer won the nightcap for Walter Dubiel, who was opposed by Jesse Flores. Atley Donald won his 11th game in the opener, in which Lindell also homered.

The Boston Braves dumped the Brooklyn Dodgers into the cellar again with a 14-4 and 8-7 double pasting. The Braves exploded for 10 runs, the highest single-inning scoring in the majors this year, in the opener to make it easy for Jim Tobin to win his 12th game, a big five-run rally in the fifth won the nightcap.

The Red Sox and Washington Senators traded one-run decisions, the Senators winning the opener, 3-2, and the Sox annexing the finale 5-4.

The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Cincinnati Reds 5-4 in 14 innings when Johnny Hopp doubled to score Max Lanier, but may have lost the services of Pitcher Ted Wilks. Wilks was hit on the side of the head by a line drive off the bat of Steve Mesher in the 13th inning and had to be taken to a hospital.

The United States, during the second quarter of 1940, imported 28,015,210 pounds of tung oil.

Paavo Signed To Meet Buck Lipscomb

Jack (Buck) Lipscomb will attempt to mangle titleholder Paavo Katonan in next Friday's main event, Promoter Mack Lillard announced Monday.

Although Lillard did not actually say Lipscomb would mangle Katonan, it is presumed that Buck will try to do same. Paavo recently defeated Lipscomb in his try for the Pacific coast light-heavyweight title in a battle in Portland, and he is probably trying for a return go.

The semi-final event will see the return of Ernie Piluso to the local ring. Piluso, who has been having extremely good luck in Portland and other places, will meet the always dangerous Tony Morelli in what should be a real brawl.

Lillard has hopes of signing Herb Parks for the opener, but nothing is definite yet. Parks, who is still recovering from his fight with Katonan, plans to return to Canada shortly.

Expanded Quotas For Navy Continue

Expanded quotas for voluntary enlistments from the 17-year-old group, recently inaugurated by the navy after a restricted period, apparently will continue in effect this month, according to word received by Recruiting Specialist Dan Schreiber of the Klamath Falls navy recruiting station.

Original announcement of the heightened quotas for enlistments of young men in this age bracket was marked by an influx of prospective young bluejackets into navy substations throughout the Oregon district, which is continuing unabated.

Re-opening of quotas for an increased number of 17-year-old enlistments is in line with recent pronouncement of Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal that the strength of the navy will be increased to keep pace with accelerated naval operations in the South Pacific.

Seats Hurls Twin Shut-Out for SF

Veteran Hurler Blanks Sacramento Twice in One Day for League "First"

By The Associated Press

Veteran left-hander Tom Seats carved himself a niche in the Pacific Coast league hall of fame yesterday by pitching San Francisco to a double shutout over Sacramento, 6-0 and 3-0. The feat is a league "first" and climaxes Seats best year in the eight-club circuit.

While the former big leaguer was racking up his 19th and 20th victories against eight losses to equal his 1943 record, two other top division clubs were winning both ends of their doubleheaders. First place Los Angeles disposed of Portland, 5-4 and 13-2, and Hollywood edged San Diego, 5-4 and 3-1.

Seattle, a lower division nine, completed the day's sweeps by defeating Oakland, 3-0 and 7-6.

Seats pitched 16 runless innings, allowing only eight hits, in accomplishing his fifth shutout in six starts. In July he ran up a runless 27-inning streak in three 2-0 games.

Ray Prim registered his 16th victory of the year as Los Angeles downed hapless Portland behind his 7-hit pitching. Six errors aided the Angels in scoring 12 runs. The first game was a 10-inning affair.

The longest game of the day was Seattle's 7-6 win over Oakland in 12 frames. Catcher Bill Raimondi dropped the ball when Bill Matheson charged the plate with the winning run on a squeeze bunt by Joe Dobbins.

The day of double game sweeps left these series results: San Francisco 4, Sacramento 3; Seattle 4, Oakland 4; Hollywood 4, San Diego 3; Los Angeles 6, Portland 1.

Tonight the league stages two all-star benefit games. At San Francisco the Seals and Angels to play Sacramento and Portland, while at Hollywood the Stars and San Diego Padres clash with Oakland and Seattle.

The proceeds will go to the Professional Baseball Players' association and the servicemen's bat and ball fund.

If we can have some civilian production without hurting the war effort, we should do so. We want to be able to say when the boys come back that we have kept a decent country ready for them where they can get jobs.—Maury Maverick, WPB vice chairman.
