Ensign Mocabee Weds in San Jose

Of interest to Klamath Falls people is the wedding of Ensign David Mocabee of Klamath Falls and Muriel Keesling of San Jose in late July. Following in part is an article taken from the San Jose Evening News, telling of the wedding:

"Before the candlelit altar of Trinity Episcopal church, Muriel Keesling and Ensign Allen Mocabee, USNR, repeated the marriage vows recently.

Arrangement of white gladioli decorated the church for the impressive double ring ceremony at which the Rev. Mark Rifenburg officiated. LeRoy Brandt presided at the organ during the nuptials.

Escorted by her brother, Chief Petty Officer Norman Keesling, the bride was lovely in a frock of white starched lace. The gown was styled with fitted bodice, full skirt, and sweetheart neckline, and her fingertip veil fell from a Dutch cap of lace. She carried a French bouquet of white begonias and bouvardia, centered with an orchid.

Five attendants preceded the bride down the aisle. They were Mrs. Earl Smith of Berkeley, as matron of honor, and Betty Scott of Oakland, Elizabeth Whalen, Corrine Newell, and Marion Fisher of San Jose as bridesmaids.

Their gowns were styled like that of the bride.

Mrs. Smith completed her ensemble with a dainty hat of white horsehair, accented with bands of net ruching, and the bridesmaids wore crownless picture hats of white horsehair with white ribbon streamers. The attendants carried French bouquets of white sweet peas and white tuberous begonias.

E. J. Mocabee of Klamath Falls performed the best man's duties for his brother, and the ushers were Lieutenant (jg) H. J. Foote, Lieutenant (jg) Ron Renney, Ensign Don Smith and PFC Jim Montgomery. The bridegroom and his fellow naval officers were attired in their white uniforms.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kenneth Carey selected a smart frock of sheer gray print accented with lavender accessories and an orchid corsage. Ensign Mocabee's mother was attired in a navy blue suit, complemented by a white hat and an orchid corsage.

KennerMede, the bride's home, was the setting for the garden reception which followed the ceremony. Immediately following the reception, Ensign Mocabee and his bride departed on their wedding trip.

The bride's going away outfit was a three-piece lavender suit with which she wore lime accessories. Among the special guests at the wedding were Mrs. O. M. Keesling, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. W. H. deGarmore, grandmother of the groom.

The new Mrs. Mocabee is the daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Carey of Cupertino and Stafford Keesling of Fullerton. She attended Fremont high school, College of Notre Dame at Belmont, and Fullerton Junior college and is a graduate of the Samuel Merritt hospital school of nursing in Oakland.

Reames Dance

Tonight is the night chosen by members of the Reames Golf and Country club for their informal party dance to be held at the country club starting at 10 o'clock.

Several small parties are being planned before the dance and members will enjoy an evening of dancing at the club to the music of the Tulelake Guardsmen.

A special program will be put on at midnight by entertainers from the Marine Barracks. Master of ceremonies for the affair will be Sgt. Cliff Harp. Men taking part in the program will be Cpl. Don Steen, Cpl. Jack Mahoney, and PFC Freddie Girard.

Lois Bethune left last Saturday for Los Angeles where she spent this week with Evelyn Romberg, formerly of this city. This weekend she plans to travel to Las Vegas, Nevada, where she will visit with her brother, Locke W. Bethune, who is an instructor in aerial gunnery there. She will return next weekend by way of San Francisco where she will also visit for a time. Miss Bethune is employed at the First National bank.

Reception

Honored at an informal reception at the E. D. Johnson home on Pacific Terrace last Sunday evening were Ensign and Mrs. Stuart Nelson who stopped here for the weekend on their way to San Francisco.

Mrs. Nelson is the former Barbara Johnson and was married to Ensign Nelson on June 7 immediately after his graduation from Annapolis. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson.

The reception was held from 7 until 9 o'clock and many friends came in to greet the couple.

Coffee and punch were served from a table centered with an arrangement of purple and white asters and white candles. Pouring were Mrs. D. J. Zumbalt and Mrs. Fred Schallcock. Receiving guests were Mrs. P. A. Albertson, and Mrs. Robert Shaw, Miss Carolyn Collier and Miss Phyllis Collier assisted about the dining room.

Ensign and Mrs. Nelson have recently come from the east, stopping off in Salem to be with his parents. They will be in San Francisco until he embarks, then Barbara will return to Klamath Falls to be with her parents.

Informal Tea

Mrs. Harry Landrum will be hostess at an informal tea on Sunday afternoon honoring Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bradbury and two daughters, Julia Belle and Iris Fay, who are leaving Klamath Falls to make their home in Salem.

The tea will be held at the Landrum home at 533 North Sixth.

Barbara Loosley Is Recent Bride

Two of Klamath's oldest pioneer families were united when Miss Barbara Loosley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Butler Loosley, now of Sacramento, and Howard Holliday, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Holliday, were married at high noon last Sunday in Sacramento.

The ceremony was read at the Sacred Heart church in the California capitol by the Reverend Father Christensen before members of the bride's family and close friends. The double ring ceremony was used.

Barbara chose for her wedding, a tailored suit of aqua blue with white accessories and a corsage of baby orchids. Her only attendant was Miss Betty Lee of Sacramento.

The bride has been living in Sacramento recently, being a graduate of Sacramento high school. She is well-known here, however, having made her home most of her life with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Loosley of this city.

Howard is now engaged in farming at the Holliday ranch south of town. He attended Oregon State college at Corvallis and was a member of Theta Psi fraternity.

The young couple journeyed to Klamath Falls immediately after the wedding, where they are now making their home.

Church Wedding

In an impressive double ring ceremony read at the Sacred Heart church last Saturday morning, Lucia Vertin, daughter of George Vertin of Chicago, and Elmer V. Kowalski, also of Chicago, were married.

The wedding service was read at eight o'clock by Father Tighe.

The bride wore for the occasion a dress of white satin and lace trim fashioned with a long train and a sweetheart neckline. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias, rosebuds, and sweet peas.

Best man was Frank Fogar, aerologist's mate first class at the naval air station where Mr. Kowalski is an aerologist's mate third class. Maid of honor was Patricia Knoll who wore a white blue net frock with a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

The young couple are now making their home at 1742 Menlo Way.

Two Honored

Complimenting two young matrons who are visiting in Klamath Falls, their former home, Mrs. Richard Hayden entertained for Mrs. Dean Houston and Mrs. David Totten with an evening of bridge at her home on North Third on Thursday.

MR. AND MRS. ELMER V. KOWALSKI are shown on the steps of the Sacred Heart church last Saturday morning after their wedding ceremony. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kowalski are from Chicago. She is the former Lucia Vertin.

MARRIED in a ceremony at the Presbyterian church last Friday were Lucille Tilton and Charles Thomas, seaman second class. Mrs. Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tilton.
