QUEENS FEATURED AT 44 ROUNDUP

Five combat duty in the South Pacific area. A second son, Glenn, who has served in the navy since before the U. S. was drawn into the war, is serving in China, and writes that his two-year period of duty is about completed.

Mrs. Lorraine Mahaffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Harris, is recovering satisfactorily from major surgery at her home in Klamath Falls. Her two young children are being cared for at the Harris home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cross left Monday for a week's visit with relatives in Washington.

New Pine Creek

It has been definitely decided by the Kelly Creek school board that in-as-much as Lakeview has set the opening date for the schools to start there on September 11, Kelly Creek will likewise open them. By so doing, the board believes it will simplify the scheduling of school events and achieve the minimum amount of conflict with calendar dates of other schools in the county.

It is understood that most of the repair work has been completed on the schoolhouse and the grounds so that the same will not be the cause of the acceptance of the later date by the board.

A card party sponsored by the PTA was held in the school house Thursday evening. It was the first of a series of six and was a no-host party. Those who played pinocle were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harbin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Husted and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Winfield. Bob Winfield won men's high prize and Leon Brown took low. Martha Harbin won ladies high prize and Sadie Scott took low. Margaret Brown won the traveling prize for 300 pinocle. Coffee and sandwiches were served after play. These card parties are to be held every Thursday evening until there have been six of them. Everybody is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Husted and family of Klamath Falls visited a few days with his brother and family, Kenneth Husted of Camp 8.

The D. F. Henderson family are in camp again, having repurchased the cabin which they had sold to Frank Gunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gunn have moved to Klamath Falls.

Others who have moved to Klamath Falls are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Winfield and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Del Weatherbee and sons. Both families returned to their homes in Klamath Falls in order to send the children to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Morrison are moving to their home near Roseburg. They took one load of household effects Monday. They are expected to return for the remainder of their furniture one day this week.

The Good Will club of Bly put on their play "Business, Strictly Business" in the Camp 8 school house Monday evening. The play was enjoyed by a good crowd. All money received from admittance was to go to the Red Cross.

Darrel Winningham returned home Sunday evening after spending the summer visiting relatives in Medford and along the Applegate river.

Multnomah County Persuades Voters

PORTLAND, Sept. 1 (AP) — Multnomah county is about to begin its annual campaign of persuading voters to vote.

A trailer, purchased for $1500, will tour the city to make it easier for citizens to register for the November election.

Walter Butler put a new coat of white paint on his dwelling last week, starting with the roof which he covered with green stain. The premises look considerably improved now. Blumer McCrary did the painting for him. McCrary is also doing some roof repair work on the Faris store and hall this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brown, Klamath Falls, have had a full house this week with the arrival of their son Byron, completing his training at boot camp at Camp Atterburg. Mrs. Donald Calkins, formerly Iris Brown, a daughter, is home from Ardmore, Oklahoma where her husband is serving in the medical department of the air corps.

Dorothea Brown left this week for Glendale, California, to enter nurse's training at the Glendale sanitarium. Another daughter, Marjorie, leaves September 15 for Walla Walla college.

Still another son, Corporal Cooper Brown, who has been in the South Pacific for over two years, is expected to have granted him a rotation leave in the near future, and he too will arrive home on furlough.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC PLANNED

TULELAKE—The annual Sunday school picnic for children of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church is planned for next Sunday, September 3 in Moore's park, Klamath Falls.

The regular Sunday school classes will be held, closing at 10:45, but the morning church service and the evening Christian Endeavor service will be omitted.

Transportation for children whose parents do not plan to attend will be furnished. Those attending will take a basket luncheon and recreation is planned for the afternoon.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES MEET

The Young People's Societies of the Altamont Presbyterian church held a combined service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McClellan Sunday evening, August 27, at 7 o'clock. Two members of the Junior Christian Endeavor, Morris Weakley and Brice Crawford, who enter KUHS this fall were graduated into the Sigma Pi society.

A meeting on "God in Nature" was led by David Patterson, followed by a "ragot" service.

Three members of the Sigma Pi are going away to school: Margaret McClellan to Whitman at Walla Walla, Washington; Lois Holcomb to the Baptist college in Hutchinson, Kansas, and Lou Ann Morrison to the University of Oregon. After the services, refreshments were served. This meeting on the "hill-side" has become an annual affair, this being the third meeting of the kind.

SPECIAL EMPHASIS MEETINGS SLATED

TULELAKE—The executive board of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, meeting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Weitkamp, voted to hold special religious emphasis meetings again next winter. The series to begin the last Sunday in February to run for two consecutive weeks.

It was reported that pledges made for purchase of new church pews are coming in, and that the pews may be expected any time after October.

Present for the meeting were Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Bronson, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Turnbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Street, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mrs. Viola Nelson and Jim Nelson.

Delegates to Arrive For Church Meeting

OREGON CITY, Ore., Sept. 1 (AP)—Delegates will begin arriving here tomorrow for the 15th annual convention of the American Lutheran church of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia.

Dr. S. C. Eastvold, president of Pacific Lutheran college, Parkland, Wash., will be principal speaker at the September 3-4 meeting.

Three centuries ago there were only eight persons for each square mile of dry land on the earth. Today there are 40.
