

City Briefs

State Employees Picnic—The Klamath Falls chapter of the Oregon State Employees association will have their annual picnic, August 27, all day at the park. All state employees are requested to be present upon arrival at the picnic grounds. Roger W. Wright will be in charge of registrations. The committee will provide coffee, sugar and pop. Free ice cream and pop will be furnished by the chapter. The picnic will be held at the park.

Wife—Corporal Walter Davison spent Saturday and Sunday with his wife and child. He was on duty at the Marine Barracks in Klamath Falls.

On Leave—Cpl. Thurman Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Parrish, 2122 Hope, will be here visiting his parents until September 5. Cpl. Parrish has been in the service 22 months and is now stationed at Camp Polk, La., where he is a tank gunner.

From Lakeview—County Assessor Chris Langslet and John E. G. chairman of the Lakeview democratic central committee, called on friends here last week. Lakeview, they said, is looking forward to a big time at the round-up for the Labor Day holiday.

Jars to Give Away—The Commandos have a number of odds and ends in jars and glasses which they would be glad to give anyone wishing to pick them up. Anyone interested in the jars is asked to call at the day entrance of the center, which opens into the kitchen.

Office Closed—The navy recruiting office in the postoffice building will be closed all day Friday as Recruiting Specialist Ben Schreiber and WAVE Recruiting Officer Ivy Quale will be in Tulelake on recruiting duty.
