Miss Claryce Holm became the bride of Lieutenant Frank Dale Moynihan at a candlelight ceremony held in the Klamath Lutheran church on Saturday evening, August 12. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holm, formerly of Klamath Falls, and now of Bieber, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Moynihan of Montrose, Colorado, now stationed at the Klamath naval air station.

The beautiful myrtlewood altar of the church was banked with palms and tall bouquets of pink and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional white satin with a long train. Her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap of pearls. Her only ornament was a triple strand of pearls, and she carried a white Bible with a spray of orchids.

Virginia Morin, maid of honor, was in blue with a bodice of moire and a full net skirt. She wore a small net cap and carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Barbara Sellers and Faith Hunsaker, who wore dresses of pink and blue with satin bodices and marquisette skirts. They carried bouquets of pink and white sweet peas. Little Diane Delyea, the flower girl, wore a floor-length dress of white moire and carried an old-fashioned matching hat, and blue flowers.

Lieutenant Howard Eddy was the best man and the ushers were Lieutenant (jg) William Homen and Lieutenant Charles DuCander. Before the services, Mrs. Ruby Hiatt sang, "Because and 'Oh Promise Me," and the organist, Mrs. Carl Brandness, played Lohengrin's wedding march, and Mendelssohn's recessional. Rev. Orville Schmidt of Portland performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Carl Holm, the bride's mother, wore a blue print dress with white hat and accessories and her corsage was white gardenias. Mrs. Moynihan, mother of the groom, wore a crepe dress of light beige with matching hat, and a corsage of salmon pink gladioli matched the trim on her hat.

About a hundred guests were present at the wedding and at the reception in the church parlors which followed. A beautifully decorated bride's cake centered the table, with flowers carrying out the color scheme of pink and white. Mrs. S. J. Starkie and Mrs. A. R. Dickson poured, and after the bride had cut the first piece of the cake, Mrs. William DeCew served. Miss Dorothy O'Sullivan assisted about the rooms.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Moynihan will make their home in Klamath Falls for the present, where they are at home at the Evans apartments.
