Reynolds Here—Former Secretary Earl C. Reynolds, now assistant western manager of the U. S. chamber of commerce, spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls visiting his family and friends here. Reynolds left Wednesday evening for Portland. He has been on a trip through Idaho and Montana where, he said, crop conditions indicate bumper production this year.

California-Western States Life Insurance company, in its recent issue lists the name of Ben H. Gibson, local representative, as winner of membership in the company's Leading Producers club for the year ending June 30, 1944. Rigid rules govern membership in this highly select group, and only those representatives who, over the year's period, continuously produce a large volume of business, and who are outstanding in service rendered their policy owners are chosen as members.

Daughter Born—Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. McCartney of the K cafe have a new daughter, born August 3. This is the McCartney's third child. They have two sons, Tim, four years old, and Michael, 18 months old. The McCartney's live at 2941 Laverne.

Lt. Allen to Leave—Lt. Harold Allen, station pilot at the Klamath naval air station, has received his orders to report for foreign duty. Lt. Allen has been in Seattle for a few days, but will return here today. The pilot, who is also engineering officer at KNAS, is a one-time Georgia barnstormer. Darron Home—Commander R. R. Darron, commanding officer of the Klamath naval air station, has returned from a business visit to Seattle.
