

Executives, Labor Men to Get Taste Of Army Routine

FORT LEWIS, Wash., Aug. 23 (AP)—Industrial executives and representatives of labor will get a two-day taste of realistic soldiering at this army starting tonight. A group of 207 wartime producers will hit the high spots of a soldier's three-month basic training experience. They will hit the dirt in simulated action and get a taste of K rations.

Specially picked non-commissioned officers will handle the visitors like a bunch of G. I. Joes. In fact, some business executive may find his ex-office boy, now a sergeant, looking him over as a K. P. prospect. The visitors were invited by the war department for the sampling of grueling army routine. Grant Land Claims Approved by U. S. COQUILLE, Aug. 23 (AP)—County Assessor Charles W. Forrest announced the interior department has approved his claims for increases in the assessed valuations of Coos bay wagon road grant lands to $3 per acre. Valuations had been as low as 25 cents an acre. Forrest said, adding that Coos county now will receive $500 more annually from the government.

Bronaugh Attempts To Oust OPA Man

ALBANY, Aug. 23 (AP)—Carl Curlee, whose resignation as chairman of the Albany OPA board was demanded by a district OPA official Monday night, remained at his post today with the backing of all local board members. Lew Bronaugh, Portland, district operations officer, charged at a meeting here that Curlee "had shown a disposition to administer OPA regulations from the standpoint of the local community rather than by the try as a whole." Curlee denied the charge. Tammany Hall was led by William Mooney on Jan. 1780. Classified Ads Bring Re-
