FORMER KLAMATH RESIDENT PASSES

FORT KLAMATH—Nellie R. Smythe, 64, beloved wife of Norman C. Smythe, formerly of Fort Klamath and Modoc Point, passed away August 1 at her home in Portland, Ore., after an illness that had confined her to her home for over six years.

Mrs. Smythe was born Nellie Langford at Cottage, Iowa, in 1878. She was married in 1899 at Milford, Ia., to Norman C. Smythe, and to this union were born three children, all of whom survive. They include one son, Vere N. Smythe of Portland, and two daughters, Mrs. Lois H. Leone of San Anselmo, Calif., and Mrs. Opal G. Page of Fort Klamath, Ore.

In addition, two grandchildren survive, including Yvonne Smythe of Portland, and Gene Page of Fort Klamath; also four brothers, George of Longview, Wash., Henry of Milford, Ia., John of Norwood, Colo., and two sisters, Mrs. Lucy McGinnis of Spencer, Ia., and Mrs. Doris Barber of Edmond, Okla.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning, August 5, at 10:30 a. m., in the Little Chapel of the Chimes in Portland. The remains were laid to rest in the Portland Crematorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Guss Page and son Gene returned here this week after being called to Portland last week by the death and funeral of her mother, who was well known in Fort Klamath and Modoc Point, where she leaves a wide circle of friends who remember her fine character and unfailing pleasant, cheery nature which was unchanged in spite of her long illness. Sympathy is extended to her family in their bereavement in the loss of a beloved wife, mother and grandmother.

Stores to close

SALEM, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Salem retail trade bureau recommended to Salem stores today that they close on the day that the war in Europe ends.

FRESH PEACH JAM IS EASY TO MAKE

Here's a Recipe That Saves Sugar and Fruit

4 Cups Ground Peaches
6 Cups Sugar
1/2 Cup Lemon Juice
1 Package M.C.P. Pectin

Wash, peel, and remove pits from 4 pounds fully ripe peaches; grind the fruit. Measure exactly 4 level cups of the ground peaches (add water to fill out last cup, if necessary) in a large kettle. Add the M.C.P. Pectin and lemon juice, stir well and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. NOW, add the sugar (which has been previously measured), continue stirring, and bring to a full rolling boil. BOIL, EXACTLY 4 MINUTES. Remove from fire, let boil subside, stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes. Pour into sterilized jars, allowing 1/2-inch space for sealing with fresh paraffin.

New Pine Creek

Around 150 grangers, including their families, were present at the Butler picnic grounds last Saturday night to participate in a good old-fashioned wiener roast. We're assuming that the grounds next day looked a little like the beavers had been working on the amount of roasting sticks that were cut. The crowd literally bristled with sharpened sticks that were held by almost everyone points upward, some sitting, the rest standing, alertly waiting like knights of old with spears in hand ready for the attack.

But the attack this time was not against invading Norsemen but rather upon one large boiler and one large canning kettle of fat hot dogs that had previously been parboiled so that those who were gastronomically ready could initiate the attack without further preliminaries.

Curiously enough, the magic of the hot dogs, parboiled as they were, worked strangely upon the morale of the crowd when the lids of the kettles were lifted and a savory aroma permeated the air. The tenseness of those foremost in line with the obvious determination to have a roasted wiener at any cost, wilted to the luscious temptation of parboiled hot dogs, and one by one the spears were dropped and were tramped beneath the feet of the throng as they loaded their plates. Therefore, most of the 200 wieners escaped being roasted on a stick. However, some of the more determined grangers tapered off with a juicy, well-roasted hot dog.

By the time the feast was over and things were cleaned up, it was too late and those present were too full to enjoy any singing or games, so the evening was immediately concluded.

The grounds committee, composed of Winifred Dunigan, Earl Butler, and Bill Allen is again to be complimented upon having the grounds nicely lighted and benches on hand. On the kitchen committee was Harvey Sanders, Lute Miller, Louise Miller, Thelma Butler and Mrs. Alexander.

Sam Newman is back for a while helping Anderson brothers of Lakeview pile lumber, working with his brother Con. Sam has a ranch over in the Rogue river valley which he and his son are farming. He has his place pretty well stocked up with sheep and has purchased considerable machinery to farm with. His family are all well and very happy with their new location. They were formerly residents of New Pine Creek. Sam will go back when the fall rains set in. He is at present living at Fairport.

Mrs. Elmer Cooper from the West Side brought her step-grandson, Dwayne St. Clair home last Saturday morning and visited for two days with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred S. Clair.

Mrs. Hazel Bussey and son

Donald, came over from Prineville to Lakeview on business, and visited from Thursday to Tuesday here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Miller. Donald is working in a grocery store in Prineville.

The Home Economics club met at the grange hall last Thursday with Mrs. Alpha Smith as hostess. Ice cream sodas made to taste, were served for refreshments. Most of the meeting was spent quilting.

Corporal Kelton Butler was guest of honor at the grange wiener roast last Saturday night and left Sunday morning for Camp Carson, Colo. Kelton is looking fine and seems to be enjoying army life. He is in the artillery of the army instead of the infantry as erroneously reported in last week's items.

Bud Scarborough sold his home at Fairport this week to Frank Addington. The Scarboroughs will move to Marshfield soon to engage in the logging industry there. The Addington's will move to Fairport as soon as their new property becomes vacant.

Ralphie Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Alexander of Lakeview, is staying for a week with his grandmother, Mrs. Eunice Cogburn.

Through the kindness of Sgt.

Earl E. Rogers, who worked for a time on neighboring ranches here, a copy of the "Yank Down Under" of May 12 issue, has been received and many of its interesting articles read. It contains the story "Escape From Hauwai Island," written for servicemen by a serviceman. This story is one about the reconnaissance troop of the first cavalry division, the first of its kind to be used in the Pacific theater.

Sgt. Jesse Lightle, of New Pine Creek was in the third reconnaissance platoon of 18 men, all of whom were either killed, wounded, or hospitalized. Its mission was accomplished. It had found the channel to the island, reconnoitered the beach, tested the number, disposition and weapons of the enemy, found the island feasible for artillery, and laid the way for a major attack the next day that wiped every Jap off the island.

Wednesday, August 16, will be home canning day at the grange hall, and a meeting will be held at 2 o'clock. It is hoped by Vic Johnston that there will be a good turnout present. It was not learned who was to speak, but it is presumed that some one will explain all about the canning facilities that are now available

Phyllis Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ross, had her tonsils removed recently.

Shirley Elaine Romer was a weekend visitor at the Joe Nork home from Langell Valley. She is from San Francisco, but visiting at the Jim Glover ranch for a few weeks.

Those who attended Sunday school at the hall Sunday were the Haines girls, the Tubek family, the Paul Breighaupt family and Margaret Freuer and Teddy.

Bert and Alan Voght are now working at the Holzhouser ranch.

in Lakeview at the high school. Mrs. Alice Allen and Mrs. Louise Miller served at the servicemen's center in Lakeview last Sunday evening.
