TRAILER HOUSE SEARCH MADE FOR MARINES

While families of men stationed at the Marine Barracks continue to arrive, and Klamath's housing shortage becomes even more critical, the large number of trailers sought by the chamber of commerce for the temporary housing of marine families still have not been obtained.

The National Housing agency is unable to provide housing for purposes of this type except on specific request of the office of the secretary of the navy, because of an administrative agreement between the agency and navy department, according to a letter received here yesterday at the chamber of commerce from John B. Blandford Jr., administrator of the NHA.

Charles R. Stark, secretary of the chamber of commerce, has started the request through marine channels by contacting Colonel B. Dubel, commanding officer at the barracks here.

Senator Guy Cordon and Congressman Lowell Stockman are also helping on the project, and it is hoped that the trailers will be obtained.

GERMAN WAR AREAS TARGETS OF BOMBS

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
LONDON, Aug. 9 (AP)—More than 2000 American heavy bombers and fighters from Britain and Italy attacked war targets today in Germany, Hungary and Yugoslavia while hundreds of planes slashed at bridges behind the French battle zone and exploded a huge ammunition dump.

About 750 Flying Fortresses and Liberators with an equal number of escorts flew through soupy weather from England and cast explosives on undisclosed objectives around Stuttgart, "The Detroit of Germany," and in other sectors of southern Germany. Clouds were three miles thick.

American Raiders and Havocs bombed six French bridges at noon. Five were across the Oise north of Paris. A German radar station in the Argentan-Alencon area also was attacked.

Italy-based American heavy bombers struck oil and plane facilities in Hungary and the Brod railway yards in Yugoslavia.

The U. S. 9th air force announced that its fighter bombers supporting ground forces yesterday destroyed 51 tanks and damaged 22, mostly between Mortain and Vire and around newly-captured Le Mans. In the thousand sorties the ninth flew yesterday, the fighter bombers destroyed 138 other vehicles, 34 gun emplacements, 63 railroad cars and two locomotives.

MURRAY FIGHTS TRY TO SHELVE MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9 (AP)—Fighting a republican-southern democratic coalition attempt to shelve the Murray-Kilgore revenue bill, Senator Murray (D-Mont.), threatened today to seek repeal of postwar business relief tax concessions if congress denied "adequate protection for the American working man."

Asserting "there are no strings attached" to tax concessions provided for in the "carry-back" and "carry-forward" provisions of the 1942 revenue act, Murray said if business fell off with drastic termination of war contracts corporations might get back "the sum total of all normal taxes paid during the previous two years."

"The government," he declared, "may be called upon to hand out to American corporations $28,000,000,000."

Murray cautioned in a prepared senate speech against any attempt to substitute for federal standards of post-war unemployment compensation rates up to $35 a week, as proposed in his bill, a republican-supported measure by Senator George (D-Ga.) leaving rate fixing to the states.

WLB Orders News Employees to Keep Union Membership

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 (AP)—Maintenance of union membership by news employees of the New York office of The Associated Press was ordered in a directive of the newspaper commission of the war labor board, received today by The Associated Press and the American Newspaper Guild.

The standard maintenance clause was voted by Dr. F. S. Delber, public member, and Sam Eubanks, labor member. Philip D. Adler, industry member, dissented. The AP, which had opposed the union maintenance provision for newsmen, announced it would appeal.

A similar order was recently issued in a case involving the nationwide guild contract with The United Press associations.

Problems of Peace Influence Primary Ballot in New York

By The Associated Press
The problems of peace, pushed to the fore of war successes abroad, found political echoes at home today in the selection of Rep. J. W. Fulbright as the democratic nominee for senator from Arkansas and in formal statements by senatorial nominees in New York stressing postwar needs.

Fulbright is the freshman congressman who gained the measure of fame with his house-approved resolution recommending that the United States take part in a postwar organization strong enough "to maintain a just and lasting peace."

He came out far ahead of Governor Homer M. Adkins in yesterday's runoff primary for the seat now held by Hattie W. Caraway, the only woman senator, who lost out in the first primary. Adkins conceded defeat.

Returns from 1470 precincts out of the state's 2087 gave Fulbright 69,801 votes and Adkins 52,080.

The 39-year-old congressman and Governor Adkins are political opponents of year's standing. A new wrinkle in Arkansas politics was the voting by negroes yesterday in large numbers.

Peace problems were emphasized in New York by both Senator Robert F. Wagner, new deal stalwart renominated by the democrats in convention, and Thomas J. Curran, secretary of state, held by the republican

COF CELECTS NEW OFFICERS IN TULELAKE

TULELAKE—With mounting civic problems facing Tulelake and the surrounding community, an urgent need for a re-organized chamber of commerce has been a paramount issue here for many months. With this need now revolving around the lack of housing for newcomers in the community, 65 businessmen and farmers met in the Legion hall over the weekend to elect J. O. McCuan president of the chamber and to put Charles K. Wiese, long-time resident, in the vice president's chair.

A second meeting is scheduled for this week, at which time major details of the re-organization will be threshed out to put the chamber in immediate functioning form. Eleven directors will eventually form a board to serve with the elected officers.

The original chamber, which was closely associated with the early development of the community, recessed in September, 1942, when it became difficult

NEW BUSINESS TO OPEN IN MERRILL

TULELAKE—Mrs. J. O. McCuan and Mrs. Everett Ray, both of Tulelake, will open the Fountain Lunch in the Clyde hotel building within the next two weeks, the cooperators announced Tuesday. The new business will serve light lunches, soft drinks and ice cream, and will offer fountain and table service.

The building has recently been redecorated and equipment and fixtures are being moved in this week.

Mr. and Mrs. McCuan have resided here for a year, coming to Tulelake from Roseburg. Prior to that time they made their home in Klamath Falls. McCuan is associated with the Tulelake office, California Oregon Power company.

Local offices of the state department of agriculture and of the state motor vehicle office, which occupied the quarters where the new business will operate, were moved this week to the first floor of the Golden hotel.
