

PGA Championship Play Sees East Versus West

Six Matches Take Cross-Country Aspect; Nelson, McSpaden Both Win

By RUSS NEWLAND
SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 17 (AP)—Championship play in the Professional Golfers association national tournament furnished an east vs. west picture today as 16 survivors teed off in 36-hole second round matches at the Manito course.

Six of the eight link's battles pitted an entry from the eastern half of the country against a rival from the west.

Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., one of the big favorites, paired off with Mar. Fry, Oakland, in the starting match, and while the former U. S. open and PGA title winner was the odds-on favorite, Fry found a few supporters who recalled him as the two times California open champion.

Nelson chalked up a 5 and 4 win over Mike de Massey, San Jose, Calif., and Fry won from Neil Christian, Spokane, 2 and 1, in the opening 36-hole round. Nelson was three under par yesterday.

What shaped up as one of the toughest competitions of the day brought together duration U. S. Open Champion Craig Wood, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Art Bell, San Francisco. The former eliminated Jimmy Dargelo, Muskogee, Okla., 5 and 4 yesterday while Bell took a marathon match from Joe Zarhardt, Norristown, Pa., winning on the 37th hole.

High money winner of the year, Harold McSpaden, Philadelphia, squared off with an eastern opponent, Fred Annon, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and from McSpaden's showing in the first round he figured to romp in today.

In winning from Bruce Coltart, Absecon, N. J., 7 and 5 yesterday, McSpaden posted a 5 under par 67 in the morning round and whizzed through the third nine in 41. Par for the course is 36-36-72. Coltart's game itself was good enough to win in most leagues. He was two under par at the 27th, yet was 6 down.

Other second round set-tos today brought together: Willie Goggin, White Plains, N. Y., vs. Tony Manero, Stamford, Conn.; Sam Eyrd, Redford, Mich., vs. Charles Congdon, Tacoma, Wash.; Ed Dudley, Colorado Springs, vs. Jimmy Hines, Amsterdam, N. Y.; Bob Hamilton, Evansville, Ind., vs. Harry Basslet, Culver City, Calif.; Toney Penna, Dayton, O., vs. George Schneider, Salt Lake City.

Seattle Bomber Backfield Set

SEATTLE, Aug. 17 (AP)—A first string backfield of Dean McAdams, Milt Popovich, Morris Kohler and Dale Holmes—represented four Pacific Northwest schools in last night's dummy scrimmage of Seattle's new Professional league football team.

McAdams is a former University of Washington and Brooklyn professional star; Popovich starred for Montana; Kohler for Oregon State, and Holmes played for WSC.

Holmes went into the lineup in place of George Karamatic, formerly of Gonzaga and the Washington Redskins, who was on the sidelines for the second night.

Athletics Put Crimp In Browns

Mack Men Stop St. Louis 4-2; Tigers, Yanks Close In On Faltering Red Sox

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Mr. Baseball from Philadelphia may have the last say in the American league pennant race, although Connie Mack's Athletics today were buried in the bottom half of the standings.

The old gent with the scorecard, who recently celebrated his 50th anniversary as a manager, watched the A's put a 4-2 crimp in the Browns last night in the opener of a four-game series.

Russ Christopher stopped the Browns last night for the second time in a row and his fifth straight victory at Jack Kramer's expense. The Browns' 6 1/2-game lead was not affected but the loss served to flash a warning signal of trouble ahead.

Detroit and New York closed in on second place Boston. The Tigers took the Red Sox into camp, 4-2, on Rudy York's 12th homer with two on in the seventh. The blow spoiled the first big league start of Rookie Rex Cecil from San Diego, who stepped out of a California plan to gain a relief decision over St. Louis last Sunday.

Rufe Gentry hurled Detroit to its 12th win in its last 15 starts. New York moved to within a game of second and 7 1/2 of St. Louis on a dramatic ninth-inning homer by Bud Metheny with two on that doomed Cleveland, 11-8. Ed Lopat hurled Chicago to a 7-2 victory over Washington although Johnny Niggeling fanned 11 in eight innings for the losers. Ralph Hodglin extended his hitting streak to 13 games.

In the National, St. Louis set a modern record for reaching win No. 80 on the earliest date by shutting out New York, 5-0. Pittsburgh took sole possession of second place when rain washed out its game after two innings and Cincinnati fell before Brooklyn's Curt Davis, 3-1, snapping the Dodgers' five-game losing streak.

Bill Nicholson became the first National leaguer and third big leaguer to hit two grand slam homers this season when he walloped No. 27 with the sacks loaded as Chicago thumped Boston, 11-3. Red Lynn took the decision over Nate Andrews who was belted out in one heat.

Wife of Derringer Can Pitch, But She Doesn't Use a Ball

CHICAGO, Aug. 17 (AP)—Paul Derringer of the Cubs testified today his wife, Eloise, also can pitch, but instead of a baseball she used a cocktail, a skillet and a dinner plate, all thrown at him.

Her hurling constituted cruelty, the 39-year-old moundsman alleged, and Judge Joseph Sabath granted him a divorce. Derringer and his wife agreed to share custody of their 4-year-old daughter, Leda, for six months' periods. An out-of-court property settlement was reached. They were married August 19, 1937, and separated July 1, 1944.

Dorris Students Permitted to Play In All KUHS Sports

Students from Dorris who attend KUHS this coming year under the proposed transfer, will be eligible to compete in all athletics just the same as any other students who live in Klamath Falls, Stanley Woodruff, KUHS principal, has announced.

Woodruff stated that he had written Tom Pigott, secretary of the Oregon State Activities association (formerly the state athletic association), regarding the matter, and Pigott had replied to him that the California students could play on the same basis as any other bona fide students.

Aluminum's Power Need

To make one pound of aluminum requires as much electrical current as is used in the average American home over a period of more than three days.

Galan Scores on Homer

Portland Team Rockets Into Legion Title Finals

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Aug. 17 (AP)—Champions of Idaho and Nevada clash today for the right to meet Portland, Ore., for the American Legion region one baseball title.

Portland rocketed into the finals last night behind the masterful two-hit pitching of Jack Statzer against McGill, shutting out the Nevada nine, 7 to 0.

It was the Oregonians' second triumph, coming after they blasted Payette, Idaho, 11 to 2 in the tourney opener.

Thus, in two games, the Portland team has been nicked for only eight hits and two runs. Payette stayed in the running by walloping Bremerton, Wash., 14 to 2 behind a 19-hit salvo and the effective four-hit hurling of Emil Coder.

Portland can win the first region's crown tonight by defeating the winner of the Payette-McGill tussle tomorrow afternoon. But if Portland should lose tomorrow night, the double elimination tourney would carry over until Friday.

Pete Belcastro To Replace Buck Lipscomb Friday

Pete Belcastro, the Weed Assassin, will return to the armory ring Friday night for the first time in six weeks when he will face Jack Kiser in the semi-final event, taking the place of Buck Lipscomb, who is "incapacitated," Promoter Mack Lillard announced today.

The semi-windup will mark the first appearance of Belcastro since he was defeated by Gorgeous George Wagner some time ago. Pete suffered a broken nose at that time and has been out of action ever since.

Lipscomb was injured in another city this week and he will not be able to appear. Lillard said, however, that he thought Belcastro would add strength to the card.

NON-SQUEAK CHALK

NEW YORK—Squeak of chalk on slate blackboards is due to be as outmoded as McGuffey's reader in New York schools.

A glass surface on which a specially designed dustless chalk will be noiseless is one of the new types of boards being considered in a reconditioning program for schools here.

Suds Stop Portland Win Streak

Pitchers Steal Show In Coast Tilt As Beavers Halted 3 to 2 by Seattle

By The Associated Press
Pitchers stole the show in Coast league baseball yesterday, three six hit games being pitched while two hurlers helped materially at bat.

Southpaw Carl Fischer of Seattle stopped the Portland Beaver win streak at seven straight for a 3 to 2 victory in which he scored twice and batted in the third run.

Both the Rainiers and the Beavers scored in the third inning and then in the seventh a pair of infield singles, a double by Hal Sueme and Fischer's third hit gave the Rainiers their two run edge.

The Hollywood Stars gained a 2 to 1 win over San Francisco when Joe Mihasek, star hurler, slammed out a left field hit in the tenth inning to drive in the winning score. Mihasek scattered six hits while his mates were reaching Tom Seats for 12.

San Diego defeated Sacramento, 3 to 1, when Bill Salkeld slapped out a two-run double to left field in the fifth inning. Joe Wood Jr., won his second straight for the Padres with a six hit performance.

Oakland and Los Angeles split a doubleheader, the Angels winning the opener 1 to 0 as Ray Prim hurled his sixth shut-out of the season and his 10th win. In the nightcap, Damon Hayes registered his sixth straight win, 3 to 2, allowing but six safeties.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17 (AP)—Soldier ball players in the Salt Lake City territory can't play under their own names for other than their camp teams, but nobody has objected to their using "flags" in semi-pro games.

Thus Frank Lamanna (Braves) has become "Werner" on special occasions and Clarence (Hooks) left, San Antonio and Browns, has appeared as "Hooks," "Winner" and "Stewart." As a result of Lem Franklin's death in the ring, Prexy Abe Greene of the NBA suggests that each state establish a board consisting of a physician, a psychiatrist and a boxing expert to examine all worn-out veteran fighters.

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press
BRIDGEWORK STOLEN
WILKES-BARRE, Pa.—County commissioners are relying on state police to finish construction of a bridge—thieves stole 12 tons of girders and unless they are recovered the new bridge will be a post-war project.

BUSINESS UNDETERMINED

GIRARDVILLE, Pa.—An automobile "graveyard" in this hard coal community is living up to its name—a mine subsidence buried several thousand dollars worth of old cars and trucks.

BUGS STOP TRAINS

HARRISBURG, Pa.—May flies are hindering the war effort. The Pennsylvania agriculture department reported swarms of the pests matched by 90-degree heat temporarily stalled several electric locomotives pulling vital material.

Attracted by headlights, the flies smashed against the locomotive and piled up on trolley insulators. Short circuits resulted.

TIME-SAVER

DENVER—One young Denver matron knows how to make every minute count. Homeward-bound on a crowded street car, she diligently shelled garden peas, putting the peas in a paper bag. The pods? Just tossed them on the floor.

SEATTLE—Bullets flew wildly in a 13th floor room at the 13th naval district headquarters. A fire had broken out where small arms ammunition was stored. The explosions drew a large crowd to the street below. Summed up Fire Battalion Chief J. E. Kinney: No one was injured.
