EMPLOYMENT HEAVY, UNEMPLOYMENT BOARD

Figures released today from Klamath Falls field office of the local social security commission, "reveal substantial unemployment, and a high degree of depletion by residents of the region in the benefits provided by the social security commission," according to Charles Higgins, manager of the office.

In the past three months, the office has issued almost 45,780 unemployment cards. The number of cards issued since this office was set up in May, 1937, is 100,000. The number of cards issued for social security benefits in the last 90 days, among the claims are payments to wage earners and their families and to survivors of wage earners. These additional benefits are $1.15 in payments made to the social security for the 90-day period in

Non Diversion Charged by McKee

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 10 (AP)—A charge of non-diversion of nylon for women's slings at the expense of manufacture of army parachutes was alleged today by New Jersey FBI Director Samuel K. McKee as he announced the arrest of three men charged with conspiracy to aid the government. McKee said the nylon "badly needed" by the government, was made into women's hose and sold at black market prices. McKee said the nylon was made into 12 pairs of 100 per cent nylon stockings, the FBI stated, and FBI agents received $30,000 worth of thread unfinished hosiery.

TO WED
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Kiong Sun, grandson of Sun Yat Sen, liberator of China, will be married here today to Miss Velma Lowe, of Oakland. Sun is a deputy here. His bride-to-be is a student at Radcliffe at Tulelake tonight. Transportation is furnished from the Barracks.

An enlisted men's dance on the post is planned for Saturday, August 19, and a committee has been set up to make arrangements for the affair.

Music will be provided by the post orchestra, directed by Tech. Sgt. Julius J. Zamzow. Hostesses will be brought from town, and men are invited to bring their wives and relatives. This will be the first dance on the post, and the recreation office asks the cooperation of all attending to make it a successful and memorable occasion.

A camp bowling league is being organized with teams from the various companies competing. Scheduled games will be free to the teams, and suitable prizes will be awarded the winning teams.

Scores will be published in the "Klamath News," post weekly newspaper.

The post bowling alleys were officially opened Sunday, with Sgt. Don Willis managing.

The post service station was opened this week, but for the present its use will be limited to servicing only government cars and trucks attached to the Barracks.

Staff Sgt. Lewis King, Staff Sgt. Leo Garney and Sgt. Paul Cross are the attendants in charge.

Marine entertainers will present a 25-minute variety show at the opening of the officers' mess at bachelor officers' quarters on the post early Saturday evening, followed by a dinner dance with the dance orchestra playing.

Sgt. Cliff Harp has been requested to act as master of ceremonies and to entertain in a midnight show at the Country club Saturday night. Cpl. Donn Steen, Cpl. Jack Mahoney and PFC Freddie Girard will also take part in the entertainment, PFC Dick Nason, program director, announced today.

Company competition in softball will begin Monday, August 14, when Able company opposes Baker company, and Charlie company meets Doc company at 3 p. m. on the parade ground.

Every company, including the hospital corpsmen, has a team entered in the league.

Marine Sidelights

By C. L. HALE SCARBROUGH

Over 30 men from the Barracks have enrolled for dancing instruction to be given by non-professional teachers at the American Legion hall, Fourth and Klamath. The first class is expected to be held Monday, August 14, though hours and dates of classes are to be published by the recreation office as soon as definitely established.

The Junior Hostess organization will provide instructors.
