Dance at Reames Golf and Country Club Saturday

Members of the Reames Golf and Country club and their guests enjoyed an informal party dance at the club house last Saturday evening, August 12.

Music for the party was furnished by the Tulelake Guardsmen.

Entertainment for a midnight show was given by performers from the Klamath Marine Barracks. They were PFC Carl Hagel, Corporal Jack Mahoney, Corporal Donn Steen, Sergeant Cliff Harp and PFC Fred Girard.

The committee in charge of dance arrangements was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook.

Picnic Planned

Catherine Brumbaugh's country home near Pine Grove will be the setting for a picnic for members of the Business and Professional Women's club on Monday evening, August 21, 8:30 o'clock.

Committees are working to make this a gala occasion as it will be the first of informal vacation meetings before start of the club's regular meetings on September 4.

Hattie Evans, in charge of transportation, requests all those who do not have cars or a ride to meet at the Winona hotel at 9 o'clock, and those taking cars who have room for passengers are asked to stop there. Those attending are to take their own table service.

BPW reservations for the affair were in charge of Willie Uhlig, Jacquelin Newcom and Norma Miller, the president.

An executive board meeting has been announced for Monday, August 28, at 7:30 at the home of Eleonora Weatherford, 1238 East street. A number of important matters will be up for discussion before start of the fall meetings and all members of the board are urged to attend.

Rebekahs

A regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge was held Thursday, August 17, in the IOOF hall, with Mary Curtis presiding. Stella Dryden was appointed advisor of the Theta Rho girls and Thelma Dumm, assistant advisor. Practice for the convention to be held in Merrill in September occupied the greater part of the evening.

The Past Matrons club of the Eastern Star will hold a dessert luncheon at 1 o'clock on Friday, August 25, at the Masonic temple. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Oscar Peyton and Mrs. Hiram Murdoch.

Engagement

Major and Mrs. Daniel W. Stevens of Fort Lewis, Washington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Private Robert L. Holmes, USMCR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Holmes of Klamath Falls.

Miss Stevens is residing at Fort Lewis where her father is serving as the post chaplain. Private Holmes, a member of the V-12 training program, is stationed at the University of Washington in Seattle. They met while they were both attending Oregon State college where Private Holmes was a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

He graduated from Klamath Union high school in Klamath Falls and he is well-known here.

Mrs. Helen Listoe, who was appointed grand junior custodian at the grand council in Portland recently, was installed in that capacity Thursday night by Mrs. Poole.

A drill team of Job's Daughters dressed in pastel formals, presented a floral tribute to Mrs. Listoe and presented her with a bouquet of purple and white gladioli. Members of the drill team were Patricia Benoit, Sharon Willis, Lois Cade, Sally Mueller, Joan O'Neill, Nancy Humble, Nanette Schubert, Alice Mead, Joyce Sample, Mary Griffiths, Barbara King, June Dickson, Barbara Roskamp, Joanne Bennet, Lynden King, June Bosworth, Dorothy Collier, Marilyn O'Neill and Connie Hunt, soloist.

Mrs. Schultz was presented a gift from the group in appreciation of her work as guardian during the past year and H. E. Jones also received a remembrance in recognition of his hard work during the last year.

Following the ceremony, a social hour was held with Mrs. Viola Dickson, worthy matron of the Eastern Star, and Mrs. Sally Woods, associate matron, presiding at the punch bowl.

Fish Spread

For several months the Catholic Daughters of America have been serving a fish spread each Friday at the Commando center, a service which is much appreciated by the service men. The committee in charge of this work in August is composed of Nora Manning, Caroline Joans, Mary McGoran, Florence Pickett, Kathleen Maguire, and the chairman, Ellen Ely.

Couple United in Presbyterian Church

At a candlelight ceremony read at the Presbyterian church on Saturday evening, August 5, Patricia Croup and Billy Dean Stewart, MM2/c with the navy, were married by the Reverend David F. Barnett Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys Croup of Santa Monica and A. F. Croup of this city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore M. Stewart of Blair, Nebraska, and is stationed at the Klamath naval air station.

The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white with a fingertip veil. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and white gardenias.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Don Moyer, who wore a floor length dress of pink lace and carried pink and white gladioli and carnations.

The best man for the ceremony was F. J. Nacht and ushers were Bob Moyle and Harold Ogle, all with the navy.

Mrs. George McIntyre played Lohengrin's Wedding march and Schubert's "Serenade" on the church organ.

Mrs. Stewart is well known here where she attended Klamath Union high school for four years and was active in school affairs. The couple will make their home at 415 Walnut street.

Married

Miss Beryl Cunningham, daughter of Floyd Cunningham of this city, became the bride, on Tuesday, August 8, of Eldon Roy Clark, carpenter's mate third class, of La Grande at a ceremony at the First Methodist church.

The wedding took place at 7 o'clock in the evening and the ceremony was read by Chaplain A. M. Oliver of the Klamath naval air station where Mr. Clark is stationed.

The bride's only attendant was Viola Hicks and the best man was Roy Backlund, also a carpenter's mate third class at the naval air station.

For the wedding, the bride chose a grey suit with fuchsia accessories and a corsage of white gladioli. Miss Hicks wore a suit of green with white accessories and a yellow shoulder corsage.

Later, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride at 338 Martin for relatives and a few close friends of the couple. They are now making their home at the Villa Marquis apartments on North Eleventh.

Mrs. Clark is a teacher in the Klamath Falls schools and attended school at Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland.

Red Cross

Navy Wives are asked to attend the Red Cross meetings at the Red Cross headquarters on Main street every Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock to do Red Cross work.
