

Chiloquin Home Is Scene of Wedding

Miss DeLorraine Markwardt became the bride of Aviation Radioman Second Class Loyal Heath, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Heath of Klamath Falls, in a beautiful home wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Markwardt, the bride's parents, in Chiloquin, at 7 p. m. on August 4.

The Reverend Leonard Buck of the Methodist Episcopal church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length white basket-weave dress with short sleeves and a rounded neckline. A Juliet cap of pearls held her fingertip length veil and she carried a fan bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Alfred Castel, Jr., the bride's only attendant, wore a floor length beige satin and chiffon dress, with her arm bouquet of pink and white sweetpeas. Neal Owens, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, was best man.

Before the ceremony, Elida DeBortoli, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. C. Glenger, sang "Now I Know" and "Because."

The marriage was performed in front of the fireplace which was decorated with white gladioli, carnations and fern, with white tapers in tall candelabra.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. A beautiful tiered bride's cake of white centered the main table and was served by Mrs. Walter Zimmerman. Mrs. Ed Owens and Louise Reid of Klamath Falls, aunt and cousin of the bride, poured coffee and punch.

Both of the young people are graduates of Chiloquin high school. Mrs. Heath is also a graduate of the University of Oregon with the class of 1933. She was active in campus affairs and served as president of Susan Campbell hall during her senior year.

Mr. Heath has been overseas for nearly two years, serving with the navy in the Pacific area.

After a trip through the Rogue River valley, Mr. and Mrs. Heath will travel to San Francisco where he must report for duty.

For going away, Mrs. Heath chose a suit of light blue with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

Guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Markwardt, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall, Mrs. Roy Geinger, Mrs. Gerald Wolff, Mrs. A. C. Glenger, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Mrs. Alfred Castel, Jr., Elida DeBortoli and Bonnie and Norma Lee Glenger, all of Chiloquin.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Markwardt, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Heath, Mrs. Robert Heath, Mrs. Ed Owens, Mrs. Besse Blackmore, Mrs. Gene Duffy, Neal Owens, Mrs. James Van Wormer, Maude Heath, Sharron Owens and Louise and Patricia Reid, all of Klamath Falls. Miriam Allen of Silverton, Oregon, and Lieutenant Benson Mitchell of Portland.
