

MEXICO FEARS BEGINNING OF NEW VOLCANO

MONTERREY, Mexico, Aug. 15.—A terrifying phenomenon resembling the birth of a new volcano has been reported from the village of La Paricuta, eight miles south of the city of Teran of this city.

The Associated Press correspondent went to the scene of disturbance, the center of which is an extensive orange grove in the vicinity said to be the first warning they had of the danger was last Saturday when a violent earthquake split the walls of their houses, uprooted trees and caused vast cracks in the ground.

The shocks had continued for then at intervals of a few minutes to an hour, they decreased, and were preceded or accompanied by loud subterranean rumblings.

The residents of the district, who are small orange growers, were terror-stricken. No deaths were reported, but they are afraid to remain in their homes and were greatly pre-occupied at the prospect of having to migrate from the region as the natives of the Paricutin area in the state of Michoacan, were driven from their homes by lava from the newly-born volcano overflowed their towns.

P. M. Deadline
Liquor to Army Personnel Remains

PORT DOUGLAS, Utah, Aug. 15.—Liquor establishments in the eight western states will continue to be requested not to sell liquor to army personnel after 8 p. m. tonight, despite a decision for some naval personnel, ninth service command headquarters said today.

The army has asked that sales of military personnel be made only between the hours of 5 and 8 p. m.

State liquor dispensary officials in Idaho said they had been notified by the 13th naval district that they could sell to naval personnel any time during regular hours.

The 13th naval district includes Oregon, Washington and Idaho, states which, with five others, make up the army's ninth service command.

Today Deadline
Price Lists
Restaurants

PORTLAND, Aug. 16 (AP)—Today is the deadline for restaurants to post ceiling price lists of common food items.

Earl C. Hald, Oregon district executive, OPA, said these lists must not be higher than those charged for the week of Aug. 14-16, 1943.

The lists, bearing an OPA price stamp, cannot be altered by the restaurant operator, and they must be visible to customers.

MacKay Appointed
New Circuit Judge

SALEM, Aug. 16 (AP)—District Attorney D. N. MacKay of Gilliam county was appointed by Governor Earl Snell today as circuit judge for the 11th district, including Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties.

MacKay was elected circuit judge in the May primary election, succeeding Judge George Updegraff, who was not a candidate. MacKay would have taken office next January, but Updegraff submitted his resignation today.

The governor said he would appoint a new district attorney today.

DEHOUSED

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—When L. L. Mauldin returned from a west coast war job, he found his house had been stolen. Not at all, said the district attorney. The house couldn't be stolen because New Mexico has no such statute regarding houses. Hence, common law would prevail. Hence, the house would be considered real estate, and since real estate is not considered movable, the house would not be considered stolen. Hence—

RECOVERING AT CENTER

Mrs. Arthur K. Bryant received word recently that her husband, G. M. I. Arthur K. Fighting Men Return From France for Rest

Long lines of tired men stream from an LST at an English port, returning from weeks of bitter fighting on Normandy front. They're headed for training and rest camps in England for well-earned respite from war. Signal Corps radio-telephoto from London.

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

DOUGLAS ARMY AIR FIELD, Ariz.—A graduate of advanced pilot training class 44-G, Melvin B. Miller, of Klamath Falls, Ore., recently received his wings and appointment as a flight officer in the army air forces.

F/O Miller, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick B. Miller, Klamath Falls, graduated from Klamath Union high school. Before entering military service, he was a student at the University of Oregon.

Lawrence Slater, Klamath Falls insurance man, has been promoted from captain to major. It was learned here today. Major Slater is in India. He is with the weather arm of the army air service.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith of 4011 Bisbee, have received word from their son, Edward M. Smith, that he has just recently been made staff sergeant and that he also received a medal for meritorious achievement for action against the enemy. He is stationed in Italy and recently spent seven days on the Isle of Capri.

Word has been received by the parents of Donald Ratliff, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ratliff Sr., of Malin, that Donald has been promoted from a sergeant to a staff sergeant. Don is located in the Admiralty Islands and has been on eleven missions. He is an armament technician and nose gunner on a Liberator bomber.

LEXINGTON SURVIVOR HOME—Ensign Sven C. Hult is home on leave visiting his father, Emerick Hult, 2660 Altimont. Ensign Hult has been in the navy five and a half years and was on the Lexington when it went down. He will leave in 30 days for four months training in Virginia.

Mrs. Loretta Peterson of 409 Michigan has received word from her son, Melvin Ramos, that he has been promoted from a staff sergeant to a technical sergeant with the marines. Sgt. Ramos is stationed at Cherry Point, North Carolina.

He was one of the "Three Musketeers," Klamath boys who met overseas and have been together almost ever since. He was stationed for some time in the South Pacific before being sent to Cherry Point.

KLAMATH BOYS MEET—S1/c Donald R. Jones, the son of Mrs. Ray Jones of Klamath Falls, told about a strange coincidence in a recent letter to his mother. S1/c Jones is stationed aboard an LST in the South Paacific. Where the moon isn't made for love. The sky is streaked with searchlights. Spotting Jap planes from above. Where the flashes like a comet. Show ack-ack in the night. The Zero whining downward. One less for tomorrow night.

Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific Where the mail is always late, Christmas cards in April. Are considered up to date. Where a never have a pay day, And we never have a cent. We'd never miss the money. For we never get it spent.

Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific Where the ants and lizards play. And a hundred fresh mosquitos. Replace every one we slay. Take me back to good old Oregon. Where the ducks and geese do roam. For this God forsaken outpost. Is just we might say Hell. In comparison to my home.

One day his craft was hooked to a larger ship and they were changing gear. He heard a shout from above asking if he was from Klamath Falls. He looked up to see Jerry Ireland also from here. The boys had a happy reunion. They were old friends, Jerry having graduated from Sacred Heart academy and Donald coming from KUHS. Mrs. Jones said when she read the letter she was wondering how Jerry had recognized his friend. Donald had written earlier saying that he had started to grow a beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hodges of Merrill have just received a poem from their son, Cpl. James Hodges telling of the life he is living in the Southwest Pacific. Cpl. Hodges has been in the Southwest Pacific area for over seven months. He has two brothers in the service, Paschall, in Italy, and Pierce, in training at Farragut, Idaho.

Following is the poem which he sent, the author unknown:

Somewhere in the South Pacific
Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific.
Where the rain is like a curse,
Each day is always followed,
By another slightly worse.
Where your tent is always muddy,
And your clothes are always damp
Where shaving is a fortune,
And a man feels like a tramp.

Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific
Where a white woman is never seen
Where the sky is always cloudy
And the grass is always green.
Where that something besides that buzzing
Of mosquitos rob men of their sleep
Where there isn't any whiskey
And quinine is very cheap.

Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific
Where the moon isn't made for love,
The sky is streaked with searchlights.
Spotting Jap planes from above.
Where the flashes like a comet,
Show ack-ack in the night,
The Zero whining downward
One less for tomorrow night.

Olene

Barton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Brown, is recuperating at the Brown home. Barton had his tonsils removed Monday at the Hillside hospital.

Mrs. Tom Pace and infant son, Tommy Gene, returned to their home in Olene from a Klamath Falls hospital, where the little boy was born August 5.

Lieut. Oliver Kinney is at present in Georgia where he is finishing his final training in the U. S. air corps. Sergeant Leonard Kinney is again at Camp Beal, Calif., after several months in eastern camps.

The Marion Barnes have received word that their son, Pvt. James Barnes is now on his way to Florida. Jim will be there for further training in ground armament in the air corps. The Barnes' have also heard that Major Ted Barnes will arrive home in the early part of September from China. Major Barnes is a brother of Marion Barnes and has been in the far east theater over two years.

The Olene store, which is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Eggers, is looking very nice since it has been enlarged and a new postoffice built on to it. The shelves of the little store are well stocked and quite a line of fresh fruits, vegetables and lunch meats have been added to the other stock.

Raymond Peart is working for Glen Dehlinger during haying.

Mrs. George Stevenson is spending a few days at Lake o' the Woods and is a guest at the Geary cabin.

Johnny Fisher, S1/c, returned the early part of last week to San Francisco after a 10-day furlough spent in Olene with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and daughter and their neighbors were business callers at the Spring Lake cottage one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, who were residents here for a short time last fall, were here one afternoon last week.

Tom Hess left Saturday night for San Francisco, after a short visit with his parents and other relatives here. He had a few days off while his ship was being repaired. He says this part of the country sure looks good to him now. Tom has been in the navy for some time.

George Reagan Jr., spent Thursday night with Douglas Kohler.

Eddie Richardsons have sold their property in this community to Enoch Johnson, but Johnson has not moved into it so far.

The community was shocked to learn of John Hershberger's death Saturday. Jack, as he was familiarly called by his friends, purchased the farm formerly owned by Charles Snyder, a few years ago, and started the Hershberger dairy. He disposed of his dairy herd, due to the labor shortage, about a year ago but rented out his farm ground and maintained his residence here. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Hershberger, June and Ronald, by their friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. King Hubble and family have moved into the Gooding property in the Pine Grove community.

Pattie Richardson, formerly of this community, is spending this summer in California, after having her tonsils and adenoids taken out.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reagan and Billie and Fay, were visitors at the Spring Lake cottage Friday.

Mrs. George Reagan and Mrs. R. Givens are enjoying a visit with their sister from Neosho, Missouri, who has been here for some time.

OPENING DATE SET FOR MALIN SCHOOLS

MALIN—Teachers of the Malin school this week received notice of the September 5 date for the fall opening of classes in the high school and the elementary school. Because of the Labor Day holiday there will be no county teachers' meeting as in past years, according to Fred Peterson, county superintendent.

All members of the high school teaching staff who taught last year will return, with A. E. Sirock to continue as principal. Other members of the faculty include Mrs. Emil Toffel, Mrs. Ann Paygr, both of Malin, Anna Dolezal, who has spent the summer with her family in the northern part of the state, and Mrs. Jean Blake, who during the summer vacation, has been employed in the war bond department of the shipyards at Richmond, California. She has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand, and will return August 31 to prepare for her duties in the junior high school.

No announcement has as yet been made on the faculty of the elementary school.

Oregon to Aid in Rubber Program, Says Hopkinson

PORTLAND, Aug. 16 (AP)—Oregon, with its great stands of timber, can make a big contribution to the nation's synthetic rubber program because of the process for making rayon from cellulose derived from wood waste.

So said Russell Hopkinson, director of the United States Rubber company's commercial development department. Rayon, he explained, is particularly valuable in the manufacture of tires from synthetic rubber.
