

LEGION GROUP OFFERS PLAN FOR POSTWAR

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19 (AP)—The American Legion commission on postwar America offered today an 11-point program for such problems as employment, postwar taxes and United States foreign policy.

Emphasizing the encouragement of individual enterprise in business to bolster employment, the commission urged "a national program of fair and impartial treatment to both management and labor" with "a minimum of reliance on the expenditure of public funds."

The commission includes several governors, business and labor executives and others. It advocated a postwar policy of federal taxation which would modify levies upon individual and corporate incomes, and urged that "overlapping and competing taxation of the same sources of revenue by federal and state governments should be eliminated, with the federal government refraining from further encroachment into the field of sales taxes."

The commission pledged the American Legion's support in carrying on and developing the principles of foreign policy represented by the declarations of Teheran, Moscow and Cairo, together with the Connally and Fulbright resolutions.

The group advised that the government settle war contracts in general accord with recommendations of the Baruch-Hancock report and that speculative buying be prevented in the disposal of surplus property.

Girl Plunges Into Puget Sound

BREMERTON, Wash., Aug. 19 (AP)—After dispatching her sailor escort for a package of cigarettes, an attractive teen-age blonde clad in a naval uniform suddenly plunged into a main-deck porthole of the streamlined ferry Kalakala between here and Seattle early today. Although hampered by her heavy shoes and clothing, she was swimming strong when pulled from the chill Puget Sound waters by a ferry lifeboat crew.

Taken to a Bremerton hospital, she gave her name as Joyce Rhodes, Seattle, but declined to explain her act. Her escort was held for naval authorities by the shore patrol.

New York Heat Wave Breaks After Rain

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—Last Thursday the mercury hit 93 and seemed to be making such temperatures a daily habit. Perspiring governors of the New York stock and curb exchanges wiped their brows and ordered a closing on the next three Saturdays. Other security markets followed suit, and only grain, livestock and cotton markets planned Saturday business.

Friday it rained. The heat wave broke, the humidity vanished. Today, first of the heat holidays, the mercury by 11 a. m. had crawled barely to a comfortable 67 and the forecast was for a peak of around 80.

Off Heard Last Words

The good man lay cold and still in a pine box, with flowers all about. Yet, out of that hour came words of cheer—Christ's words.

"In My Father's house are many mansions . . . I go to prepare a place for you . . . I will return and receive you unto Myself."

ONE—This man had lived and died at peace with God his Maker. The wall of sin between them had gone down. "Therefore being justified by faith—counted righteous in God's holy eyes—we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." He went to meet his God with not a sin against his name. He was not afraid to die.

TWO—He gave to Christ lordship over all that he was and all that he had. Out of this total surrender, he proved that the kingdom of God is not meat and drink but uprightness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. And his home folk loved him for it—uprightness—joy—peace, at home and abroad.

THREE—He sent out the Gospel to the ends of the earth and by that he hastened the day when the rollcall of the redeemed will be complete. On that day Christ is to return and set up a warless world.

HEAR CHRIST—I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in Me, even though he were dead, yet shall he live. And those of mine who are still here and living at the hour of My return, shall never die. Never go into the grave. See John 11:25-26. So Christ is to return and raise up His people—the living and the dead, into their bodies of glory. "We shall not all sleep but we shall all be changed."

When they coffin you, what then? A Christless grave or will you go out to glory and eternal reward?

DEWEY SAYS RIGHTS OF LABOR MENAGED

By JACK BELL
ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 19 (AP)—In a Labor Day proclamation, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey asserted today that if wartime restrictions on labor were left in the hands of the government after hostilities cease they could totally end the right of collective bargaining.

The republican presidential nominee, who was criticized recently by Philip Pearl, American Federation of Labor publicist, declining to furnish the AFL with a special Labor Day message, issued his proclamation 16 days ahead of the holiday. Aides said such advance releases were not uncommon.

Declaring that there had not been a major strike in New York since Pearl Harbor, Dewey said that "the fruits of this peace on the home front are being harvested on the plains of Tuscany, Normandy, Brittany and Provence, as well as on the far-flung islands of the Pacific."

"Let us make sure—by not pausing for a moment in our efforts to provide the fighting fronts with all they need and more—that by next Labor Day there will be an end to the wartime restrictions which have been imposed on labor," he said. "These restrictions, if left in the hands of government, could destroy the institution of a free American labor movement and totally end the right of collective bargaining."

British Named Candytuft—Candytuft, a plant, gets its name from Candia, an old English name for the island of Crete, from which the seeds were carried to England in the 16th century.

The army air forces, which numbered 21,556 officers and men in 1939, increased its personnel to 2,385,000 in January, 1944.

THE FOREST FIGHTS!

On the battlefronts of the world, forest products are backing our boys in the fight for freedom. From the beaches of Normandy to the shores of Saipan, wood is a number one critical war material. Landing barges, gun stocks, battleship decking, PT boats, airplanes and smokeless powder are just a few of the more than 1200 military uses of wood. Sixty billion board feet of lumber went into the war effort during the past three years and this demand is steadily increasing as we press toward Victory.

More than one-third of this wood comes from Pacific Northwest forests—a major part of it from Oregon, the greatest timber-growing state in America. Much comes from Klamath County! Our soil will keep on growing magnificent forests to serve the world—IF WE KEEP FIRE OUT! Foresters say this is likely to be a bad forest fire summer. These hot days, a dry east wind, and one spark, one match, or one cigarette can turn hundreds of acres of precious green forest into blackened ruin. Don't YOU be the careless one!
